She spoke briefly on the purpose of the Commission in the life of the Church.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE VOTING: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker spoke briefly about the new voting process that we are going to be using for the first time this year. He noted how this will help our Conference to accomplish a lot of business in a shorter amount of time. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker then called on Randy Casey-Rutland to demonstrate how to use the hand held devices. The delegates had the opportunity to test their devices to make sure that they knew how to operate them correctly.

INTRODUCTIONS: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker introduced T. Terrell Sessums, Conference Lay Leader, at this time. He also noted that all of the District Superintendents are sitting next to their District Lay Leaders. Bishop Timothy W.

Whitaker introduced Bishop J. Lloyd Knox. He was received enthusiastically. He also introduced Bishop Branscomb's daughter Betty to the Conference. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker informed the Conference that Rev. Gerardo Martinez died last evening. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker offered a prayer for the family.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE PROGRAM AND AGENDA COMMITTEE: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on E. Keith Ewing, Chair, to give the Report of the Committee. The Report is found on pages 23-24 of the Workbook. In response to the question, "Where shall the next Conference be held?", he proposed that the next meeting of the Florida Annual Conference be held at Bethune-Cookman College. A short video was shown highlighting the facilities offered by the College, as well as the amenities of the Daytona Beach area. Dr. Oswald P. Bronson personally invited the Florida Annual Conference to hold their 2004 session on the Bethune-Cookman College campus. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote to approve the motion to hold the 2004 session of the Florida Annual Conference at Bethune-Cookman College. The motion carried. Videos were distributed to the delegates to help promote this change. E. Keith Ewing called the delegate's attention to the materials and the pocket agenda found in their packet. He moved that these be received with the change that the Bishop be given the authority to call for a vote at any time, and not just during those times listed in the agenda. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the motion. The motion carries. (See Reports)

COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Kathleen Rydell, Chair, to give the Report of the Committee. The Report is found on page 116 of the Workbook. She spoke about the many accomplishments of our Bishop during the past year. She expressed her gratitude for his spiritual leadership and guidance. She asked Dick Wills to bring Mrs. Whitaker to the stage. Kathy also thanked Mrs. Whitaker for all of the ways that she has been guiding our Conference in mission and outreach opportunities. She presented Mrs. Whitaker with a special pin to thank her for all that she has done for the Children's Harvest Project. COMMISSION OF EQUITABLE COMPENSATION: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called David Rawls to present the Report of the Commission. The Report is found on pages 85-89 in the Workbook. He made one correction to the Report. The change was on page 88, line 2. The rate for a full time Local Pastor with 2 or more years of Course of Study should be $29,200. He then informed the Conference of some of the on-going actions of the Commission. He then thanked all of the members of the Commission for their hard work. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the Report. Motion carried. (See Reports)

FLORIDA SOUTHERN COLLEGE: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Dr. Thomas L. Reuschling, President of Florida Southern College, to address the Conference. He spoke about all of the successes that the school has celebrated this year. With a lower faculty to student ratio, the college is able to make sure that every student has the chance to excel in his/her field of study. There are a number of students from local congregations who are benefiting from the Advancing the Flame Campaign. He introduced Rev. Tim Wright, Chaplain, and Mike Crawford, Director of Church Relations, to the Conference. He encouraged each delegate to go back and talk to their churches about supporting the ministry of Florida Southern College. He then made a special presentation to T. Terrell Sessums for his ten years of service on the Board of the College. (See Reports)

BETHUNE-COOKMAN COLLEGE: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Dr. Oswald P. Bronson, President of Bethune-Cookman College, to address the Conference. He thanked the delegates again for their vote of confidence by electing to hold the next session at Bethune-Cookman College. He spoke about the achievements in the education, nursing, and science departments of the college. He also spoke about the achievements of the graduates who are going out to change the world. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker then spoke about the special relationships that this Conference has with these two colleges. He noted that there is a growing movement for the church to have a more hands-on relationship with Christian colleges so that we can better identify and train a new generation of laity and clergy. (See Reports)

CONFERENCE TABLE: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Bill Walker, Chair, to present the Report of the Conference Table. The Report is found on pages 25-26 of the Workbook. Bill then asked Jim Harnish to speak about the purpose and intent of the Conference Table. He noted that there were four settings of the Conference Table this year. The next Conference Table will focus on the “culture of the clergy.” Jim introduced several recommendations for consideration. Recommendation No. 1 asks the Florida Annual Conference to adopt a new Vision Statement. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the Recommendation. Recommendation No. 1 carries. Anne Burkholder Daniel spoke briefly on Recommendation No. 2. This Recommendation asks the Florida Annual Conference to adopt a new Mission Statement. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the Recommendation. Recommendation No. 2 carries. Kendall M. Taylor spoke about the process that has led up to the language found in this Recommendation. Recommendation No. 3 asks the Florida Annual Conference to adopt the “eight measures of a healthy congregation.” Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the Recommendation. Recommendation No. 3 carries. Bill thanked everyone who has worked so hard to make the Conference Table a powerful and positive experience for the Church. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker reminded each congregation of its inherent call to be places where new birth in Christ can become everyday events. (See Reports)

OFFERING RESULTS: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker notes that an offering has been received for the Heritage Center in the amount of $3,381.98. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker reported that last night’s offering was $88,811.65. An amount of $11,308.57 had already been received. This makes the total to date $100,120.22.

ELECTION PROCEDURE COMMITTEE: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Randy Casey-Rutland, James Jennings, and Lynette Fields to present the Report of the Committee. They are making three recommendations prior to the voting. Recommendation No. 1 states that “A person will be elected when they receive 50% of the votes cast on each ballot plus one. That number will be determined at the end of each ballot. There are no invalid ballots as in past years. If a mistake is made on one vote, it will only affect that one vote.” Recommendation No. 2 states “Once the first ballot has been tabulated, every person’s name and their vote will be read and displayed. Starting with the second ballot, only those with 25 votes or more will be read and displayed. Recommendation No., 3 states “When the 15 delegates to the General Conference and the 15 delegates to Jurisdictional Conference have been elected, there will be one more ballot. The top seven people on that ballot will be the alternates.” Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker asked for questions or discussion about the Recommendations. There were two questions raised from the floor. Aldo Martin offered an amendment to Recommendation No. 2 to read, ‘Starting with the third ballot, only those with 25 or more votes will be read and displayed.’ It was accepted by the Election Procedure Committee. Mary Alice Massey reminded the Conference that the first person elected in the Jurisdictional Conference vote usually has served as the alternate to the General Conference delegation. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker offered a clarification to Recommendation No. 3 to read, ‘The first persons elected to the Jurisdictional Conference will serve as the alternates to the General Conference Delegation in order of their election as required by the Book of Discipline.’ The clarification was accepted by the Committee. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the procedures as amended. Motion carried. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Randy Casey-Rutland. He led the delegates through a sample vote on the hand-held devices. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker asked Candace Lewis to offer a prayer prior to the vote.

Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker reminded the delegates of the importance of this moment. He noted that we ought to send persons who exhibit good judgment, who are open to the leading of the Holy Spirit, and who reflect the diversity of our Conference. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker led the Conference through the first round of elections.

FIFTH BALLOT TAKEN: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker led the Conference through the fifth round of elections.

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Carol D. Conner, Chair, to give the Report of the Committee. The Report is found on pages 126-128 of the Workbook. She listed the names of three new churches that are receiving their Charters this year. They are: Crossroads Community United Methodist Church in the Tampa District, Grapevine United Methodist Church in the Melbourne District, and the

First Haitian United Methodist Church in the Melbourne District. Carol reported that there are four churches that are going to be discontinued as local congregations at this session of Conference. They are: Indiantown United Methodist Church of the Melbourne District, Wabasso United Methodist Church of the Melbourne District, First Hispanic United Methodist Church of the Miami District, and Trinity United Methodist Church of the St. Petersburg District. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote to discontinue these congregations. The motion to discontinue was approved. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker thanked all of the persons who have so faithfully served the living Christ through the years in each of these churches. He also thanked them for making it possible for new life to continue as resources are made available to other congregations to use for the cause of Christ. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker offered a prayer at this time. Carol introduced the pastors of the new churches launched in 2003. They include: Oak Leaf in Jacksonville, The Lighthouse in Miami, Hope - Satellite Campus in New Port Richey, South St. Petersburg, Celebration United Methodist Church in Gainesville, First Hispanic United Methodist Church in Clearwater, and Iglesia Unida Metodista Nueva Vida (New Life United Methodist Church) in Ocala. Carol informed the Conference that two new Hispanic missions have started since our last Annual Conference. They are: Deltona Hispanic Mission in the DeLand District, and Davenport/Haines City Hispanic Mission in the Lakeland District. Carol called on Mont Duncan to address the Conference. He spoke about the role and purpose of the Committee. He informed the Conference that over 160 of our churches received no persons on Profession of Faith in 2002. The mission of the church is to make disciples of all people. It is the business of each local church to fulfill this mandate of Christ. Newer churches are taking seriously this call to make disciples, and that is reflected in their rate of growth. Mont noted that we are now witnessing a new phenomenon - new churches starting new churches. Why is this? Again, because they are taking seriously the call to disciple the lost. Carol then took a moment to thank Barbara Holden, Secretary of the Committee, for her 22 years of service to the Conference. She was presented with a gift and was thanked enthusiastically by the Conference. Carol invited Marcial Carranza of the Sarasota District to share some of the exciting things that are happening as churches throughout the District try bold new methods to reach the large numbers of Hispanic people who live in the area. (See Reports)

TENTH BALLOT TAKEN: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker led the Conference through the tenth round of elections.

THE OFFICE OF CONGREGATIONAL TRANSFORMATION (continued): Kendall Taylor returned to offer some personal thoughts as he, and the committee, move forward in the hard work of transformation. We have to create a new Conference culture. To do this, we must: (1) fall in love with non-religious persons who live in our neighborhoods, (2) organize our congregational life to hospitably receive them into the fellowship of the church, and (3) offer them Christ, and then disciple them along so that they in turn can disciple others. We are being called to nothing less than obedience to Jesus Christ. (See Reports)

STANDING RULES COMMITTEE: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Sue Hauptert-Johnson to give the Report of the committee. The Report is found on pages 147-181 of the Workbook Supplement. She presented the revised Standing Rules for the Florida Annual Conference for the Conference to consider. She proposed a change to the revision prior to the vote on adoption. Bill Walker also made a few changes to the document prior to the vote on adoption. They were to replace the last sentence of Paragraph 206, sub 1.a. with "All matters requiring action of the Annual Conference shall be available to all delegates no less than ten days prior to the opening day of Annual Conference. The traditional Conference Workbook will be printed and made available to delegates prior to Annual Conference." Bill also moved in paragraph 206 sub 1. b. "Replace all references to Conference Welcome Book with 'Workbook Supplement' and expand the deadline for receipt from ten working days to fifteen working days." He also added "All materials included in the Workbook Supplement shall be at the cost of the submitting party." Finally, add to paragraph 206, sub 1, a new subparagraph 'd' which reads, "All resolutions appropriate for review by the Committee on Resolutions must meet the Workbook deadline unless the underlying subject first arose after that date." Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the adoption of the revised Standing Rules. Motion carries. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker thanked the Committee for all of their hard work in organizing the Standing Rules. She then brought a proposed policy change recommendation from the Committee and is found on page 147 in the Workbook. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker addresses the rationale for the proposed policy change. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the motion. Motion carries. Sue thanked everyone for their hard work. (See Reports)

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Carmen S. Arnett, Conference Secretary, offered a few announcements at this time. The unofficial registration for the Conference is 937 clergy delegates and 989 lay delegates.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Bob Grizzard, Chair, to present the Resolutions for consideration by the Conference. The first Resolution is entitled “Petitions to General Conference Regarding Presentation on General Boards, Agencies, and Commissions.” J. Clarke Campbell-Evans offered an amendment to petition no. 1 of the Resolution. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the substitute to petition no. 1. The substitute failed. Petition no. 2 carries (yes-728 and no-48). Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on petition no. 3. Petition no. 3 carries (yes-730 and no-57). Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on petition no. 4. Petition no. 4 carries (yes-734 and no-59). Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on petition no. 5. Petition no. 5 carries (yes- 717 and no-57). The second Resolution is entitled “Inclusive Representation, Higher Education and Campus Ministry.” Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the Resolution. The Resolution carries (yes-684 and no-73). The third Resolution is entitled “Child and Youth Protection Policy (Revised) Florida Annual Conference of the United Methodist Church” and was adopted earlier in the day. The fourth Resolution is entitled “Resolution to General Conference on Proposed Legislation on Directors of Communications.” Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the Resolution. The Resolution carries (yes-656 and no-97). The fifth Resolution is entitled “Living Wage resolution.” Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker ruled that there are two parts to the Resolution and will call for a separate vote on each part. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the first part of the Resolution. The Resolution carries (yes-585 and no-157). Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on a vote to the second part of the Resolution. The Resolution carries (yes-563 and no-166). Bob thanked everyone for their patience and their participation in the Resolution process. Doug Hallman asked if it may be possible to have a page inserted in the Workbook that reports back to the Conference any action that may have been taken as a result of any Resolutions. (See Reports)

CLERGY HOUSING COMMITTEE: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Warren Langer to give the Report of the Committee. The Report is found on pages 102-109 of the Workbook. The Report contains 4 provisions. If they are passed, they will be included in the Standing Rules of the Conference. The first recommendation establishes Conference-wide standards for church owned parsonages. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The motion carried. The second recommendation establishes the guidelines for housing allowances offered to pastors in lieu of a church owned parsonage. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the second recommendation. The motion carried. The third recommendation makes the pastor, not the local church, responsible for providing the basic furnishings for the parsonage, or private home, that they live in. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The recommendation carries. The fourth recommendation authorizes the creation of a Housing Committee in each District of the Conference. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The motion carries. Warren thanked everyone on the committee for their hard work to bring these recommendations to the Conference today.

MOTION: Frank Furman moved that we continue in session until our work is completed this evening. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the motion. The motion carried. (See Reports)

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker adjourned the Conference at 5:10 p.m.

CONFERENCE CONVENES: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called the Conference to order at 5:15 p.m.

TRUSTEES OF FLORIDA ANNUAL CONFERENCE: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Leland McKeown to give the Report of the Committee. The Report is found on pages 182-186. Bill Walker informed the Conference that a donor has made it possible for a Prayer Chapel to be constructed at the Life Enrichment Center. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote to allow the gift to be received. Motion carried. Leland thanked the Trustees for their hard work throughout the year. He then informed the Conference of many of the projects that they have been working on over the past year. One of the projects that the Trustees continue to work on is the construction of the Heritage Center. Leland highlighted the budget needs of the Trustees for the coming year. Leland then introduced two Resolutions to be considered by the Conference tonight. The first resolution authorizes the repayment of monies borrowed for the wastewater treatment plant for the Life Enrichment Center. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the resolution. The resolution carries. The second resolution relates to the funding for, and construction of, the Heritage Center. Ivan Corbin spoke briefly on the progress of the dream for a Heritage Center. Jim Harnish offered an amendment to the resolution. He expressed concern about the annual funding of the Heritage Center in light of the budget shortfalls projected by the Conference Treasurer. His amendment reads: "I move to delete item 4 (delete: Acknowledge that after years the operating costs likely will have to be included in apportionments and that decisions about the level and cost of staffing will have to be addressed after 2 years). And I move to change item 7 to state - If funding for construction and estimated operating costs has not been completed so that construction can begin by December 31, 2004 (approximately 18 months from now), then the Annual Conference shall be asked to re-examine and re-authorize this project." Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the amendment. The amendment carried. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the resolution as amended. The resolution carried. (See Reports)

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Frank Furman, Chair, Risk Management Committee, to present the Report of the Committee. The Report is found on pages 143-146. Frank noted that the Conference invited six Brokers to review our program and advise of their ability to provide insurance for the Florida Annual Conference. The 4 Brokers that responded included: Marsh USA, HRH/Hobbs, Davis Baldwin/Wachovia, and Arthur J. Gallagher. The 2 Brokers that declined to offer their services were AON, and Brown and Brown. After review, Arthur J. Gallagher was selected. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Bill Johnson, Chair, Council on Finance and Administration, to present the Report of the Council. The Report is found on pages 53-70 of the Workbook. He thanked all of the members for their hard work during this past year. Randy Casey-Rutland came and offered another brief snapshot of the fiscal health of the Conference at this time. He also informed the Conference of the results of the annual audit. Bill presented the proposed Conference budget of $18,716,940 for 2004. This represents a 3.8% increase over the 2003 budget. Bill noted that there are several recommendations to be dealt with this evening. Recommendation No. 1 sets the 2004 salary of the District Superintendents at $75,700 and that retirement and other benefits be paid accordingly. Ken Vickery moved that “the salaries of our District Superintendents remain at their 2003 salaries.” Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the amendment. The amendment carries. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation as amended. The recommendation was approved. Recommendation No. 2 establishes the mileage and per diem rates for Conference meetings. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The recommendation was approved. Recommendation No. 3 establishes the Housing allowance for Conference employees. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The recommendation was approved. Recommendation No. 4 establishes the Fair Share formula to be used to determine local Church apportionments. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The recommendation was approved. Recommendation No. 5 establishes the procedure for the expenditure of funds so as to be in accord with the Book of Discipline and the Standing Rules. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The recommendation was approved. Recommendation No. 6 establishes the date of January 15, 2004, as the deadline for all 2005 budget requests. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The recommendation was approved. Recommendation No. 7 establishes the Conference-wide fund raising appeals approved for 2004. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The recommendation was approved. Recommendation No. 8 authorizes The Council on Finance and Administration to negotiate and to establish a loan, or line of credit, not to exceed $1,000,000.00. John Ekers moved that “the line of credit must be paid back in its entirety by the end of the accounting year (January 31) in which it was borrowed.” The motion was accepted by the Council. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation as amended. The recommendation was approved. Recommendation No. 9 authorizes The Council on Finance and Administration, in consultation with the Bishop, to act on financial matters between sessions of the Annual Conference. Walter Edwards moved to amend the recommendation to include the District Superintendents to the list. The motion was received by the Council. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation as amended. The recommendation was approved. Recommendation No. 10 requests that the 2004 Conference Budget and apportionments be adopted. Randy Casey-Rutland made a correction to the figure for clergy support. Gene Rutland moved that “the Council be given the authority to provide a 1% increase to the District Superintendents if funding allows.” Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote to the amendment. The motion to amend fails. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called for a vote on the recommendation. The recommendation was approved. Bill thanked the members of the Council and Randy Casey-Rutland for their hard work. (See Reports)

ANNOUNCEMENT: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker shared news with the Conference that Brittney Cott, the young lady that received the Denman Award earlier, was involved in an auto accident on her way home. It doesn't appear to be serious. He invited the Conference to keep her, and her family, in our prayers.

KOINONIA FELLOWSHIP: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker called on Warren Langer to speak briefly about the work of the Koinonia Fellowship. He informed the Conference that this group will disband as of August 1, 2003. The proceeds in the fund will go to the Foundation for them to disperse to families of Koinonia members until depleted.

DELEGATES PRESENTED: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker invited the delegates for General and Jurisdictional Conferences to come to the stage that they might be presented to the Conference. Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker offered a prayer for them as they prepare to represent our Conference at General and Jurisdictional Conferences.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Carmen S. Arnett, Conference Secretary, made several announcements at this time.

PRESENTATION OF NEW DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker presented those persons who are soon to serve as District Superintendents in the Florida Annual Conference. Each District Superintendent affirmed that the appointments as listed in the Booklet are in good order and are fixed. Three corrections were noted and will be submitted.

ESTABLISHING THE PASTORAL APPOINTMENTS FOR 2003-2004: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker led the Conference in the Order for the Setting of the Appointments. The Conference joined in the singing of the Hymn "A Charge to Keep I Have."

ADJOURNMENT, SINE DIE: Bishop Timothy W. Whitaker adjourned the Conference at 8:05 p.m.
