“Becoming Disciples of Jesus Christ”

Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr., Presiding Officer

Dr. Kenneth L. Minton, Conference Secretary

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

THURSDAY MORNING - JUNE 13

LAITY SESSION: Alice Williams, District Lay Leader for the East Central District, welcomed those attending. She expressed her excitement in being present at the conference to witness a true movement of the Holy Spirit in the Florida Conference and the theme, “Becoming Disciples of Jesus Christ.” Alice said that while many of the churches in the conference do a good job of building believers, not as many do a good job of building disciples. She stated her hope that the time together during the conference will enable those attending to grow in their journey towards discipleship. Alice also offered a special welcome to the youth as well as to the “vintage” adults in attendance. She concluded her remarks saying, “What a wonderful blessing it is to have a cross section of young, vintage, and us “tweeners” all together as members of Annual Conference.”

WORSHIP AND PRAISE: Jeremy Hearn and his music team led the session in worship with songs of praise and prayer.

UNITED METHODIST MEN PRESENTATION: John Rogers, Conference President of the United Methodist Men with members of the UMM Executive Board standing by, called for a moment of remembrance for Gene Winland, recently deceased conference UMM president. John then presented Russ Graves, Conference Lay Leader, with The Society of John Wesley Award, in recognition of someone who has given Christian leadership to the ministry of the United Methodist Church over an extended period of time.

LAITY INVESTMENT: Russ Graves opened his remarks by asking the question, “How relevant is our version of God’s church today?” and showing a video. The video provided comments from across generations and across denominations that pointed to the fact that the church is losing its impact in North America. In his remarks, Russ stated that we live in a world that is hungry for answers to questions about individual life issues. As believers, we have knowledge, given to us by our Savior Jesus Christ, that we are to share as Jesus’ disciples, to help them find the answers they seek. The role of the pastor and staff is to equip the saints, not to do ministry for us. “Discipleship is the call of laity,” Russ said. We are the hands and feet of Christ. Russ continued saying that he believes there are primal forces that remain deeply embedded in every Jesus community and in every believer, and that this is our time, a time when only a solution going to the very root of what it means to be a follower of Jesus will do. John Wesley helped us see that it is about community; it is about relationships. It is not only our clergy who are called, Russ continued. Laity is called to live and model a Christ-like culture that loves and encourages one another; inspires and equips one another; invests in others; holds each other accountable; helps others discover and live out God’s unique call for their life; and helps develop spiritually mature disciples. The breakout sessions scheduled for the next two afternoons are intended to start a conversation about discipleship through Wesleyan small groups as one of the ways to disciple. Vibrant and successful churches typically have Christ-centered, vibrant and dynamic small groups. The Florida Conference is searching for ways to more effectively resource and empower the local churches to conduct the ministry God has called them to in the community where He has planted them. Russ also introduced two new Associate Conference Lay Leaders, Rachael Sumner, for Reaching the Next Generation, and Derrick Scott, for Intergenerational Focus. The focus is on discipleship, one-on-one and collectively. A significant focus is to connect older and younger adults and to grow new and younger leaders in God's church. "We must reach people under 40 while keeping people over 60," Russ stated. The challenge is not about church survival or enlisting members, but about investment and relationship in laity.

PRESENTATION: Jahlil Witt, a student at Bethune-Cookman University, described his childhood which was filled with abuse and neglect at the hands of caregivers. Even when he successfully graduated from high school with good grades despite a lack of support at home, his faith and hope were tenuous. However, Jahlil found faith in Jeremiah 29:11. With the belief that God had a plan for his life, Jahlil traveled to Daytona to attend Bethune-Cookman, where he was taken in and surrounded by a community of Christian believers.

REACHING THE NEXT GENERATION: Rachael Sumner asked the question, "How do we engage young adults in ways that are meaningful for them?" Referring to David Kinnaman's book, You Lost Me, Rachael said that 59% of young adults drop out of church at some point. It doesn't mean that they walk away from their faith, but they feel disconnected from the church as an institution. "So what do we do about it?" she asked. Rachael stated there is no quick fix. Young adults want to build community, and they want to create organic groups that don't necessarily look like things that have been done in the past. Young adults want to be involved in ministry in real and tangible ways. They want to be the hands and feet of Jesus. Many times that happens by going outside the doors of the local church and into the community. Young adults see the community as the mission field and want to reach out in ways they can see they are making a difference. Young adults also want to share in leadership and decision-making. The good news is that at God's table there is always room for those who want to serve, Rachael continued. God doesn't just call the seasoned and experienced. He calls all - young and old - to serve Him together. In Timothy 4:11-14, Paul called Timothy his true son in faith and encouraged him. Young adults are Timothys, needing a Paul in their lives for coaching and encouragement. Rachael concluded by saying to the young adults, "Now, more than ever, the time is ripe for you to step up and serve. God has called us all to the work of building His kingdom. You have support like never before from the leadership of the Conference. You will need support at home too. Seek out a Paul in your life."

ALIGNING RESOURCES: Mickey Wilson, Conference Treasurer and Director of Administrative Services, called attention to the re-alignment of conference resources to focus on the opportunity, and obligation, for reaching out to the next generation.

AN INTERGENERATIONAL FOCUS: Derrick Scott, Associate Conference Lay Leader for Intergenerational Focus, called on the local churches to "Be Ready!" God has a call for each of us. God has a purpose for each of us. As an example of reaching out to the next generation, Derrick called on Russ Graves. Derrick had challenged Russ to strike up a friendship with a young adult. Russ accepted the challenge and offered his friendship to a young man, 24 years old, who was new in Russ' community. That man was Drew Eales, Director of Worship Arts at First UMC in Melbourne. Both Russ and Drew described an experience that enriched each other's lives in ways neither could have predicted. Russ noted that his relationship with Drew had enhanced his relationship with his children and grandchildren in that he listens more. Drew said, "Russ is the only 60-year old person that texts me and says, 'You wanna hang out?'" Drew added, "If there were more people like Russ, it would be amazing." To promote a commitment between generations, Derrick asked those in attendance to choose someone of a different generation and to place that person's name on a commitment card which had been distributed earlier. In doing so, they promised to pursue a friendship with that person, "for Jesus' sake." The response was outstanding. Lines of attendees placed their cards in baskets as a sign of their commitment to do so. Russ concluded by encouraging both ends of the generational spectrum, saying to the over-60 attendees, "There is no retirement in the Bible." To the younger than 40-year-olds, he said, "You are not the future. You are today!"

WORSHIP AND PRAISE: Jeremy Hearn concluded the laity session with worship and praise.

CLOSING PRAYER AND BENEDICTION: Russ Graves then led the gathering in a closing prayer and benediction.

2013 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part II

CLERGY SESSION: Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr. called the Clergy Session to order at 10:00 a.m. Rev. Terri Hill, Chair, Board of Ordained Ministry, moved “To allow lay supply, clergy from other denominations serving appointments in the Florida Conference, and retired members of other Annual Conferences serving appointments in the Florida Conference to be admitted as guests of the Clergy Session without voice or vote.” The motion was approved. The session began with the singing of the hymn, “And Can It Be.” Bishop Carter offered a prayer. He introduced Rev. Robert McMichael who will be serving as the Worship Leader for this session of the Annual Conference. Rev. Sue Hauptert-Johnson, member of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, presented an overview of the proposed changes to the health care plan being offered by the Board during our business session. She presented statistical and financial data to support the rationale for the proposed changes. She expressed the Board’s concern regarding the significant underfunding of the Conference health care plan to meet future needs and benefits. A Task Force has proposed changes to address these concerns. She stressed the importance of taking the steps necessary to promote clergy wellness – body, mind and soul. She concluded by reminding the clergy members of the benefit of sound financial planning now. Rev. Susie Horner, Chair of the Order of Local Pastors, gave the Report of Local Pastors. Rev. Dale Tedder, Chair of the Order of Deacons, gave the Report of the Deacons. Rev. Bob Laidlaw, Chair of the Order of Elders, gave the Report of the Elders. Rev. Terri Hill highlighted a study by a consultant who specializes in studying people’s jobs to determine success/greatness. The consultant noted that a Pastor’s job is one of the most complex jobs to study. The demands and duties are nearly impossible to measure accurately. Being a Pastor is difficult work. She noted that a Task Force is being formed to help us to become aware of those areas that need our constant attention and devotion if we are to succeed in fulfilling our calling in this complex and ever-changing world. The Task Force will help us to self-identify and auto-correct key areas of competency and professional growth as we continue the journey in Christ. Rev. David Dodge and Rev. Terri Hill guided us through the Report of the Business of the Annual Conference. Questions 18, 21, 24, 25, 26, 28, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 36, 42, 46, 48, 50, 52, 53, 54, 73 and 76 were addressed. Each question was read and votes were taken as required by the Book of Discipline. Bishop Carter invited the members of the Conference Board of Ministry to stand and be recognized by their peers. Bishop Carter reflected on the complex and difficult nature of the work we have been called to pursue. He reminded the clergy members that none of us has yet arrived. Our journey is a life-long journey. Humility, accountability and a profound need for God’s grace will help us make it through. We must always be willing to model what it means to “become” a disciple of Christ in the ministry setting to which we have been assigned. We have been losing ground over the past few years. The day of the “professional pastor” is over. The era of the “missionary pastor” has arrived. We have a Gospel the world needs to hear. Welcome to the new mission field. When Annual Conference is over, walk out the doors into your mission field convinced by the grace of God and empowered by the Spirit of God to help the people in our communities to come to know the amazing love of grace of God in their lives. Rev. Ken Minton reminded the members to have their photo taken at the Lifetouch booth for the new Directory, provided instructions for those participating in the Ordination Service, and invited the Pastors who are moving this year to sit with their new Church representatives at 10:30 a.m. Saturday morning when the appointments are set. Bishop Carter adjourned the Clergy Session at 11:45 a.m.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON - JUNE 13

MUSIC: Rev. Robert McMichael, Worship Leader, and Jarvis Wilson, Accompanist, led the members in song. Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr. welcomed the members to the opening session of Annual Conference. Bishop Carter noted that before we were in the Church positions we hold today, we were disciples. We shared one experience in common – the experience of our baptism in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit. Through this act of grace we share a common identity – we are God’s beloved. Our lives as disciples began with the grace of God revealed through Christ. We are here because we have been baptized in His name and because we are His beloved sons and daughters. Our journey of faith begins with grace and the cleansing waters of baptism. There will be revival and renewal in the Church when we remember we are one – one faith, one Lord, united in one baptism. Rev. Juana Jordan read Romans 12:1-2. A video entitled “Becoming” was shown. Rev. Juana Jordan read Mark 1:9-11. Bishop Carter led the members in the liturgy for the Reaffirmation of the Baptismal Covenant. As an act of reaffirmation, members were invited to proceed to several stations throughout the Arena where they could touch the waters of grace and receive a stone symbolizing our collective journey as one people, one church, and one Conference in the work of becoming disciples of Jesus Christ. Rev. Juana Jordan led the members in the Prayer of Thanksgiving.

2013 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part II

OPENING OUR CONFERENCE: The Conference opened at 2:13 p.m. with the singing of the traditional hymn, “And Are We Yet Alive?” Rev. Joannes Martin offered a prayer.

TELLING OUR STORY: A video was shown featuring the testimony of Rev. Dan Casselberry, Pastor of Ortega United Methodist Church in Jacksonville.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Rev. Jim Harnish, Senior Pastor of Hyde Park United Methodist Church, Tampa, delivered the Keynote Address. His message was entitled “Becoming Disciples.” Rev. Harnish expressed his deep appreciation and excitement for Bishop Carter’s leadership and passion for the Church of Jesus Christ. His prayer was for each of us present to experience that renewed sense of fire and calling in the soul that will help us to be vital witnesses for Christ. Rev. Harnish invited us to consider the question - What does it look like to be a United Methodist today? Are we burning from within with a vibrant passion to accomplish our mission on earth? Or have we simply settled for the easy way of hiding within the cover of culture? Second Timothy 1:2-7 invites us to “rekindle the gift of God within you.” A dear friend of his interprets this verse as – “Wake up the fire-breathing beast within you.” Jim’s conviction is that we are not in decline because we don’t know what the mission is. We are in decline because we so easily and often lose our passion for it. We are so busy doing good things that we miss what Jesus has called us to do. We need to wake up the “fire-breathing beast” within us to remind us what it means to be a United Methodist today. Rev. John Wesley rightly predicted the great danger ahead for the new movement – that we only have a form of religion without the outward evidence of its power. We have been given a clear and compelling doctrine based on the love and grace of God. It is a reminder that God loves us enough not to leave us where we are. When we actively and deliberately proclaim, practice and publicly live out our doctrine, there are people who will respond – “Where have you been all my life? This is what I have been waiting for.” We have a deliberate discipline to guide our lives. Our discipline defines the way we do doctrine. Our discipline is the unique way Methodists’ live out our faith. What is the method that we are employing to enable people to take the next appropriate step in their faith journey? How deeply are we calling people into the deeper disciplines which will lead to radical transformation in life? It is the Holy Spirit that keeps the flame alive. As we experience the extravagant love of Jesus through the Spirit, we are consumed with the burning passion to share God’s love with everyone we meet. Do whatever it takes to share the love of Christ with a world that is so desperate to hear Good News. St. Paul said, “Re-ignite the inner flame.” God did not give us the spirit of cowardice - but of power, of love, and discipline. May we be re-ignited indeed. Rev. Harnish closed with a prayer from Charles Wesley.

TELLING OUR STORY: A video was shown sharing the testimony of Christina Ennist, Asbury United Methodist, New Port Richey, and the difference the Church has made in her life.

DISCIPLESHIP EXPERIENCE: Russ Graves, Conference Lay Leader, and Bishop Richard Wills provided instruction for this part of our Conference experience. A video entitled “Unspoken Plea” was shown. Members were led by Districts to various locations throughout the Arena to talk about the role and function of the church in our current social setting at 2:50 p.m.

ORGANIZATION OF THE CONFERENCE: Bishop Carter called the 171st session of the Florida Annual Conference to order at 3:55 p.m. Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, moved that the following persons be elected to serve as Administrative Assistants for this Annual Conference Session:

Journal Secretaries:	Rev. Elizabeth Gardner, Rev. Patricia Aupperlee, Rev. Carmen Arnett
Journal Committee:	Rev. Jeffrey Smith, Dora Burnside, Jim Luther
Head Usher:	Rev. Russell Belcher
Time Keeper:	Rev. Hung “Bo” Sim
Parliamentarian:	Robert Grizzard

Bishop Carter called for a vote on the motion, and they were elected. Rev. Minton moved that the entire arena be designated as the Bar of the Conference. Bishop Carter called for the vote, and it was approved. Rev. Minton reminded the members to register their attendance to receive their Conference materials and their name tag. He instructed the members on the process to be recognized by the Bishop to speak to the Conference. He informed members that the sessions were being translated into Spanish and Creole and gave instruction how to acquire a translation device. He reminded members that the sessions were being broadcast via the web and urged them to notify the members back home to join us on-line. He thanked the Cabinet, Conference and District Staff members, and the scores of volunteers who have worked so hard to plan and prepare for this year's Annual Conference.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION: Bishop Carter invited Mrs. Dorothy Henderson, widow of Bishop Cornelius Henderson, to bring greetings to the Annual Conference. She was warmly received. She thanked Bishop Carter for the invitation to come and thanked him for his kindness, gentleness and love. She affirmed that we are blessed to have him as our Episcopal leader. She has been serving on the Board of Bethune-Cookman University for the past eight years. She acknowledged her co-laborers on the Board. She is glad to be in Florida.

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Nelida Morales, member of Iglesia Cristiana Juan Wesley United Methodist Church, Miami, to share her faith journey in Christ.

BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY REPORT: Rev. Terri Hill, Chair, presented the Report of the Board. She thanked those who serve as clergy and lay members of the Board. She offered a special word of affirmation to Rev. Emily Oliver and Rev. David Dodge for their wisdom, guidance and service to the members of the Board. The Book of Discipline requires that the question be asked – “Are the clergy members of the Conference blameless?” She noted that all were blameless save for one who was recently placed on Involuntary Leave of Absence. She presented the names of persons nominated to serve on the Committee on Investigation. Bishop Carter called for a vote and they were elected. She introduced those who have recently completed the Course of Study and the Advanced Course of Study classes. She introduced and invited those to be ordained into Full Connection to come to the platform. Bishop Carter asked them to respond to the Historic Questions of Examination prior to ordination. Bishop Carter thanked them for their willingness to pursue their call into leadership and expressed his eagerness to celebrate their service of ordination. (See Reports)

EQUITABLE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REPORT: Rev. Brian Carr, Chair, presented the Report of the Committee. He acknowledged the challenges facing those engaged in ministry today. The Committee works to ensure that those serving Christ and the Church have the basic necessities for the journey. He presented the Committee's recommendation for minimum salaries for the coming Conference year. Bishop Carter called for a vote on the recommendation of the Committee, and they were approved. (See Reports)

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Evelyn McCrae, member of First United Methodist Church, Ocala, to share her faith journey in Christ.

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Carolyn Dilks, member of First United Methodist Church, Zephyrhills, to share her faith journey in Christ.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Bishop Carter expressed his deep appreciation for those who have shared their faith journey so far. He acknowledged that it may feel strange to be listening to testimonies during the business portion of our Conference. The rational is that we, as a Christian movement, now find ourselves at a point in history where we are rediscovering the core calling to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. In the coming years, if we can't find ways to make new disciples of all ages and diversities – if we don't have the will – we will not have the capacity to continue to do the many good things we are doing in the world. Our perspectives of the issues we care about will become increasingly irrelevant. We need to be reminded of how God is working in the lives of individuals. We are learning how to encourage each other and build on all the good that has been done in the past. Bishop Carter's prayer for the Annual Conference is that God will continue to use us all to make disciples for the transformation of the world.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS: Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, provided instructions for the ballot to be taken regarding the proposed Constitutional Amendments made at the 2012 session of the General Conference of The United Methodist Church. He reminded the members of those eligible to vote on the proposed Constitutional Amendments according to the Book of Discipline. He reminded the members that the amendments are not open to revision or alteration. He reminded the members that it was not the cumulative vote of the Annual Conference that was reported and counted, but the sum total of the votes cast by each member of every annual conference that would determine the outcome of the each amendment. The ballots were distributed. Bishop Carter invited the members to begin voting on the amendments. The ballots were collected and secured for counting.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS: Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, made several organizational announcements. Bishop Carter offered a closing prayer. Bishop Carter adjourned the Conference at 5:10 p.m.

THURSDAY EVENING - JUNE 13

PRE-SERVICE MUSIC: Rev. Robert McMichael, Worship Leader, and Jarvis Wilson, Accompanist, led the members in song.

SERVICE OF WORD AND TABLE: Rev. Sharon Austin led the members in the opening Call to Worship. The hymn, “Come, Sinner, to the Gospel Feast,” was sung. Rev. Eliantus Valmyr read John 6:1-15 in Haitian Creole. Rev. Austin led the opening prayer. A monologue reading was presented by Isaiah Cruz. Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr. offered the message. He began with a collection of scripture readings emphasizing the importance of a common meal among the followers of God. At the heart of scripture is a meal. That’s why the Lord’s Supper is so important in the life of the Church. It is a time for the disciples of Jesus to remember the goodness, generosity and grace of God. Grace is a gift we did not earn, did not deserve and can never repay. The Lord’s Supper is always spiritual and social, vertical and horizontal. As we draw close to God, we are drawn closer to each other. But this meal is not just for us. It is prepared and offered to all. It is a reminder that there are still a lot of hungry people in the world. Yet we have not maintained the centrality of the Lord’s Table as the source of the life giving food for our souls. People are hungry and thirsty for something, but they do not always find in it our Churches. Jesus invites us to bring all that we have to him that he might bless it and make it available to all. God’s grace is for all. The Lord’s Supper reminds us that our deepest need in life is Jesus Christ. Bishop Carter offered the Invitation to the Lord’s Table. The evening offering was collected. One third of the offering will go to help improve the Florida State University Wesley Center, one third will go to “Stop Hunger Now,” and one third will go to Leader Development for persons of color. The Florida United Methodist Foundation is offering a matching gift to promote Leader Development. Bishop Carter, assisted by Rev. Katie Pestel, led the Great Thanksgiving. Holy Communion was served. Rev. Valmyr offered the closing prayer in Haitian Creole. The closing hymn was “I Know It Was the Blood.” Bishop Carter offered the Benediction. The service ended at 8:25 p.m.

FRIDAY MORNING - JUNE 14

PRE-CONFERENCE MUSIC: Rev. Robert McMichael, Worship Leader, and Jarvis Wilson, Accompanist, provided music as the members arrived.

MORNING WORSHIP: Antony Larry led the members in the Call to Prayer and Praise. The opening hymn was “Open the Eyes of My Heart.” Antony Larry led the Invocation. Rev. Sol Madlambayan read an adaptation of Psalm 16 entitled “We Will Not Keep Silent.” A video entitled “Change the World” was shown. Dawn Fleming led the Litany of Our Covenant to a New Vision. The closing hymn was “Be Thou My Vision.”

CONFERENCE CONVENES: Bishop Carter called the Conference to order at 8:45 a.m. Bishop Carter noted that our purpose today is to decide how we align our resources (staff, people, finance and structures) with our primary purpose of making disciples of Jesus Christ. Bishop Carter expressed his gratitude to Bishop Timothy Whitaker for his prior leadership within this Conference and for his innovative ideas and ways of leading us to this day. Bishop Carter expressed his appreciation to Rev. Ken Minton and the entire Administrative Team on platform for their service, and to Rev. Jennifer Stiles-Williams for her work as the Worship Coordinator. Bishop Carter invited the Cabinet to the platform and thanked them for their leadership throughout the Annual Conference.

TELLING OUR STORY: A video featuring the testimony of Dan Christopherson, a member of Englewood United Methodist Church, was shown.

2013 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part II

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Jenson Bennett, a member of Wesley Memorial United Methodist Church, Tampa, to share her faith journey with Christ.

CHURCH DISCONTINUATIONS AND CHARTERING: Rev. Sharon Austin, Dean of the Cabinet, presented the motions of discontinuation for three Churches. Each of these motions is a Voluntary Discontinuation. The Churches to be discontinued are: Oak Crest United Methodist Church, Jacksonville, FL (NE District) effective Sept. 30, 2102; Mt. Sinai United Methodist Church, Dania Beach, FL (SE District) effective June 14, 2013; and Nocatee United Methodist Church, Nocatee, FL (SW District) effective June 30, 2013. Bishop Carter called for the vote to approve discontinuation for each of these Churches as they were presented. All three motions were approved. Rev. Austin offered a prayer for the people and communities who have been touched through the ministry and witness of these three Churches. Rev. Austin passionately reminded us that we will continue closing Churches within the bounds of the Annual Conference unless we change our way of “doing and being the Church.” Rev. Mont Duncan, Executive Director of New Church Development, presented a new Charter to LifeSong United Methodist Church in Orlando. He noted that two more Churches are close to being chartered next year. Rev. Austin noted that there are several responses the Cabinet can take in consideration of Churches facing the strains and struggles of decline. These options include: the merger of two or more Churches into one; the formation of a second campus to extend the influence of a Church into a different part of the community; the development of a cooperative ministry among several Churches; or the creation of something altogether new out of the death of a local Church. A recent example of this last approach can be seen in the creation of the Downtown Tampa Initiative – a ministry of Hyde Park United Methodist Church. She invited John Matthew, Lay Member, and Rev. Justin LaRosa, Pastor, to speak about their hopes and dreams for this new outreach ministry into Downtown Tampa. Rev. Austin closed by speaking about the connection between healthy Churches and healthy clergy leaders. The Cabinet will be exploring the issues of clergy expectations, mutual accountability between laity and clergy regarding the effectiveness of a local congregation, and means and methods to develop and maintain strong and healthy relationships between clergy and lay leadership based on mutual trust and a shared vision for the congregation. If our Churches are going to grow, we must be willing to explore changes in these critical areas of our communal life. (See Reports)

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Rev. Kandace Brooks, Pastor of Tomoka United Methodist Church, Ormond Beach, to share her faith journey with Christ

STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP TEAM REPORT: Charles Mallue and Rev. Alex Shanks gave the Report of the Strategic Leadership Team. They began with a brief overview of the function and make-up of the Team. The purpose of the Strategic Leadership Team states: “Together, we are disciples of Jesus Christ in the Wesleyan tradition called to participate in God’s saving work in the world.” Our purpose calls us to fulfill our mission: “The mission of the Florida Conference is to connect and equip congregations in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. Therefore, we: start and nurture missional communities of faith; develop effective servant leaders for the Church and the world; provide services that support congregations and extension ministries; and connect congregations and resources for ministries that we do better together.” The Strategic Leadership Team is offering a number of proposals to help us to fulfill our mandate to lead others into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ. We understand that the Conference exists to set standards, systematize, strategize and serve as a resource for the districts and local churches. Districts should be about the business of creating a strategy for growing every Church within the district and should be the primary place of support and accountability for each congregation. The local Church is the primary place where disciples for Christ are made and where vital ministry and mission happen within a given community. To accomplish our mission, several changes to the Standing Rules need to be made. Rev. Shanks provided an overview of the recommended changes being proposed at this time. He began by highlighting the new role of the District Superintendent as the “chief missional strategist” for their district. He spoke of the new role and objectives of the Annual Conference in helping the districts to fulfill their particular God-given mission. He then listed many of the ways that the Conference has acted in order to free up resources for the districts to help them meet their missional objectives. All of these changes are based on the rationale that local Churches are the primary place where disciples are made and where ministry and mission happen. Bishop Carter asked for questions to the Report. There were none. Bishop Carter called for a vote on the entire Report. It was approved. Bishop Carter expressed his gratitude to Bishop Whitaker for establishing the Strategic Leadership Team and their task of making resources available that we might make disciples for Jesus Christ. (See Reports)

2013 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part II

COMMITTEE ON STANDING RULES: Rev. Clarke Campbell-Evans, Chair, gave the Report of the Committee. An addendum containing several changes made to the Report after the printing of the Workbook was distributed. A motion to Suspend the Rules to receive the addendum was made and approved. Rev. Campbell-Evans noted that the majority of the proposed changes to the Standing Rules were due to the proposed change to the Conference structure, the aligning of Conference resources, compliance with the new language of the 2012 Book of Discipline, and some minor changes to antiquated language carried through the years. There were some significant changes being proposed to the items beginning in Paragraph 400. Since he was moving into a new position that would be affected by the changes, he recused himself from the discussion and turned this portion of the Report over to Rev. Clare Chance, Vice Chair. She noted that the proposed language will give form to the functional changes that were just presented and adopted. She highlighted in particular several important organizational changes, as well as the new process for electing lay leadership at the Conference level. With no questions or comments received, she returned the podium to Rev. Campbell-Evans. He gave a closing statement and presented the full Report for adoption. Bishop Carter called for a vote and the Report was approved. (See Reports)

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Bishop Carter invited Rev. Chuck Weaver, Rev. Mont Duncan, Rev. Beth Fogle-Miller, and Rev. Jeff Stiggins to the stage for special recognition. Together they represent over 50 years of service to the Cabinet alone. The members expressed thanks for their service to the Annual Conference.

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Amy Buggle, a member of Crossroad United Methodist Church, Jacksonville, to share her faith journey with Jesus.

COMMITTEE ON LEADERSHIP: Rev. Beth Fogle-Miller, Director of Connectional Ministries, presented the Report of the Committee. In addition to the information found in the Workbook, a handout was provided with additions and corrections to the Report. A few corrections were made on the floor. Rev. Fogle-Miller invited members to send any additional changes regarding spelling or Conference relationship to Sherry Lingle in the Conference Office. Bishop Carter opened the floor for nominations to the various positions. There were none. Bishop Carter called for a vote on the Report and it was approved. (See Reports)

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, shared several administrative announcements. He reported that as of this morning, 871 lay members and 788 clergy members had registered for the Conference. He reported that there have already been over 1,600 people log in to watch the Conference proceedings on the web. Bishop Carter announced that last night's offering was $75,000. With the matching gift from the United Methodist Foundation, the total so far is approximately $100,000. He thanked each person and local Church for their generous response. Bishop Carter announced that the Conference will be re-inaugurating the Clergy School of Ministry to be held November 19-20 at the Life Enrichment Center. The focus will be on telling our stories of our faith journey with Jesus. Bishop Carter announced that our 2014 Annual Conference will be held on June 11-14. We will be starting on Wednesday afternoon that we might have more time to celebrate ministries within the Conference that are making an impact in people's lives for Christ. He shared the names of those who have already accepted the invitation to be with us next year.

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Rev. David Broadbent, Pastor of Canal Point United Methodist Church, to share his faith journey with Jesus.

CONFERENCE IN RECESS: Bishop Carter placed the Conference in recess at 10:30 a.m.

A SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE: Rev. George A. Buie, Memorial Committee, led the members in the "Call to Remember." The opening hymn was "For All the Saints." Rev. June Edwards read Matthew 11:25-30. Bishop Carter led the "Call to Grieve." Rev. Robert McMichael, accompanied by Jarvis Wilson, sang "Bowed on my Knees and Cried Holy." Rev. Phil Roughton read Mark 9:33-37. His message was entitled "Descending to Greatness." Rev. Roughton's message focused on a life and ministry dedicated to servanthood. He noted that when you ask children and teens - "What do you want to be when you grow up?" - you never hear anyone say "I want to grow up to be a servant." That's just not what we do in our culture. We want to hire servants, not become one. Yet if we follow Jesus, we are called to serve him by loving and serving others. He reminded the members of the admonition in Philippians 2 to have the “mind of Christ” which calls us to humble ourselves and serve. This notion goes against everything we know. In the Scripture, the disciples were “called out” by Jesus for arguing about who was the greatest. They were not asking who was the lowest or who the humblest servant was. No, they were having an argument over who was the best. They had no clue what Jesus was calling them to do and be in life. They did not understand the kind of life that Jesus was calling them to live. We all get trapped in the same maneuvering and posturing the disciples were doing. It’s our default to wonder and worry about our value and significance in this world and the people around us. Jesus cuts through all of that. He says I have something so much better in mind for you. Trust me. Humble yourself. Make yourself a servant of all. We are invited to adopt the worldview of Jesus by loving others more than you love yourself. We are remembering people today who heard the call of Jesus to serve and said “Yes.” Rev. Roughton closed his message by sharing a video produced for his father’s funeral, Rev. William Roughton. He asked that this video serve as an “icon” of a life and ministry of servanthood for us all. The members joined in the singing of the hymn, “Come, Let Us Join Our Friends Above.” Rev. George A. Buie, Committee on Memoirs, and Nell Thrift, Conference Archivist, read the names of those being remembered today. Rev. Terry and Rosalie Markins lit a candle on the altar as the names were read. Rev. June Edwards led the Prayer of Thanksgiving and read Revelation 21:2-7. The closing hymn was “Great Is Thy Faithfulness.” Bishop Carter offered the Benediction. The service ended at 11:55 a.m.

Bishop Carter offer “The Charge” to the new retirees. The members joined in the singing of the hymn, “We’re Marching to Zion.”

DISCIPLESHIP EXPERIENCE: Russ Graves, Conference Lay Leader, presented an overview of the results of yesterday’s small group experience. He thanked everyone for their participation and thoughtfulness during yesterday’s experience. He highlighted a few of the key comments recorded from the various groups:

- Connecting to people is vitally important.
- We know how to witness but we have become far too distracted to do it.
- Do we love our traditions more than we love our children?
- Always cover your pastor’s back.
- We each have a calling.
- Not making disciples breaks God’s heart.
- Discipleship is a two way street.
- We must grow with Jesus and not just be with Jesus.
- It’s all about people.
- We are a part of God’s vine.
- We are called to produce fruit.

Bishop Richard Wills spoke about the importance of forming Wesley Small Groups in a local Church. A small group lets us know people intimately. Pray hard about starting groups in your Church. They are the key to Church vitality. Bishop Carter spoke about the impact that a visit to Bishop Wills’ Church many years ago made in his ministry. Bishop Carter invited the members to return to the same small group that they attended yesterday.

CONFERENCE IN RECESS: Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, made a number of announcements regarding this evening’s events and gatherings. Bishop Carter placed the Conference in recess at 2:43 p.m.

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Rev. Juana Jordon, Pastor of Harris Chapel United Methodist Church in Ft. Lauderdale, to share her faith journey with Jesus.

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Rachel Sumner, Associate Conference Lay Leader, to share her faith journey with Jesus.

SPECIAL RECOGNITION: Rev. Bob Bushong, Chair, Committee on Episcopacy, introduced Pam Carter. She was greeted enthusiastically by the members. He commented on her deep devotion to her husband, their commitment to each other, and to the Church of Jesus Christ. Mrs. Carter shared how blessed she and Ken feel at having been assigned to the Florida Conference. They are grateful for their lovely home. Eileen Wills and Faye Fannin have been very helpful in teaching her to understand her new role as a Bishop’s wife. It is all about what a person brings to the role and how God interacts with what you provide that allows the amazing things God has in mind to prosper. She has offered her life and ministry to God – in whatever ways God will use her. She reported the number of meals packed by members of the Conference so far is 101,306. She was so appreciative of everyone’s involvement in this worthy project.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION REPORT: Mickey Wilson, Conference Treasurer, gave the Report of the Committee. He noted a number of changes that have recently been made in the Conference staff, structure and budget to better align resources towards our stated mission. As a result of these actions, the Conference spent $233,000 less than it received last year. The Pension and Health Benefit fund received almost $3,000,000 in investment income. The MPP/CRSP accounts are funded in excess of 100%. The completed results of the Annual Conference audit are available for review. Mickey noted that the General Church has been conducting audits on the long-term viability of each Annual Conference to meet its obligations. It became clear that the CRSP (pension) program was unsustainable. Changes to this plan were made at the 2012 General Conference. The Florida Conference conducted its own review of its future needs. The review noted that the current health plan would not be able to meet projected needs. An alternative plan was proposed to help meet the shortfall. That plan would reduce liability by over $19,000,000. Persons were asked for feedback on the proposal. Hearing concerns, the proposed plan was adjusted to address these issues. The plan we are considering today is found on the addendum sheet distributed earlier. Mickey thanked Craig Smelser, Wayne Dziedzic and their respective staffs for their hard work on behalf of the people of the Florida Annual Conference. Mickey noted that the decision to discontinue health insurance coverage for laity in the local church was made in large response to the new Affordable Care Act taking effect in January. Several questions were raised by the members regarding years of service in other Annual Conferences, the formula to be used for clergy couples, the length of time required for full vestment in the plan, and adjustments made for clergy who just fall short of making the arbitrary cutoffs found in the Report. Mickey Wilson and Rev. David Dodge answered these questions and concerns. Rev. Mike Loomis offered an amendment to the proposal. He moved to “strike the number (age) 60 and to replace it with the number (age) 55.” The motion was seconded by Rev. Anne Godbold. Debate/discussion on the amendment followed in accordance with the Standing Rules. Following the debate, Bishop Carter called for a vote on the motion. After two attempts to verify the vote by a show of hands, Bishop Carter called for a recorded vote. Rev. Ken Minton positioned the Ushers/Tellers and provided instruction for the vote. He led the members through the voting process. The Ushers/Tellers began to tabulate and verify the count.

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter invited Lauren Weaver, a member of First United Methodist Church, Vero Beach, to share her faith journey with Jesus.

FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION REPORT (CONTINUED): The results of the previous amendment to the Report were announced by Bishop Carter. There were 417 votes in favor of the amendment and 286 votes in opposition to the amendment. The motion was approved. The amendment is now a part of the Report. A number of questions and clarifications were raised by various members. Rev. Warren Langer asked about the rationale for New Church Start funding being zeroed out. He offered an amendment to “restore New Church Start funding to 2013 levels.” After clarification was provided regarding the funding concern, Rev. Langer withdrew his amendment. Rev. Mont Duncan, Executive Director of New Church Development, asked about projected funding sources for new church starts. Mickey Wilson explained how current funds are being sourced and managed. A question was raised regarding the change of language from “Hispanic” to “Multi-Cultural” in the budget. After discussion, Bishop Carter proposed that we retain the previous designator of “Hispanic” for next year’s budget. This will give us the time we need to have discussion and dialogue regarding the change of language. By a show of hands, the members overwhelmingly approved the Bishop’s proposal. Bishop Carter called for a vote on the entire Report. It was approved. (See Reports)

SPECIAL RECOGNITION: Matt Wiatt and Andy McEntire talked about the impact that social media outlets have been playing during the Conference. Over 375,000 people have accessed the timeline postings. A contest has been under way to see who could get the most hits. The winner was Rev. Michael Pestel. He received an iPad Mini as his gift.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS: Bishop Carter invited Rev. Joseph Kim to offer a prayer. The Bishop adjourned the Conference at 5:41 p.m.

entitled, “What Would Wesley Do?” Dr. Cape reminded those to be licensed, commissioned or ordained of the importance of this night in their lives. You are following in the footsteps of giants. You are standing shoulder to shoulder with those who have knelt where you will kneel and who have made the vows that you will soon make. As you have been equipped and built up by those who have gone before you, so it is now your time to equip and build up those who will benefit from your ministry in the years to come. This is a very special moment indeed. So what would Mr. Wesley say to you tonight? He would urge you to: pray constantly; to study God’s Word daily; to become the best preacher you can become; to remain connected to your peers; and to grow each day in the wisdom and knowledge of the Lord. Rev. Terri Hill led the Affirmation of Faith. The Offering was received. Funds received will support the Ministerial Education Endowment. Music during the offering was entitled “Total Praise.” Bishop Carter presided over the Licensing, Commissioning and Ordination of those called and prepared for this work. Bishop Carter invited anyone who might be sensing God’s call in their life to come to the platform for a time of prayer. A number of persons responded to the invitation. Bishop Carter, assisted by Rev. Kathy Nelasko and Rev. Audrey Warren, offered the Benediction. The Recessional Hymn was “Go, Make of All Disciples.” The service ended at 8:45 p.m.

TELLING OUR STORY: A video was shown featuring the testimony of Becky Jordan, First United Methodist Church, Brandon, and the difference the Church has made in her life.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS: Rev. Cynthia Weems, Chair, presented two Resolutions for consideration. The first is entitled “Resolution Regarding Deacon and the Sacraments.” Rev. Matt Horan, author of the Resolution, presented the rationale for the Resolution. Bishop Carter opened the floor for discussion and debate. There were no questions or comments. Bishop Carter called for a vote, and the Resolution was approved. The second is entitled “Resolution to Encourage Ultrasound by Pregnant Women Considering Abortion.” Rev. Dusty Bailey, author of the Resolution, provided the background and the rationale for the Resolution. Rev. John Powers moved that we postpone the Resolution indefinitely. The motion failed. Bishop Carter invited discussion and debate on the Resolution according to the provisions of the Standing Rules. Bishop Carter called for a vote, and the Resolution did not prevail. Bishop Carter thanked Rev. Weems and the Committee for their work. He also noted that he will provide a response to the concerns raised in the first Resolution in the coming weeks. He thanked the members for the manner and the spirit in which they moved through this portion of our work.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Bishop Carter recognized Rev. John Powers. Rev. Powers noted that the Tennessee Annual Conference, in formal business session, adopted a Resolution urging Publix to commit to the Fair Food Program with the Coalition of Immokalee Workers. This Resolution has been submitted to the Committee on Global Mission and Justice for review.

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY: Bishop Carter introduced Dr. Rex Matthews and Dean Anne Burkholder, Candler School of Theology. Rev. Burkholder spoke about the many new and exciting things happening at the Candler School of Theology. They invited members to go to Candler’s website to see how God is at work in their midst.

FLORIDA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION REPORT: Rev. Mark Becker, Chair, gave the Report of the Foundation. Rev. Becker suspended the meeting of the Florida Annual Conference session and called the annual meeting of the Florida United Methodist Foundation to order at 9:11 a.m. Rev. Becker reminded the Conference that all lay and clergy members are voting members of the Foundation. Rev. Becker placed the Resolution found in the Foundation Report and in the Registration Packet on the floor for consideration. The Resolution seeks to change the size of the Foundation's Board in order to allow for more demographic and geographic diversity, as well as heightened experience in dealing with the challenges and complexities of our economic conditions. Other significant aspects of the Resolution affect conference staffing and length of time of service on the Board. He asked if there were any questions. Seeing none, he asked for a vote on the Resolution, and it was passed. Rev. Becker presented the slate of nominees to be elected this year to the Board. They were elected. Rev. Becker noted that despite a very slow economic recovery, the Foundation closed its books with one quarter of a billion dollars under management. That is an increase over the previous year. Currently, 68% of our churches are in some form of a relationship with the Foundation. In closing, Rev. Becker highlighted four strategic themes of the Foundation during the coming year: Communications; Innovative Products and Services; Collaborative Partnerships; and Comprehensive Christian Stewardship. He said you don't have to be wealthy to make a profound difference in your Church or in the world. You only need to be willing to practice extravagant generosity. The annual meeting of the Florida United Methodist Foundation was adjourned at 9:27 a.m. (See Reports)

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION: Mickey Wilson, Conference Treasurer, provided the Report of the committee. Mickey began by noting that the number of Churches paying 100% of their apportionments, the total amount of revenue received, and the percentage of Churches paying 100% of their apportionments have all increased over last year. District totals range from 71% to 93% paid. Smaller Churches make up the majority of our 100% Churches. Almost 70% of all 100% Churches have an average weekly worship attendance of less than 200 people. Over the past four years, there has been no increase in insurance premiums to local churches. Due to a decrease in windstorm related losses and investments in a variety of markets, the stabilization of premium has provided a sizeable cost reduction to each local Church. Reserves have made it possible to offset another expense of the local Church – the cost of deductibles for insurance claims. Mickey noted that all deductibles were able to be funded through the program. Mickey thanked Mark Thomas, Director of Ministry Protection, and his team for their tireless work to the Annual Conference. Mickey thanked the members of the Board of Trustees for their hard work. Each member of the Board takes their responsibility seriously. Mickey thanked Jim Manuel, President, for his leadership over the past year. Mickey expressed his gratitude to the various persons, groups and agencies who supply advice and guidance to the Conference, often without cost. He thanked Rev. Paul Butler for his expertise as our Conference Chancellor. Mickey informed the members that there is a house that sits adjacent to the Conference Center. Mickey moved to purchase the house located at 527 Peachtree Street in Lakeland, FL for an amount not to exceed $30,000. Bishop Carter called for a vote on the motion, and it was approved. Rev. Gary Spencer asked about the planned usage of the property once purchased. Mickey shared his hope to eventually turn it into a ministry setting in the neighborhood. Bishop Carter thanked Mickey for his leadership. (See Reports)

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Bishop Carter lifted up a couple of items. He was asked where the youth are this year. He noted that several hundred are at Camp as we meet. He noted that it was his desire to develop some type of simultaneous communication between the camps and Conference to help interested young people stay connected to the decisions and discussions of the Annual Conference. Bishop Carter noted how many have been touched by the power and passion of those sharing their faith stories. He acknowledged the leadership of Gretchen Hastings and the communication staff for making all of that possible. Bishop Carter also expressed his appreciation to Rev. Paul Butler, Conference Chancellor, who provides his experience and expertise as a gift to the Annual Conference.

FLORIDA UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME: Rev. Charles Lever introduced the new President of the Children's Home, Mrs. Becky Dotson. She comes to us from the Mississippi United Methodist Children's Home. She expressed her appreciation for the support of the Conference towards the work of the Children's Home. She is looking forward to working with the staff and the children. Bishop Carter presented a Statement of Relationship between the Children's Home and the Annual Conference for adoption. This statement formalizing our mutual relationship is renewed every four years as a part of the Certification process for the Children's Home. Bishop Carter read the mission and vision statements of the Children's Home. He asked the members to approve the Statement of Relationship with an enthusiastic "YES." The Statement of Relationship was approved. (See Reports)

2013 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part II

BETHUNE-COOKMAN UNIVERSITY: Rev. John Harrington, Chair of the Board of Bethune-Cookman University, introduced the new President, Rev. Dr. Edison Jackson. He becomes the sixth President of the University that is dedicated to helping students to be life-long learners and servants. He thanked the Annual Conference for its continued support.

SITE OF 2015 ANNUAL CONFERENCE: Rev. Charles Weaver, Assistant to the Bishop, moved that the 2015 Annual Conference Session be held in Daytona Beach on the campus of Bethune-Cookman University. The projected dates would be June 10-13, 2015. There were a few questions from the floor regarding handicapped accessibility on the campus. Bishop Carter called for a vote on the motion, and it was approved.

COMMITTEE ON JOURNAL: Rev. Jeff Smith reported that the minutes of the previous sessions have been reviewed and are found to be in order. He moved that the minutes be adopted. The motion was approved. Rev. Smith also moved that the Conference Secretary be permitted to approve and edit the proceedings of today's business session after the adjournment of the Annual Conference session. The motion was approved.

TELLING OUR STORY: A video was shown featuring the testimony of Sue Holbrook, First United Methodist Church, Vero Beach, and the difference the Church has made in her life

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE: Bishop Carter invited musicians Rev. Robert McMichael and Jarvis Wilson to the stage. Bishop Carter noted how he, and so many others, have been touched and inspired by their music. Rev. McMichael told the members how much they have felt welcomed and loved by the entire Conference. We are a beautiful array of God's tapestry of diversity. He will go back to the North Georgia Conference and rave about the Florida Annual Conference. Bishop Carter extended an invitation for them to serve at the 2015 Annual Conference.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, made several announcements. He urged each member to complete the on-line evaluation form. The on-line link was put on the screen. He assured the members that every comment is read and considered. Bishop Carter expressed his thanks to Rev. Minton and the entire administrative staff on platform for their work throughout the Conference. Bishop Carter announced that he will be teaching and preaching at Soul Feast in Lake Junaluska from July 15-19. He reminded the members of the upcoming Spiritual Pilgrimage to Israel that he will be leading with Dr. Tuttle. CLOSING SERVICE FOR THE MAKING AND FIXING OF APPOINTMENTS: Rev. Chuck Weaver led the Call to Worship. Rev. Robert McMichael, Worship Leader, and Jarvis Wilson, Accompanist, led the singing of the hymn "Blessed Assurance." Jarvis Wilson offered a musical medley on the piano. Rev. Jennifer Stiles-Williams read John 21:4-19. A video entitled "It's Our Time" was shown. Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr. provided the message. He notes that the 21st chapter of John is crucial to the Easter faith. Without this passage, Easter is incomplete. Peter was giving up. He was going back to what he had been doing before Jesus came into his life. Jesus asked him – "You don't have any fish, do you?" "No," Peter responded. Jesus replied, "Then throw your net on the other side of the boat." Peter's eyes were opened. He was changed from that moment on. The definition of insanity is to keep doing what we've always done and expecting a different result. Jesus tells the disciples to do something different – "Cast your net on other side of boat." They received a miraculous catch of fish. Sometimes the Church tries something different. It's called – change. Change is not easy. But change must come if we are going to receive the fullness of blessing God has for us. The Wesleys were innovative. They did things no one had ever thought of. They formed class meetings and societies and small groups. They wrote new hymns. They got out of their Chapels, and they went into the fields preaching to all who would hear. They started medical clinics for the poor. They started banks and schools for coal miners. They did whatever it took to transform the most broken people to be the most productive disciples. Such was the power of God at work as a result of how the Methodists lived and worked. The Wesleys remembered the story – If you haven't caught anything over here, cast your net on the other side of the boat and witness the miracle that Jesus is able to perform. Real change begins with our encounter with the risen Lord. It is in coming to Jesus that we realize that this is also a story about our resurrection. It's the realization that in Christ - there's more in store for each of us. There is a new commission – a new life mission – in store for each of us. Jesus says, "Feed my sheep. Tend to the needs of my lambs." Resurrection transitions us to the mission of Jesus. He told the story of a friend who was looking at an image of Christ knocking on a closed door. Beneath the picture were the words, "Behold I stand at the door and knock." The more common interpretation of the image conveys Jesus patiently knocking and waiting for someone to open the door and invite Him in. The friend provided an alternative interpretation of the picture. He asks, "What if Jesus is standing at the door, knocking persistently while saying to those on the inside – "Come out! Come out! I'm out here. Follow me. Be my witnesses. Feed my sheep. Come out! Please, come out!" Perhaps we aren't catching any fish at the moment. Maybe the future isn't shaping up to be what we thought it might be. Yet we read this Scripture and see that there is more. What must we do? First, we need to fall in love with Jesus again. Second, we must be willing to feed his sheep – all of them. Third, we must be willing to obediently cast our nets on the other side – to change - to begin to fish in waters that haven't yet been fished in. We have been washed in the waters of baptism. We have been sustained at the Table of the Lord. We have been gathered to this Annual Conference. We have been set apart to do something holy. We are called to go out into the world with the words of promise and grace. Jesus says to us – "Feed my sheep. Follow me." Today's offering goes to leadership development of clergy of color, for the hungry, and for the work of the campus ministry at Florida State University. Bishop Carter introduced the new Cabinet members. Bishop Carter offered a prayer for the nine Districts and their respective Superintendents. Bishop Carter gave the Charge to licensed, commissioned, consecrated and ordained clergy. Bishop Carter issued the Charge to the laity. The closing hymn was, "Lord, You have Come to the Lakeshore." Bishop Carter offered the Benediction.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS SINE DIE: Bishop Carter adjourned the 171st Session of the Florida Annual Conference at 11:30 a.m.

Sacramental Authority of the Deacon in the Absence of an Elder

Episcopal response to the Resolution approved at the Florida Annual Conference on June 15, 2003.

The Florida Conference approved a resolution that asked me, as resident bishop, to "issue a statement that would more clearly explain the circumstances under which [I] would be led to grant authority to deacons to administer the sacraments in the absence of an elder, so that our pastors-in-charge and district superintendents might be able to more effectively identify the opportunities that are afforded by paragraph 328 (Book of Discipline) to extend the mission and ministry of the church."

Background

At present, deacons in The United Methodist Church are not ordained to the sacraments. The resolution approved at the Florida Annual Conference on June 15, 2013 expresses hope for the revision of this practice at a future General Conference. The 2012 Book of Discipline does make allowance for the bishop to grant that a deacon may administer the sacraments in extraordinary circumstances---namely, "in the absence of an elder, [and] within a deacon's primary appointment" (BOD, 328). The resolution asks for clarification about "circumstances" in which the resident bishop would grant sacramental authority.

I could imagine granting this permission, in my service as a bishop, for the purpose of extending the mission and ministry of the church. In the Wesleyan tradition, order always lives in tension with mission. I am not closed, intellectually, theologically or spiritually, to this possibility, and expect to grant this extraordinary authority to a deacon in the near future. At the same time, deacon and elder are distinctive orders and this differentiation blesses the church and its mission.

The primary symbol for the deacon is the towel and basin, an outward and visible sign of servant leadership. The primary symbol for the elder is the bread and the cup, an outward and visible sign of the sustaining and real presence of Christ. The presence and differentiation of these symbols are clear and unmistakable in both the ordination questions, in the Service of Ordination and the Book of Discipline.

The powerful sign of service or diakonia---towel and basin---is so radical, so Christological, so essential, and so missional that it merits defining the work of a deacon. The added language of the calling of the deacon to "ministries of compassion and justice" in the 2012 Book of Discipline and in the Ordinal, to which I served as a consultant, gives further definition to this servant leadership. In both the Service of Ordination and the Book of Discipline the order is clearly defined, and this is a gift to us.

I am drawn to the language of the Great Thanksgiving, and sense that these words capture the distinctiveness of the orders. The presiding minister asks God, in the epiclesis, to pour out the Holy Spirit, and then prays:

Make them [these elements] be for us the body and blood of Christ, that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood.

This first petition--make [these elements] be for us the body and blood of Christ--describes the work of an elder. The second phrase--that we may be for the world the body of Christ, redeemed by his blood--is the calling of the deacon.

It is noteworthy that the phrase "in the world" occurs five times in the first three sentences of paragraph 328 (The Ministry of a Deacon). The primary context for the ministry of a deacon, according to the Book of Discipline, is thus "in the world." As a relatively recent permanent order in the church (1996), my hope is that the diaconate now understood will not gain its identity, which is relatively new in the life of the church, by becoming fused to the functioning of the elder. The resolution assumes such a blurring of functions.

Interpretation

Before reflecting on the extraordinary circumstances in which a deacon could be granted sacramental authority, it is appropriate to clarify the importance of sacramental ministry (means of grace) in our ordinary experience. In his sermon on the "Causes of the Inefficacy of Christianity," John Wesley identified three obstacles that prevented men and women from becoming more deeply committed disciples of Jesus Christ in the early Methodist movement: an inadequate understanding of doctrine, defined as the core convictions of the faith; a lack of discipline, which included participation in the means of grace; and an unwillingness to practice self-denial. I note this simply because the primary way a deacon participates in sacramental provision, and it is important, is by "assisting the elder" in making God's grace available to those who are within the worshipping community, as an essential mark of "forming and nurturing disciples" (BOD, 328).

The strength of the resolution lies in the connection between sacramental ministry and God's mission in the world, and this is my interpretation of the relevant sentence in paragraph 328 regarding extraordinary sacramental authority. A bishop is called to "exercise supervision and support of the Church in its mission of making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world" (BOD, 403). The tension of ordering the church's set-apart ministry and supporting the church's mission lies at the heart of the resolution's request. So I will seek to respond clearly.

Sacramental authority "in the absence of an elder" refers to contexts where an elder is not assigned, nor a part of a worshipping community. Where elders and deacons are appointed by the cabinet and collaborate on staffs in ministry contexts, the elder is granted sacramental authority. Where the elder is not present in a given ministry context or situation, the elder may consecrate the elements to be distributed by the deacon. In This Holy Mystery, the following practice is affirmed: "Deacons are designated to serve as links between the church and the world. Their ministry appropriately includes taking the consecrated elements from their congregations and serving them in their places of ministry." This assumes, first, that an elder has consecrated the elements, and second, that the deacon's context of ministry extends the grace of God to persons beyond the local church. These are ministry contexts that are "in the world," interpreted as beyond a local church, and deacons are called to connect the church to persons in these contexts (BOD, 328). This is the fundamental gift and calling of a deacon.

In these contexts, and "in the absence of an elder," "within a deacon's primary appointment," and "for the sake of extending the mission and ministry of the church," and "upon the request of the pastor-in-charge or district superintendent," I will grant extraordinary sacramental authority, I believe in so doing I will be maintaining the Discipline and supporting the mission of our church, "to make disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world" (BOD, 120).

Blessing

I cannot conclude this response without expressing gratitude to God for the gift of grace, through Jesus Christ. I give thanks for the outward and visible signs of this grace in our lives, and for communities that feed the multitudes in our own time. And I ask that the Holy Spirit would descend upon us--whether we are offering or receiving the bread and the cup, rejoicing in abundance or kneeling in confession, sharing the bread of justice with the poor or resisting temptation alongside the addicted--to make us "one with Christ, one with each other, and one in ministry to all the world, until Christ comes again and we feast at his heavenly banquet."
