VISION, MISSION, PURPOSE AND CORE VALUES (2015)

Florida Conference

The United Methodist Church

VISION STATEMENT: Being changed in Christ, making a change in the world.

MISSION STATEMENT: The mission of the Florida Conference is to connect and equip congregations in making disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world.

Therefore, we:

- Start and nurture missional communities of faith
- Develop effective servant leaders for the church and the world
- Provide services that support congregations and extension ministries
- Connect congregations and resources for ministries that we do better together.

PURPOSE: Together we are disciples of Jesus Christ in the Wesleyan tradition called to participate in God's saving work in the world.

CORE VALUES

- We love God and search the Scriptures to hear and obey God's Word.
- We welcome and serve all people, particularly the poor and marginalized, as an expression of God's love for us.
- We desire everyone to experience a life of worship and joy in God's presence by faith in Jesus Christ.
- We are changed by the power of the Holy Spirit as we learn to follow Jesus.
- We believe that changed people are called to change their communities by the power of the Holy Spirit.
- We believe all disciples are called to discover their gifts and to live out their unique mission.
- We share our faith in the context of authentic relationships.
- Because we follow Jesus together, we have a responsibility to hold one another accountable for our discipleship.

Part II: ANNUAL CONFERENCE BUSINESS

2015 Florida Annual Conference
June 10-13, 2015
Bethune-Cookman University
Daytona Beach, Florida

“Next Generations”

Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr., Presiding Officer
Dr. Kenneth L. Minton, Conference Secretary

DAILY PROCEEDINGS

WEDNESDAY MORNING - JUNE 10

LAITY SESSION: “Being a Dangerous Church”

WELCOME and INTRODUCTIONS

Associate Conference Lay Leader, Rachael Sumner, welcomed delegates and guests to the session. She then introduced the members of the Board of Lay Ministry.

PRAISE MUSIC AND OPENING PRAYER

Following the introductions, Jeremy Hearn led the session with rousing and energizing renditions of “Whom Shall I Serve” and “Is It I, Lord” as Rachael asked the General Conference laity delegate nominees to come forward. Jeremy then led the gathering in an opening prayer.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

To ensure a clear understanding by all, Rachael then read Ken Minton’s letter to delegate nominees which outlined the nomination and voting process. Rachael also emphasized the encouragement from Bishop Carter that all annual conference delegates should be familiar with the petitions which will be voted on during the conference.

INTRODUCTION OF NOMINEES

Derrick Scott introduced each General Conference laity delegate nominee individually and asked for the guidance of the Holy Spirit as the delegates of the Annual Conference discern who the laity delegates to General Conference should be during the election process.

SCRIPTURE READING

Rachael Sumner read Luke 7:11-17, “Young man, I say to you get up!” emphasizing God’s gift of life and the challenge to use our lives to do God’s will.

BEING A DANGEROUS CHURCH

Russ Graves, Conference Lay Leader, then spoke of what it means to be a dangerous church and the three things which must be done if, we, the church, are to be the dangerous church that God has raised it up to be. A church is only as dangerous as its people. First, we must be willing to walk with Jesus. Doing so, something great will happen. There will be a sense of anticipation and excitement in our congregations because we cannot wait to be where Jesus is.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part II

Second, we have got to be willing to listen to Jesus. We will become dangerous Christians and dangerous churches when we listen to our Savior as he commands us to do the impossible, Russ said, and are filled with the faith it takes to follow His voice, rather than give Him a list of reasons why we could never do what He is calling us to do. We will never be dangerous if we live in doubt.

Third, Russ stated we have got to believe Jesus. A church that is dangerous will believe that the best is yet to come; churches where all people walk in and experience the presence of God in such a way and see God do such supernatural things that they are filled with awe.

Russ then asked the questions, “Do we believe that Jesus can do the impossible? Do we believe that Jesus can really do what scripture said He could do? One of the problems in our church today, Russ said, is we just don’t believe He can or will do what the Bible says He can do. Russ then reminded the session of Hebrews 13:8, “Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever.”

God still has a plan, Russ concluded. We are never too young or too old to get in on God’s plan.

A YOUNG ADULT’S PERSPECTIVE

Russ then introduced Molly McEntire and asked that she explain a dangerous church from a young adult’s point of view.

Molly opened by saying she was born into, has grown up in and become passionate about The United Methodist Church. Being a dangerous church to her means living life as Jesus called us to live. It can mean loving the rejected or, as many refer to them as “them” or “those people.” Being a dangerous church, Molly said, may also mean doing uncomfortable, risky, and dangerous things, but doing them because we know Jesus is our hope and He brings new life.

There are many complicated opinions and challenges facing The United Methodist Church, Molly continued. Are we willing to try new things, even those that make us uncomfortable, she asked. Being a dangerous church means to believe God is always ready to bring new life into his church. God still calls us to be unified in a divided world and that means being a dangerous church. Let us choose to be a church that lives as Jesus did, that loves as Jesus did, Molly concluded. We cannot sit, watch and ignore the hurt in our world. This is a new day and Jesus still brings life and light. Today we are called by the one who gave us life, the hope of the world to stand up and live a life as Jesus did and to be a dangerous church.

A FIFTY-FIVE AND OVER PERSPECTIVE

Alice Williams, Associate Conference Lay Leader, stated that being a dangerous church for those who are 55+ is an interesting notion. However, regardless of our vintage, she continued, God has given to each of us unique talents and gifts that can be used in Kingdom building.

To be a dangerous church, Alice said she believes we are called to be visionaries who attempt to provide light to a world wrapped in darkness so that others find the wholeness God intended for us and a real understanding of what it means to have an abundant life - not just in heaven, but here in our day-to-day walk. That’s what Wesley meant when he talked about our walk towards perfection, she said.

Being a dangerous church is a calling for all of us, no matter what our age, Alice said. We can be a dangerous church if we choose to be. We all, regardless of our age or the life stage we find ourselves in, can do what we can do and we can unleash that ability in others. We are called to be people who share God’s love in the world, she concluded. God did not say build beautiful buildings; he did not say stay. He said Go!

A PRAYER AND A SONG

Russ Graves offered a prayer. Then Jeremy Hearn led the session in another rousing song, “Build Your Kingdom Here” and then led the closing prayer.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part II

CLOSING COMMENTS

Russ Graves closed with the comment, Jesus stands beside us in everything we do. We are not alone.

Respectfully submitted, Bill Clark, Secretary - Board of Lay Ministry

CLERGY SESSION: Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr. called the Clergy Session to order at 10:00 a.m. The members joined in the singing of the hymn, "And Can It Be." Bishop Carter offered the Opening Prayer. Bishop Carter welcomed the clergy members and introduced the presenters: Rev. Terri Hill, Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry; Rev. Susie Horner, Chair of the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members; Rev. Monique McBride, Chair of the Order of Deacons; Rev. Bob Laidlaw, Chair of the Order of Elders; Rev. Wayne Wiatt, Director of the Office of Clergy Excellence; and Rev. Rwith Fuquay, Associate Director of the Office of Clergy Excellence. A motion by Rev. Terri Hill: "To allow lay supply clergy from other denominations serving appointments in the Florida Conference, and retired members of other annual conferences serving appointments in the Florida Conference to be admitted as guests to the Clergy Session without voice or vote. Bishop Carter called for vote and it was approved. Rev. Wiatt in his report gave credit to his mentors and those who led him into ordained ministry. Clergy watched video available through the Office of Clergy Excellence that will be used as a tool for recruitment for ordained ministry. Rev. Dan Johnson shared exciting news from the Debt Reduction Task Force about assistance being given to clergy. In 2014 we received a grant to fund stewardship academies that focus on personal finances and debt reduction. Because of the contributions from Bethel United Methodist Church, the Conference Board of Pensions, and the United Methodist Foundation, those persons being ordained in full connection this year will be given $5,000.00 each towards debt reduction as they continue in ministry. Rev. Cathy Thacker from the Board of Pensions presented a $2,000,000 check to Rev. Wiatt to reduce clergy debt. Rev. Mark Becker from the United Methodist Foundation presented a check for $1,000,000, also for clergy debt reduction. Our initiatives have received national attention. Clergy of all ages can apply for these funds. We will invite other benefactors and churches to help in this continuing effort. Rev. Susie Horner, Chair of the Fellowship of Local Pastors and Associate Members, gave her report. Rev. Monique McBride, Chair of the Order of Deacons, gave her report. Rev. Bob Laidlaw, Chair of the Order of Elders, gave his report. Rev. Terri Hill and Rev. Wayne Wiatt led the clergy members through the Report of the Business of the Annual Conference. Questions 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 36, 37, 38, 39, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55, 56, 59, 63, 73, 74, 79-81, 82 were addressed. Each question was read and votes were taken as required by the Book of Discipline. Bishop Carter asked the Board of Ordained Ministry to stand and acknowledged their work on behalf of the conference and invited appreciation from all clergy present. Bishop Carter read from 2 Corinthians chapter 4 and shared a few words regarding our life together in "set apart" ministry. He encouraged us to think about how God is calling each of us in our inner life, in our congregation, in our city, in our conference, in our nation, in our denomination: how are we being called to the ministry of reconciliation? And he gave the invitation: "Let's start here – Let's start with each other." The closing hymn was "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling." Clergy session ended at 11:52 a.m.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON - JUNE 10

PRE-CONFERENCE MUSIC: Robert McMichael, Worship Leader, provided music as the members arrived.

OPENING WORSHIP: Opening music and processional with our District Superintendents bringing in candles, baptism font, chalice and paten, a bible, and the cross. The scripture Matthew 3:13-17 was read by Dakota Storm. There was a Baptismal reading and then Bishop Carter led us in reaffirming our baptism. Our closing hymn was "And Are We Yet Alive." (The 2015 Florida Annual Conference Worship Book contains the liturgy, sources, and participants for each worship service at Annual Conference.)

ORGANIZATION OF THE CONFERENCE: Bishop Carter called the 173rd session of the Florida Annual Conference to order at 1:59 p.m. Rev. Ken Minton, Conference Secretary, moved that the following persons be elected to serve as Administrative Assistants for this Annual Conference Session:

Secretary Elect: Rev. Elizabeth H. Gardner

Journal Secretaries: Laurie Hofts, Rev. Patricia Aupperlee

Journal Committee: Jim Luther, Dora Burnside, Sandy Voigt, Rev. Carmen Arnett

Head Usher: Rev. Russell Belcher

Time Keeper: Rev. Hung "Bo" Sim

Parliamentarian: Robert Grizzard.

Bishop Carter called for a vote on the motion, and they were elected via voice vote. Rev. Minton moved that the entire Performing Arts Center be designated as the Bar of the Conference. Bishop Carter called for the vote, and it was approved via voice vote. Rev. Minton reminded the members to register their attendance to receive their Conference materials, their nametag, and their electronic voting device. He instructed the members on the process to be recognized by the Bishop to speak to the Conference. He reminded members that the sessions were being broadcast via the web and urged them to notify their members back home to join us on-line. He thanked the Cabinet, Conference and District Staff members, and the scores of volunteers who have worked tirelessly to plan and prepare for this year's Annual Conference. Rev. David Dodge referred members to page 25 of the Workbook. The authority for procedure of the 2015 Florida Annual Conference is the following: (a) the 2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church; (b) the Standing Rules of the Florida Annual Conference, 2014 Journal, page 209 ff.; and (c) Robert's Rules of Order. We will follow Roberts Rules of Order. And the Pocket Agenda is the official agenda. Anyone that needs to be heard from the floor must hold up their yellow recognition card to be acknowledged. Bishop Carter asked for a vote; approved by voice. Rev. Dodge also thanked Rev. David Allen for his assistance in helping us with the organization of the 2015 Florida Annual Conference.

WORDS OF WELCOME: Bishop Carter introduced Dr. Edison Jackson, President of Bethune-Cookman University. A video of Bethune-Cookman University was played and Dr. Jackson spoke and welcomed the body to Bethune-Cookman University (BCU) for the 2015 Florida Annual Conference. He thanked Bishop Carter for the opportunity and for his leadership, and reviewed recent achievements at BCU. BCU has experienced record enrollment for the second year in a row. Dr. Jackson says he is indebted to Bishop Carter for his belief in BCU and its students. Dr. Jackson introduced Rev. Dr. Gerald D. Lloyd. Dr. Lloyd addressed the body and brings greeting from the General Board of Higher Education. The Florida Annual Conference (FAC) is blessed to have two Methodist educational institutions: Florida Southern College and Bethune-Cookman University. He spoke of campus ministries throughout the nation. He urges all to support campus ministries. Dr. Lloyd recognized Mr. Joe Petrock, incoming chair of Board of Trustees of BCU. He thanked all for their investment in BCU both financially, and for being role models.

A COVENANT FOR OUR LIVING TOGETHER: Bishop Carter explained what a covenant is and the importance of adopting it before you need it; it will be used to guide our speaking over the next few days. Bishop Carter introduced the covenant read by: Rev. Sabrina Tu, (in Vietnamese), Tamara Isador (in Creole), and Rev. Jim Harnish (in English). Bishop Carter asked the body to read the covenant displayed on the screen. We will revisit the covenant daily.

COMMITTEE ON RESOLUTIONS: Rev. Cynthia Weems, Chair, presented the Report of the Committee. She noted that nine resolutions were received. Five of the Resolutions met the criteria for consideration listed in the Standing Rules. They can be found on pages 174-180 in the Workbook. Four of the Resolutions were initially approved by the Committee. However, after further review, it was determined that they did not meet the requirements for consideration. The four not being considered during this Conference session can be found on pages 180-189 in the Workbook. The four petitions are not properly before us per paragraph 206E of Standing Rules. Bishop Carter thanked Cynthia and the Committee for their work. Rod Groom moved to suspend the Rules to allow the four resolutions that were rejected due consideration during Saturday's debate. Bishop Carter reminded the members that they are not discussing or voting on the Resolutions at this time. They are only voting on whether or not to include them in Saturday's discussion; it takes two thirds of those voting to grant this right. Bishop Carter called for the vote (1=yes and 2=no) on the motion; a 2/3 majority is needed to suspend the rules and grant this right. A vote was taken; there was not a 2/3 majority. Motion failed.

ELECTIONS PROCEDURES COMMITTEE: Rev. Ken Minton, Chair, presented an overview of the elections procedures to be used during this Annual Conference session. The location of a table in the auditorium was pointed out for those persons needing a voting device or needing help with how to use the device. He thanked the committee for their diligent work in preparing for this conference. After a couple of test ballots were run, a concern was raised that we learned how to use the voting devices after taking a vote regarding the resolutions. In the spirit of seeking to build trust together, Bishop Carter asked that we vote again to see if the house would suspend the rules on the petitions on Workbook pages 180-189; vote 1 for yes and 2 for no. The votes was 57% yes, 43% no; a 2/3 vote was not received.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part II

BALLOT BLOCK #1: Bishop Carter calls for the Laity Ballot #1. Rev. Ken Minton states the first vote will be for 9 delegates and explained how the voting will be handled. He invited Rev. Anil Singh to offer a prayer for the members as they prepared to cast their votes. He then led the laity through the voting process. Clergy were then led through the voting process for Clergy Ballot #1.

BALLOT RESULTS: Bishop Carter presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #1. There were 715 votes cast; 359 votes were needed for election. There were 0 elections. The names of those receiving votes were read. He then presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #1. There were 427 votes cast; 215 votes were needed for election. There were 0 elections. The names of those receiving votes were read.

REPORT FROM THE STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP TEAM (SLT): Alice Williams gave the report of the Strategic Leadership Team. SLT continues its work of Reframe, Renew and Rethink. Ms. Williams gave an overview of Reframe; a review of finance/administration work done and we are working for greater consistency. This has taken this issue from the Districts so the Districts can focus on missional work. There has been a focus on knowledge sharing through Teaching Churches. Fifteen churches have been identified as Teaching Churches throughout the Florida Annual Conference. Creative worship, laity leadership development, clergy development, and missional best practices are areas targeted for assistance from learning churches. Rev. Alex Shanks discussed Renew. We need to renew the idea of the church as a mission. He asked, “Why do we, the church, exist?” We are to be on the move. That is, we are meant to go out and be a pilgrim people. He asked us, “What word would you use to describe your church? Fisherpeople, salt, light?” We are not to be shepherds or caregivers to those in our buildings; we are to reach new people. Where is Jesus in our community and how can we join Jesus in this work? We should not only be in areas where ministry exists, but go where ministry can be created. Rev. Shanks thanked Rev. Clark Campbell-Evans and his team for their missional work. We are looking for new models in missional engagement, and hope to be proactive instead of reactive. Rethink Rev. Audrey Warren shared about “Fresh Expressions” – a movement to reach new people, in new places, in new ways; meeting people where they are. A video was shown featuring two “Fresh Expressions” venues in the FAC: “Yoga Chapel” and “Café in la Chenelle.” Rev. Warren explained there have been various vision days throughout the year for both lay and clergy; Rev. Amy Green is an assistant to Fresh Expressions. All are invited to a tailgate party at the Annual Conference on Friday at 11:30 a.m. There will be an inflatable slide sponsored by Duke Divinity School (cost of $0.25 for each slide, and the proceeds will go to Imagine No Malaria (INM)). There will also be a bounce house and popsicles. Rev. Warren thanked Bishop Carter and gave him a gift of bubbles and a light bulb. Rev. Shanks shared about church transitions through the Nehemiah Project, and new church development. He explained gatherings will be held throughout the year. There are several recommendations that can be found in the workbook for review.

BALLOT BLOCK #2: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He invited Patti Moxley to offer a prayer for the members as they prepared to cast their votes. He then led the lay and clergy members through the voting process.

BALLOT RESULTS: Bishop Carter presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #2. There were 631 votes cast; 317 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. The names of the top 25 persons receiving votes were read. The rest of the names of those receiving votes were displayed. Bishop Carter presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #2. There were 415 votes cast; 197 votes were needed for election. There was one election: Sue Hauptert-Johnson. The names of the top 25 persons receiving votes were read. The rest of the names of those receiving votes were displayed.

BALLOT BLOCK #3: Rev. Ken Minton provided the instructions for this particular ballot block. He presented the names and demographic information of those who have already been elected. He invited Rev. Vance Rains to offer a prayer for the members as they prepared to cast their votes. Rev. Minton then led the lay and clergy members through the voting process.

BALLOT RESULTS: Bishop Carter presented the results of Lay General Conference Ballot #3. There were 614 votes cast; 308 votes were needed for election. There were no elections. The names of the top 25 persons receiving votes were read. The rest of the names of those receiving votes were displayed. Bishop Carter then presented the results of Clergy General Conference Ballot #3. There were 389 votes cast; 195 votes were needed for election. There was one election: Alex Shanks. The names of the top 25 persons receiving votes were read. The rest of the names of those receiving votes were displayed. Melissa Stump (Clergy), First Cocoa Beach, stated that Conference Child Care closes at 5:30 resulting in a number of people needing to leave the Conference. She asked that voting be suspended for the evening. Bishop Carter agreed and the next voting block will be postponed.

TELLING OUR STORY: Bishop Carter introduced the video presentation by Rev. Sarah Campbell, First UMC, Inverness. She gave witness about two mentors, Dr. Bob Tuttle and Rev. Bob Brown, who became like “spiritual fathers” to her. Because of their influence, she is mentoring students at her church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS: Bishop Carter stated Rev. Sharma Lewis is unable to preach this evening due to having dental surgery; Bishop Carter will be preaching.

CONFERENCE ADJOURNS: Beverly Patrick offered a closing prayer. Bishop Carter adjourned the Conference at 5:11 p.m.

WEDNESDAY EVENING - JUNE 10

SERVICE OF WORD AND TABLE: Rev. Gary Marcelin led the members in the opening Call to Worship. Prayers were offered and we sang together. Bishop Carter explained the offering would support two initiatives: the ongoing INM campaign and an Ordinand Pilgrimage to the Holy Land supporting the continued growth and learning of our newly ordained clergy. Scripture from the Gospel of Mark was read in Spanish by Rev. Esther Rodriguez. Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr. offered the message "Generative Christians". Bishop Carter stated this is a parable about gardening and he has never been very good at gardening. John Wesley cautioned us about awakening people then not allowing them to flourish. To be the good soil is not our achievement, it is more about the Gospel. Discipleship is the "good soil," something we do over our lifetime. In the parables, Jesus is a wisdom teacher. Wisdom is seeking the good soil to bear the most fruit. When we think of Next Generations, how can we in Florida be the good soil and be more receptive to the Gospel tomorrow than we were yesterday? Bishop Carter gave a challenge that next year every local church in the Florida Annual Conference has one person who makes a profession of faith in Jesus Christ. The evening offering was collected and Bishop Carter offered a prayer of dedication. Bishop Carter shared the Invitation to the Lord's Table. Bishop Carter, assisted by Rev. Monique McBride, led the Great Thanksgiving. Holy Communion was served. Rev. McBride offered the closing prayer; Bishop Carter offered the Benediction.

CONFERENCE FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION BUDGET PRESENTATION: Rev. Kim Uchimura, Chair, presented the report of the committee. The FAC Audit is available online and a hard copy can be requested from the Treasurer's office. The FAC received a clean audit for the previous year. Thank you to Craig Smelser and his staff. Our Conference had a record number of apportionments received this year. The next budget is basically flat, with minimal increase and it will be presented to the body. Net assets of the FAC have increased over $40 million this year. All retirement plans are funded in excess of 100%. Sufficient assets are available to finance Conference Health & Benefits. Ample assets are available through Ministry Protection and annual premiums have been reduced dramatically since 2006. Mickey describes the assets of the FAC as "solid." The report of CF&A is found on page 122 of the Workbook. Rev. Uchimura stated that you can tell that someone's faith is getting strong when their wallet empties. She is grateful that the body has been generous. Harriett Mayes, Vice President CF&A and incoming President, lead a committee to select Tony Prestipino as the incoming Treasurer. Rev. Uchimura submitted 2 recommendations to the body: Recommendation No. 1: Recommends that conference-wide fund raising appeals be approved (details in the CF&A report). Bishop Carter confirmed it is properly before the body; affirmed by voice vote. Recommendation No. 2: The 2016 Conference budget and apportionments were described as outlined in the workbook. The total budget of $21,401,406 inclusive. District apportionments are not new apportionments, just brought under the Conference budget for the 2016 year. Bishop Carter states this is important and speaks to the body. Bishop confirms it is properly before the body; body affirms via voice vote. Bishop Carter thanked Rev. Kim Uchimura and brings Mickey Wilson back to the front and explains how Mr. Wilson has been so valuable to the FAC. We are one of the healthiest Conferences when it comes to finances. It is due to many clergy and lay leaders, and is certainly due to the leadership of Mr. Wilson. Bishop Carter stated he is pleased to have Tony Prestipino as the incoming Treasurer.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS: Rev. Cathy Thacker, Chair, gave the report of the Board. The report is on pages 115-121 of the Workbook. Our assets are healthy and strong. Effective 1/1/2015, the General Board required all clergy to contribute 1% to the UMPIP; 96% of our clergy are making the matching contribution to receive CRSP benefits. Mr. Wilson has had a heart and dream to help young clergy. At the February meeting the committee designated two million in investments for new clergy grants in honor of Mr. Wilson's service as treasurer. It is expected they will net $60,000 in interest and the interest will be what is used for the grants for new clergy. She thanks Wendy McCoy, Helen Mitchell and Lois Durham for their efforts.

Rev. Clare Chance, Chair of Health Insurance Subcommittee, presented their report. They have two goals: 1) get the best possible health benefits, and 2) get the first one without breaking the budget. Pages 119-120 is where the report can be found in the Workbook. The Affordable Care Act (ACA) continues to be challenging. U.S. Government considers the FAC plan a Cadillac plan and we will be subject to $250,000 in excise tax by 2018 if we don't change the cost of our plan. The subcommittee is concerned about the upcoming increased medical costs; it is a tough road ahead. The subcommittee is offering alternatives. The ACA continues to be challenged in the Federal government. There was discussion of the ACA healthcare marketplace. There are subsidies that have been created by the ACA and a good amount of our clergy may qualify. The subcommittee is proposing a "freedom to choose" initiative. The church will pay a flat amount which allows you to choose the coverage you want and can afford based upon your needs. The subcommittee is looking at a mandatory insurance stipend that will help in the choosing. Four different types of plans are being considered: Platinum, Gold, Silver, and Bronze. Rev. Chance shared a slide showing the 2017 estimates of what churches and clergy will pay. The subcommittee will continue to review as changes happen in the ACA. In the future, all will be able to choose the benefit (s) that fit the individual. The Conference will always require local churches and other related employers to provide a stipend for full-time clergy. A formal proposal will go to the 2016 CBOPHB meeting in February and, if approved, the proposal will be presented at the 2016 Annual Conference to be implemented in 2017. Premium increases are going to happen until this plan is implemented. Rev. Chance urged all to be in prayer for the committee members. After a time for questions, Bishop Carter states that there is no action today, but we do need to vote on the report in its total. Bishop Carter asked for affirmation from the body and it is affirmed.

When he was a young man, Dr. Wiatt was asked the question: “Have you ever considered ordained ministry?” Without having been asked, he never would have entered ordained ministry. A video is shown of a few clergy who have accepted the call. Dan Johnson (Chair, Clergy Debt Reduction Task Force) shared news about escalating debt for seminarians. He has seen several churches helping pay down their pastor’s seminary debt. He discussed his own experience. He is excited to announce a $50,000 grant was received to develop stewardship for young clergy. They have also received a $35,000 grant from Bethel UMC as a gift to assist. Work continued with the Conference Treasurer and the UM Foundation. He announced that the Board of Pension $2 million investment will fund $60,000/year for clergy debt retirement, and the Foundation has designated $1 million investment funds to assist as well. We will begin an annual tradition of a gift of $5,000 to each new clergy as they begin their ministry. Rev. Cathy Thacker presents a gift of $2 million to Center for Clergy Excellence: the income will be for a “passing the torch fund” to help young clergy reduce their debt. Rev. Mark Becker, President of the Foundation, presents a gift of $1 million; the income will be used for reduction of clergy debt. Dr. Wiatt asked Mr. Wilson to come to the stage. Mr. Wilson was instrumental in the process of developing a program to assist new clergy with debt reduction. He will distribute the checks to Full Deacons - Jeremy Herrington and Justin LaRosa, and Full Elders Elizabeth Bostrom, Michael Briggs, David Charlton, Betty-Jo Foster, Susan Gray, Brian Johnson, Christopher Jones, Douglas McClain, Ruben Velasco. Dr. Wiatt introduced and invited those to be ordained into Full Connection to come to the platform. Bishop Carter asked them to respond to the Historic Questions of Examination prior to ordination. Bishop Carter thanked them for their willingness to lead and to serve. The body cheered their affirmation of the ordinands.

REPORT OF THE DEAN OF THE CABINET: Rev. Annette Pendergrass, Dean, presented the Report of the Cabinet. This is her last year; she is passing the reins to Rev. Tim Smiley. Next Rev. Pendergrass moved to the serious business of church discontinuances. She discussed the importance of church legacies. With discontinuances, we often only think of endings. We are an Easter people and need to focus on the opportunities for new life and new ministries that can come out of the decision to discontinue a church. The discontinuance can manifest itself in many different ways: new leadership, merger or joining of churches or a different kind of ministry. In each and every decision, the process can be difficult and is never easy. These conversations are not just about endings, but can be new opportunities about accepting the new things that God wants to do in that place. She references the new Nehemiah project. The Book of Discipline gives the Cabinet and the Annual Conference authority to make final decisions if necessary. If you are invited into a legacy conversation, Rev. Pendergrass hopes leaders will enter with a prayerful heart. Turn to the motions today regarding church legacy issues. Printed motions were handed out to each person coming in the door. These are properly before you. They include:

Frank Reynolds, Rockledge UMC, Rockledge, asked how this congregation can keep their assets and not have them returned to the Conference? Rev. Hernandez explained the Conference offered the congregation several options over a few years. The church decided to become their own entity; the property is a poor area of Arcadia. The assets would not be of value to the conference.

Bishop Carter reiterates these are voluntary closures. This is via the Book of Discipline paragraph 2549 in the 2012 Book of Discipline, and Standing Rule 406. This concludes the business of Discontinuances. Rev. Pendergrass thanks those leaders and congregations that are going through difficult legacy conversations at this time. She thanks all. Rev. James Neal, SC District: Listening about churches being closed, he sees other churches growing. What are they doing right that we are not doing? Rev. Neal wants the issue raised that there will be no Methodist churches closed unless we expend all options. Bishop Carter asked that we all do everything in our power for our churches to be as vital as they possibly can. Bishop Carter thanks him for his comment. Rev. during the next five years will provide $200,000 per year to help young clergy who face significant debt in completing their ministry studies at seminary. A video from Emory University regarding clergy debt was shown. To help eliminate this debt, the Foundation is providing a $60,000 annual matching grant; $5,000 for each newly ordained clergy at ordination. The Foundation will also provide a scholarship to a person of color. Debt is one financial issue clergy must address, and financial stewardship is another. The Foundation will work with Clergy Excellence and other agencies to provide personal stewardship training. It is vital for clergy to be well versed in these areas. The Book of Discipline requires clergy to take leave but few can afford to take it. The Foundation will provide $45,000 to the Office of Clergy Excellence to help clergy take this renewal leave. Rev. Becker explained the “Nothingbutnets” history and how INM relates to this. This grass roots effort across the nation has made $66 million of the goal as of April. The Foundation has provided a $100,000 matching grant. It will allow INM to leverage additional funds to help double their impact. Multiple other grants were noted and are included in the report. What do Malaria and Clergy Debt have in common? Partners in ministry are working to eliminate both. A video was played of Rev. Jad Denmark and Rev. Corey Jones which explains the new clergy academy; the academy will be offered again. The Foundation hired a consulting group to help them with their effectiveness. Rev. Becker reviewed some of the initiatives. They have also expanded their investment funds to help the body achieve their investment goals. A full report is in the Workbook. The Foundation has served the FAC for 49 years and the Foundation is grateful for the service of their board; Rev. Harold Hendren will now serve as the new board President. He presented the full slate (on the screen) of nominees for the Foundation Board. Bishop Carter calls for a hand vote: approved by the body. BOARD OF LAY MINISTRY: Russ Graves, Rachael Sumner, and Derek Scott gave the Report of the Board. Last year Russ was encouraged to go and make a young adult friend, which he did. Last year this challenge was extended to others, and hundreds responded. Rachael Sumner explains how mentors have enriched her life. Derek Scott asks, “So where do we start?” In your church there is a Timothy, and in your sphere of friends there is a Ruth. Timothy needs a Paul and Ruth needs a Naomi. He elaborates with enthusiasm. Ushers distributed cards that state five qualities of a successful mentor for guidance, and for all to pray over and think about. Not on the list are position, brilliance, and wealth! Anyone who wants to mentor can. He offers a challenge to the pastors in the room to look towards the older adults and allow them to share their experiences. He encourages all to pray: Holy Spirit do what you need to do in me for the sake of the next generation.” On the back of the card are resources that will be available.

She states it is not about changing any language in the BOD, rather it is about how we treat one another during a seismic cultural shift like we are experiencing. She states it makes a statement to the media and gives clarity for local churches. Rev. Charissa Sanders offers a friendly amendment: page 177, line 27, instead of ordained “elders” say “clergy” and on page 178 line 6 instead of “ordained pastor,” say “clergy person”. The body accepts as a friendly amendment. After questions of clarification, and speeches for and against the Resolution, the Bishop asks for a hand vote to see if the body is ready to vote on the Resolution; the body affirms readiness to vote. Bishop Carter calls for the vote on the resolution. The resolution is approved 367-276.

The fourth Resolution to support equality of love and value for both born and unborn children is found on pages 178-179. Nancy Gray, Laity, First UMC, Lutz, presenter of resolution, speaks of personal experience and in favor of the resolution. Bishop Carter states we extend the resolution time by 15 minutes and asks the body to stay and value the entire agenda to the end of the day. Carlene Fogle-Miller, Laity, offers a lengthy amendment that includes a change in title of the Resolution. Speaking in favor of the amendment, she states that it brings things more in line with our Book of Discipline. After speeches for and against the amendment, the vote is called and the amendment passes. After Rev. Beth Gardner, Conference Secretary-Elect, re-reads the amendment to the Resolution, the vote is called on the amended resolution. The Resolution as amended is affirmed 402-199.

The fifth Resolution, Creation Care Resolution, found on page 179, and submitted by Roy Terry. Rev. Terry speaks to the motion as the author. We have the responsibility for God’s world. Eric Nelson, First, Seffner SCD offers a speech against. Bishop Carter asks that we move forward for a vote. The resolution is approved 374-213.

SETTING OF DATE AND PLACE OF THE 2017 ANNUAL CONFERENCE: Rev. David Dodge, Chair, Program Committee, presented the recommendations of the committee: The 2016 Annual Conference, June 16-18, will be held at Lake Buena Vista Palace Hotel and Wyndam Hotel in Orlando. Current RFP's are in process in Central Florida for 2017 Annual Conference, June 8-10: Omni at Champions Gate – room rates were to exorbitant; The Lakeland Center – removed their bid; they are already booked; Lake Buena Vista Palace Hotel and Wyndam Hotel in Orlando and matches their 2016 bid. Rev. Dodge asks for vote to return to Lake Buena Vista Palace Hotel and Wyndam Hotel in Orlando in 2017; rates are $140 and still negotiating. The vote passes via voice vote.

COMMITTEE ON JOURNAL: Jim Luther reported that the minutes of the previous sessions have been reviewed and are found to be in order. He moved that the minutes be adopted. The motion was approved. Jim Luther also moved that the Conference Secretary be permitted to approve and edit the proceedings of today's business session after the adjournment of the Annual Conference session. The motion was approved.

PRESENTATION OF DELEGATES TO GENERAL AND JURISDICTIONAL CONFERENCES: Bishop Carter invited them to the stage so the body could pray over the delegates. Sue Hauptert-Johnson and Molly McEntire will be the clergy and lay leaders, respectively. Bishop believes the delegates represent the strength and diversity of the FAC.

CLOSING WORSHIP AND SETTING OF THE APPOINTMENTS: We are lead in the song "Forever" to close. Rev. Kandace Brooks leads us in prayer. The body was lead in singing "Lord, You Have Come to the Lakeshore." Bishop Kenneth H. Carter, Jr. offers a meditation on "Generative Christians." Bishop Carter recognizes outgoing District Superintendents Annette Pendegrass and Craig Nelson. He also recognizes incoming District Superintendents Cynthia Weems and Bob Bushong. The cabinet is introduced; it is announced that Rev. Mark Becker, president of the FUM Foundation, has been invited to become a part of the Cabinet. PART III: REPORTS AND RESOLUTIONS

STRATEGIC LEADERSHIP TEAM REPORT

Our work over this Annual Conference year (2014-2015) has been focused on a few projects aligned with the purpose of the Strategic Leadership Team. The purpose of the Strategic Leadership Team, as defined at its formation, is to “clarify the vision of the Annual Conference, ensure this vision is accomplished, and ensure the alignment of all Annual Conference resources and ministries with the vision.”

Fresh Expressions:

Fresh Expressions seeks to reach new people, in new places, in new ways. The Design Team (chaired by Vance Rains and Audrey Warren) has already held their first “Pioneer Retreat” with 65 persons in attendance and will have their second “Pioneer Retreat” at the end of this month. Pioneer Retreats continue to nurture and support those who are beginning Fresh Expression through education, motivation, and fellowship. Members of the Design Team will go to England this summer for an Exploratory Session with Fresh Expressions UK in preparation for a fall Vision Day. A budget has been submitted for 2015/2016 and includes a potential shared employee to support this work into the future.

Nehemiah Project:

The Nehemiah Project seeks to create a unified process for walking with churches toward closure and regeneration with the hope of utilizing future gained resources to continue to create the following legacies: support New Church Development as well as find innovative ways to continue to invest in our vital African American churches, our vital churches in Immigrant Communities, and our vibrant churches with high amounts of debt.

Economically Challenged Churches:

A Task Force met in November and created a list of draft recommendations that include unifying the funding mechanisms for support of mission churches, updating the guidelines for Equitable Compensation, adjusting terminology and creating an annual review process to ensure support and vitality.

New Church Development:

Dan Jackson gathered with members of the SLT and other NCD leaders of NCD in November and created a list of recommendations that were approved by the Cabinet with full implementation planned by January of 2017. The recommendations include moving property management and sales to regional real estate companies, reorganizing district and conference NCD committee work to streamline and clarify the process for starting and resourcing new churches, creating a comprehensive conference wide strategic plan, and pooling district investment funds so the appointive cabinet can focus funds on places where new churches are most needed.

Other Finance and Administration:

In partnership with the Cabinet and CFA, an implementation task force will be finalizing past finance and administration recommendations. These include continued work around best practices, District investments, redesign of District apportionments and an insurance premium adjustment plan. A future recalibration of the District NCD apportionments to include support of long term missions in impoverished areas is being explored.

Future work includes work on the Teaching Church model and a plan for a Conference Strategic Plan.

The Strategic Leadership Team seeks the ongoing feedback from leaders around the Annual Conference as we look to the future with great hope for what is yet to come.

Respectfully submitted,
Strategic Leadership Team

CONFERENCE TABLE REPORT

The purpose of the Conference Table is to bring together leaders of Conference Boards, Committees, Programs and Ministries for communication and collaboration, and to respond to initiatives of the Strategic Leadership Team. The Conference Table met twice in these past twelve months, on October 18, 2014 and February 21, 2015. We engaged in fruitful discussion on the mission, vision, and resourcing of the Annual Conference and important new directions presented by Strategic Leadership Team and Bishop Ken Carter. These new directions include: Fresh Expressions; the Nehemiah Project; initiatives to address economically challenged churches; and strategies for developing new churches. The Conference Table also provided input to the SLT on important considerations for its future strategic planning. Work began on a Covenant for The Election of General and Jurisdictional Delegates by the Florida Annual Conference. The Conference Table empowered a small task force to complete that work on behalf of the Table.

It has been our privilege to serve as Co-Chairpersons and to guide discussions of the diverse constituencies participating.

Respectfully submitted,

Debbie McLeod

CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR OF CONNECTIONAL MINISTRIES

Once again Connectional Ministries has been privileged to serve as the vision-center for our so many of our vital Conference ministries. This vision-center provides a place for exploration and coordination as our Conference strives toward excellence in Christ-centered ministries!

Our efforts toward equipping the church to engage in ministry includes consideration for the Conference staff. This year's efforts include staff participation in the following ventures, in addition to the fulfillment of their work responsibilities:

- Ongoing opportunities for Conference staff to engage in weekly prayer gatherings
- Monthly (and holy season) chapel worship
- Lunch and Learn gatherings to host and learn about global initiatives from missionaries during their stateside visits.
- Participation in Inclusivity awareness and training through the Beloved Community curriculum.
- Ongoing participation and support of KidsPack (providing food subsidies for school children during the weekends)
- Forging and strengthening relationships with our neighbors and renewing our membership in the Lakeland Chamber of Commerce.
- Partnering with specialists in the areas of community empowerment through Polk Ecumenical Action Council (P.E.A.C.E.) achieving justice and community accountability.
- Convening the Expanded Directors of the Conference staff in order to foster a spirit of unity and efficient streams of communication between ministry areas.

Collaborations between ministry areas extends beyond Conference staff areas. Conversations pertaining to resourcing and aging, can result in effective intergenerational ministry initiatives. While youth and more recently young adult ministries remain vitally important, an emphasis on a resource team developed around Children's Ministry is gaining ground. Our Spiritual Formation and especially Beyond 50 Ministry (B50M) teams are generally assumed to attract people within certain age groups. What might occur if the folks with expertise in leading Children's Ministries and folks with expertise and life experience in leading Spiritual Formation and Beyond 50 ministries would gather for discernment? What might we celebrate if the Spiritual

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

Formation Team specifically provided resources for young adults to participate in the annual Five-Day Academy? These outcome create a climate for intergenerational ministry conversation, learning and mutual appreciation.

Connection intact, we gathered, joined and supported several General Church initiatives and availed ourselves of resources.

- We hosted the national conference of Black Clergywomen of The United Methodist Church (BCWUMC) last August and will host the national Black Methodist for Church Renewal (BMCR), both in Orlando.
- Connectional Ministries and Clergy Excellence shared resources and sponsored four young adult clergy to the annual General Board of Church and Society (GBCS) gathering in Washington, D.C. (GBCS requested two representatives).

I am humbled by the caliber of staff and the genuine faith and joy we have in serving the Church every day. My role as Director of Connectional Ministries (DCM) has placed me in a position where I regularly hear from others throughout the Connection, We look to FL, What is FL doing about . . . ? , I know FL has . . . , FL has one of the healthiest . . .

I do not take for granted the pool of talents which have preceded me and now surround me. I remain grateful to Bishop Carter, members and leaders of the Annual Conference for your prayers and confidence in my leadership and the possibilities which lie before us. Praise the Lord!

CONNECTIONAL RELATIONS

Our new website—People of the Florida Conference: Changing the World One Story at a Time—was designed, developed and launched over this past year. It is the only conference website in the denomination that is storytelling focused, with sections dedicated to: individual churches and ministries telling their stories; local church and ministry videos, and photos from local churches and members—even a place for you to submit and share recipes!

Go to www.flumc.org for your news, videos and photos. Check out the year by the numbers!

BOARD OF CAMPS AND RETREAT MINISTRIES

Including Conference Youth Ministries

The Board of Camps and Retreat Ministries (BCRM) is privileged to report that your Florida Conference Camp and Retreat Ministries continues to provide vital sites of transformative ministry. Mike Standifer, Director, is spearheading our efforts, along with the other site directors, staff and board as we remain committed to continuing the trajectory of operational sustainability, telling our stories and programmatic growth. All four sites (Centenary Camp, Life Enrichment Center, Riverside Retreat, and Warren Willis Camp) are working towards being financially sustainable and are growing in ministry programs and participants. Apportionment dollars went to support scholarships, new program development to reach more people, and overall coordination of our statewide ministry. Summer campers (total for all four sites) exceeded the 4,000 mark for the fourth year in a row with 4,399 campers.

This past year marked an exciting time of facility growth. Centenary Camp had a great group of volunteers from New Covenant UMC in The Villages. They renovated the girls' dorm shower/dressing area, painted all of the boys dorm bunks, laid tile in bathrooms and old office area. The Life Enrichment Center's major renovation of all lodging rooms was finished in November 2014. All lodging rooms now have new door sweeps, ceiling fans, paint and dehumidifiers. A beautiful new community room with air-conditioning, located where the screened porch of the Gold room used to be, has recently been completed. A new playground was installed near the Pearson & Cokesbury meeting rooms. By Annual Conference, Riverside Retreat should have a new ADA accessible dock and walkway installed. This was funded by a generous grant from Goodwill Industries and the Board of Trustees. It will be a great addition as all will be able to access the river. The Warren Willis Camp added basketball and nine-square courts in the After School Adventures area. A bouldering wall has also been installed as an additional activity for campers and guests.

This past year also marked a time of celebration, sadness and excitement. Martha Pierce, Director of Riverside Retreat, retired on April 1, 2015 after 15 years of ministry and service. We are grateful for her leadership for the many years that she served and wish her well in retirement. Our new Director, David Weber started in May 2015. We are excited about his leadership and are looking forward to Riverside Retreat's future ministry and growth.

The fourth annual Camping Sunday was held the last Sunday in February 2015, offering a chance for each church in the conference to celebrate our camping ministry through the giving of scholarships and encouraging excitement in congregations about summer camp.

Conference Youth Ministry Report 2014 – March 2015

Conference Youth Ministry Table: Our table is made up of youth workers from seven of our nine districts. At the end of 2015 we will be recruiting youth workers from the AC, NW, and SE districts to give our table a district representative from all nine districts. The table plans training events, builds networks, and advocates for youth ministry. Our table meets four times a year at the Conference Office.

Rooted: Annual Youth Worker Training Event: September 15-16, 2014 & September 21-22, 2015 - Rooted is an annual training event for veterans and new youth workers. It helps create friendships in ministry, and it helps build a sense of connection in our conference.

Refuel Retreats: In January 2014, the Conference Youth Worker Table brought in the staff from LeaderTreks to facilitate their Refuel Retreat here in Florida. This retreat focused on how we can face our leadership challenges, by helping youth workers lead themselves, lead their mission, and lead up. In January 2016 the Conference Youth Ministry Table will bring LeaderTreks back to Florida for another Refuel Retreat.

Youth Ministry Academy: The January 2015 Academy was a convention sponsored by the Youth Ministry Institute, Ministry Architects, our Florida Conference, and two Episcopal Dioceses in Florida. Kenda Creasy-Dean from Princeton Theological Seminary was our keynote speaker. This event was a resounding success. There was professional instruction, excellent resource sharing, and powerful worship.

District Training Events: There is a need for regional youth worker trainings on nights or weekends. These trainings target part-time youth workers, volunteer youth workers, and volunteer teams. Our Conference Table developed a curriculum that would be taught by veteran youth workers in each location. In February and March 2015, we provided instruction at nine different events in seven districts. It is our goal to provide these trainings in all nine districts in 2016.

Youth Ministry Institute: www.yminstitute.com - YMI continues to provide extremely valuable services to our conference. YMI's youth ministry training program, their free consultation services and their youth minister search services help in so many ways. In the Florida Conference in 2014, YMI staff visited with 61 local churches, conducted 11 pre-hiring focus groups, contracted with 19 churches for the two-year training and coaching program for their youth minister, contracted for the youth minister search for five churches and consulted by phone with an additional seven churches on a variety of youth ministry issues.

Conference Connection on Youth Ministry (CCYM) February 2014: Dare to RISE student leadership retreat saw around 30% growth in attendance from the 2013 event.

Spring of 2014: CCYM graduated a large number of its members.

February 2015: Dare to ECHO student leadership retreat saw continued growth.

CCYM is holding a contest in 2015 to decide on a Youth Service Fund (YSF) project. YSF is a General Board of Discipleship initiative that raises funds for service ministries for youth by youth. CCYM and our Youth Delegation are led by Kelly Minter. Conference Youth Ministry Report submitted by Joel Pancoast, Conference Youth Ministry Coordinator www.flumym.org

Camps, Retreats & Youth Ministry change lives. More people came to our sites in this conference year than any previous year. Our sites are working towards being financially sustainable and are projected to achieve this goal in the future. New programs have started and are growing, new and renovated buildings have emerged and the best is yet to come.

Faithfully submitted,

Mike Standifer, Director, Camps and Retreat Ministries
Rev. David McEntire, Chair, BCRM

BOARD OF HIGHER EDUCATION AND CAMPUS MINISTRY

Our Florida Conference ministries on college and university campuses continue to serve more students in more places than ever before as we move towards our vision of reaching every student on every campus in each generation. With nine Wesley Foundations, Bethune-Cookman University and Florida Southern College, and new ministries at FAMU, FAU, and Nova Southeastern being planned, we are effectively extending the ministry on campuses across the Florida Conference.

Strategic Plan:

- We have successfully implemented our 5-year strategic plan guiding our hopes and dreams through 2015. The major goals included launching new campus ministries, building stronger connection with local churches, and establishing greater expectations for fruitful ministry. We made significant progress on these goals in the past year:
- Plans to re-launch FAMU Wesley
- Collaboration with New Church Development for a new ministry at FAU and Nova Southeastern in 2016.
- Completed year two of Missional Vital Signs for Wesley Foundations
- BHECM Committees addressing critical needs like deferred maintenance, budget allocations, communications, support of campus ministers, and our relationship with our two church-related schools.

We are hard at work on our Strategic Plan for the 2016-2020 Quadrennium.

FAMU Campus Ministry:

We are pleased to announce the re-launch of our campus ministry at FAMU during the 2015-2016 Conference year. In the fall of 2011, FAMU Wesley was closed due to systemic issues that prevented revitalization. All monies were held in reserve at the Florida UM Foundation for the purposes of a re-launch. This past spring, an assessment was completed under the leadership of Dr. Latricia Scriven. The assessment studied the unique missional opportunities of the campus, student demographics, student life plan, and long-range development plans of FAMU, fiscal and facility needs, support and cooperation FSU Wesley and nearby United Methodist churches district, and other items that may impact the ability of a campus ministry at FAMU to fulfill the mission of the church on campus. We look forward to unveiling the new FAMU ministry as the recommendations of the assessment are implemented in the coming year!

New FSU Wesley Building

We are excited about the plans to provide FSU Wesley with a new campus ministry building during the 2015-2016 Conference year. A resolution approved by BHECM, New Church Development, the Conference Board of Trustees and the Cabinet has made a provision for the funds needed for demolition and construction. That resolution recognized and affirmed the following:

- FSU Wesley Foundation is a strategically important ministry of the Florida Conference, developing a new generation of Christian leaders for The United Methodist Church;
- two separate professional engineering assessments determined that the FSU Wesley Foundation building and the Chapel of the Upper Room cannot be renovated and must be demolished;
- current repair and maintenance costs raising the urgency for immediate action on demolition and new construction;
- the current location is an ideal setting for campus ministry and efforts to find a new location were unsuccessful, as were efforts to re-develop the property through commercial developers.
- a 2013 feasibility study concluded that a capital campaign run by FSU Wesley could not expect to raise the needed funds;

The new facility will be a multi-purpose building with worship space, offices, prayer room, commercial kitchen and storage. Construction is scheduled to begin by August 2015 and be completed in one year.

FIU-MDC Wesley and University of Miami Wesley

This summer we bid farewell to both our campus ministers in Miami, Paul Massingill and Beth Bostrom, who will be receiving new appointments starting July 1. With their departure, we will be re-organizing our two Wesley Foundations in the South East District, merging the Boards of FIU-MDC Wesley and UM Wesley, and having the two new campus ministers serve as a ministry team leading both ministries.

With over 230,000 students enrolled in University of Miami, Florida International University and Miami-Dade College combined, we look forward to the ways the new campus minister team and the new unified Board will cast a vision for a city-wide ministry reaching multiple, diverse campuses and a new generation of student leaders!

Conclusion:

The Florida Conference is currently a leader in campus ministry but we can never be content to merely maintain the status quo. Even as we strengthen our existing ministries with great leaders and higher standards of accountability, we know that our vision for more ministries on more campuses reaching as many students as possible is a missional imperative for the church and the kingdom of God.

SPIRITUAL FORMATION

Find us on the NEW FLUMC website!

Looking at Spiritual Formation through a past, present, future lens allows me to start with a couple who thought in exactly those terms during their lifetime. H. Melton and Adelaide G. Ware were passionate about Spiritual Formation. They made the Prayer Chapel at the LEC one of their earlier gifts. Within their wills they wanted to insure many other kinds of spiritual formation efforts. Thanks to Bishop Carter, Bill and Robbi Walker, Trudy Rankin, Sharon Austin and Jim Cook for leadership in accomplishing the Wares' goals for their substantial gift to the Conference and Spiritual Formation. The bequest they made to the Florida Conference will be utilized for grants and scholarships in the area of spiritual formation.

The Spiritual Formation team was able to retreat during the fall of 2014 to look back on accomplishments and look forward to a meaningful future of spiritual formation within Florida.

The Florida 5-Day Academy of Spiritual Formation is one of the major means for inviting greater spiritual depth in the lives of its participants. Sponsored by the Spiritual Formation team, Upper Room and the Florida Conference under Connectional Ministry, this year's 5-Day was held in early March. The Academy is a place to deepen one's relationship with God through teaching, prayer, daily Communion and covenantal fellowship. Forty-six attendees were inspired by the teaching of Jerry Webber as he presented Meditations on the Parables of Jesus. Planning team members were: Lew Arnold, Steve West, Gene Hendrix, Sarah Madsen, Ann Abbot and Kathy Houser.

Next year, Steve Harper and Elizabeth Canham will be the faculty presenters with the topics: Walking in Love and Praying with God's Two books" Creation and the Bible respectively. The dates for the 2016 Academy are March 6-11, 2016. The Retreat team consists of Marilyn Swanson, Retreat Leader; Jim Cook, Faculty Liaison; Kelly Smith, Worship Leader; Lew Arnold, Covenant Group Leader; and Kathy Houser, Hospitality. The Academy is for clergy and laity with an interest in Spiritual Formation. It is designed for both "head" and "heart", communicating knowledge about Christian spiritual formation and a context for experiencing it. Limited scholarships are available. To find more information regarding registration and a detailed description of the Academy, go to www.flumcsf.org.

Each year the Spiritual Formation team creates the Prayer Garden at Annual Conference to coincide with the conference theme. This past year, the Prayer Garden's morning communion times were well attended by between 45 and 60 persons each morning. Totally, over 600 people came through the Prayer Garden for Eucharist, personal prayer and walking the Prayer Labyrinth. The team sees this expression of ministry as a very important part of its mission.

This fall the Spiritual Formation team is sponsoring a "fireside chat" with Bishop Carter. The date is October 16 and 17 and the location is being finalized.

Spiritual Directors in the Conference are excited about the formation of Spiritual Director Days at the LEC – these will be day long ecumenical gatherings of Spiritual Directors for support, education and prayer. The directors will be offering their services at various Conference events where Spiritual Direction can be a positive addition to the program – allowing for individual Spiritual direction participation.

Candidacy Retreats, held by the Office of Clergy Excellence have included presentations of spiritual formation and spiritual direction as well.

Spiritual Formation is being recognized as one of the essential foundations of ministry across the board. We welcome all opportunities for inviting persons to grow in spiritual deepening.

Respectfully submitted, Jim Cook, Chairperson, Spiritual Formation team

WOMEN'S RETREAT DESIGN TEAM

The Women's Retreat Design Team organized and completed 3 retreat weekends for almost 1,000 ladies attending from throughout the Central Florida Conference. Our theme for the 31st Annual Retreat this year was "BELIEVE". The Old Testament Scripture was Isaiah 43:10-11 (NLT), "But you are my witnesses, O Israel!" says the LORD. "You are my servant. You have been chosen to know me, believe in me, and understand that I alone am God. There is no other God – there never has been, and there never will be. I, yes I, am the LORD, and there is no other Savior." The New Testament Scripture was John 11:25-27 (NLT), Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life. Anyone who believes in me will live, even after dying. Everyone who lives in me and believes in me will never ever die. Do you believe this, Martha?" "Yes, Lord," she told him. "I have always believed you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one who has come into the world from God."

The retreats were 3 days each in January, February and March and were held at the Life Enrichment Center (LEC) in Fruitland Park. These retreats offered an opportunity for women to break from day-to-day responsibilities to sing, pray, and renew their relationship with the Lord. The weekend is trouble-free with all lodging and food provided by the LEC, a marvelous setting for prayer, study and reflection. Our objective is for these women to leave re-energized and re-dedicated to their walk as Christians. Connectional Ministries, the Design Team and the LEC were honored to orchestrate and attend the Women's Retreats. We witnessed an amazing transformation in many women and blessings bestowed on many others. It is a godsend to each and every one of us every year.

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

This is a big year for the Commission on Archives and History and the Historical Society as we are hosting the Southeastern Jurisdiction Historical Society annual meeting at Florida Southern College and the Florida United Methodist Heritage Center, July 7-10, 2015. A Kaleidoscope of Florida Methodism is the theme for the four-day event, with several presentations to highlight it: Mark Tlachac, director, Child of the Sun Visitor Center, Florida Southern, keynote address and tour of the Frank Lloyd Wright Campus; Dr. Robert Tate, vice president for advancement at Florida Southern, "Florida Southern: The Early Years"; Dr. Evelyn Bethune, granddaughter of Mary McLeod Bethune, the legacy of her grandmother; "Through the Eyes of the Circuit Rider," excerpts from diaries; Dr. Larry Rankin, former secretary of global missions, Florida Conference, "Early Methodism in Cuba"; and Icel Rodriguez, current director of global missions, "The Florida-Cuba Connection Today." Worship and delightful entertainment will also be a part of this exciting and much anticipated event.

Nell Thrift, archivist, directs the work in the archives. Receiving, organizing, and filing of local church, district, and conference agency records are continuing, with the help of volunteers. The archives is receiving records from churches that were closed at the 2014 Annual Conference. Tours of the Heritage Center to learn about the history of the Florida Conference to help us move forward in the 21st Century are encouraged.

Commission members continue to see that churches have up-to-date histories and an accurate founding date for each church. A workshop for local church historians was held in the South West District in April. The SEJ will have a Historic Preservation Workshop November 20-22 at Lake Junaluska with the focus on disaster preparedness, which is essential in Florida. Everyone is invited to attend, especially church historians and secretaries. The Commission has information regarding the preservation of electronic records available to churches.

The Florida Conference Historical Society met during Annual Conference last year. The Reverend Riley Short, retired, shared memories of his pastoral life. It was an entertaining and inspirational evening.

Three members of the Commission attended SEJ events during 2014: Historical Society at Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina, in June; Historical Society Executive Committee meeting at Lake Junaluska and Commission on Archives and History annual meeting, both at Lake Junaluska in November. Nell Thrift is secretary of the Historical Society and member of the Commission; the Reverend Ivan Corbin is chairperson of the Commission; and Leah Pittard, is a member of the Historical Society's Executive Committee.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

The celebration of anniversary churches and clergy at the 2014 Annual Conference was led by a circuit rider and his wife (Reverend Ivan Corbin and Anita Campbell, both of the Commission). Each of the newly ordained elders and deacons received a copy of Robert M. Temple's history of the Florida Conference, Florida Flame, as well as cards giving the chain of their ordinations back to Thomas Coke.

Again this year the Commission on Archives and History is leading the Annual Conference in an anniversary celebration of churches and clergy.

THE OFFICE OF MISSIONAL ENGAGEMENT

The Office of Missional Engagement launched into its second year focused upon our purpose of “Equipping and collaborating with districts, local churches and outreach ministries to grow disciples of Jesus Christ for the transformation of their local communities and the world through missions and the pursuit of justice.” We have been accompanied in this endeavor with the two revamped committees of Missions and Social Justice.

We have been developing along with our partners training opportunities to equip local church leaders in to more effectively lead their congregations in these areas. We are currently developing an Academy that will take place later this year at the Life Enrichment Center that will train leaders of all experience levels. We co-sponsored along with St. Luke’s United Methodist in Windermere a training in Understanding Cultural Intelligence. And finally in this area of training, the office will be sponsoring a fundraising training event in the Fall for our partner ministries who want to better equip themselves to underwrite their ministries.

One of the biggest things you could do to be a part of this new revamped focus upon missions is to find a way to encourage your church, if they don’t already, to support a person in mission. That will link your congregation to the story of God’s mission in the world that will be fostered by a long-term relationship between you and the mission person you support. For national and International missions, that support is $5/member or a max of $2,500 a year. For one of our YAMMs, the support is $1/member or a max of $1,000/year.

This past year we have launched two new initiatives: The first of those is the Young Adult Missional Movement. In its pilot year, we have 14 young adults, living in intentional Christian community in three locations. The long term vision of this effort is to build a self-sustaining movement of young adults who are investing a year or two in service. From the get-go this movement is intentionally multi-ethnic with members from the beautiful diversity of our state.

The second new initiative is leading the Florida Conference’s contribution to the Imagine No Malaria campaign. We are joining other conferences in helping the denomination cross the finish line in raising $75 million. Our Conference goal is to save 250,000 lives. If your church has not already made a pledge to support this effort, now would be a great time to do so.

We have been asked by the SLT to help redesign how the Conference works with churches in impoverished situations. We are working with Equitable Compensation, NCD Mission support and the districts to better implement how these churches on the front line of ministry among the poor can be supported by the Conference and assure that the Conference doesn’t financially support churches that have lost their missional vitality.

I give thanks to God for an amazing staff with whom to work and for dedicated laity and clergy who make all of these efforts, represented in many of the other reports you will find in this workbook, come to life as a part of the redeeming love of Christ through the witness and work of our United Methodist Church in Florida.

Grace and peace,
Clarke Campbell-Evans
Director, Missional Engagement

MISSIONS

Thanks be to God for the many ways the people of the Florida Conference are making disciples of Jesus Christ. These disciples participate in the mission of God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to transform their local communities, our state and the world. The Missions Committee strives to partner with the Episcopal Office and the Office of Missional Engagement to equip and collaborate with local churches and districts to grow disciples through missions.

After our 2014 Annual Conference, the Missions Committee discerned two areas of focus for our ministry over the past year. The first was to build a ministry team solely dedicated to fostering support around the Conference for our current and future long-term missionaries serving around the world. This team is now fully assembled and has embarked on its ministry together. I encourage you to contact Committee member Larry Rankin at lrarkin@flumc.org if you’d like to serve in this ministry.

Our second focus area is to unveil in 2015 a weekend event of worship and enrichment for local church mission leaders to celebrate God's mission in the world, uncover new understandings of Wesleyan mission, and leave transformed to share their passion in their local churches and communities. By participating in this event, we envision local church mission leaders will also develop relationships and build solidarity with others throughout the Conference who care deeply about God's mission in the world and leave with a wide and diverse sense of the way they can engage their congregations in missions. Please contact me at 941.524.0303 or michaelthomaskennedy@gmail.com to learn more or join us in this ministry.

The Committee also served in two other ways this past year. The Committee continued in its role of overseeing the receiving of applications and determination of awards for the Alice W. Lockmiller grant program. Lockmiller grants help UM churches and agencies reach out into their communities to meet the needs of children, youth and their families in economic and/or social distress.

The Committee also celebrated the fruitful ministries of the Conference's Methodists United in Prayer (Cuba), East Angola/Florida partnership and Haiti/Florida Covenant ministries, while assisting them with charting a future course for each of their ministries.

The Committee gives thanks for the leaders and committee members who capably guide fruitful ministry teams for the Young Adult Missional Movement (YAMM), Imagine No Malaria, our relationships with East Angola, Cuba and Haiti, and United Methodist Volunteers in Mission (UMVIM). You can read more elsewhere in this workbook about how God is powerfully at work in each of these ministries.

Join us in praising and thanking God for changing hearts and lives through these ministries.

(Formerly Cuba/Florida Covenant)

In 1996 a Task Force convened by Bishop Cornelius L Henderson drafted a sister relationship covenant between the Cuba and Florida Methodist churches. In 1997, Bishop Henderson and Bishop Francisco Gustavo Cruz ratified the Cuba-Florida Covenant at both Annual Conferences.

The ministry's Task Force members met twice, in March and October. Both meetings were held at the Florida Conference offices in Lakeland for one day. George Reed became the MUIP Chairperson. Terry Denham was given a testimonial at the fall Task Force meeting for his 4 years of faithful service as Chair. Bishop Ricardo Pereira, Methodist Church in Cuba was the special guest at the October meeting. This gathering gave us the opportunity to exchange ideas with Bishop Pereira about how to strengthen the ministry and make plans for next year's caravan travel and sister districts' interaction. New Coordinators were added to the Task Force to cover the support of the Havana Seminary. They are already working on promoting this through brochures and other means.

Travel to Cuba has become somewhat easier due to U.S. government lifting some restrictions and the Cuba government granting more religious visas through the Methodists Church in Cuba. This year 24 teams with 143 persons traveled to Cuba. This showed a continuing interest in supporting the ministry with the partnering of some new sister churches and strengthening the relationships among others. Members of each caravan went to their sister churches for different purposes, such as, participation in District Seminary activities, Clown ministry, Youth group visiting Camp Canaan, attending Women's conferences, Cuba church anniversaries, and others.

Donations to the Cuba ministry this year amounted to over $250,000 in support of pastors and churches.

At the Florida Annual Conference in Lakeland, some MUIP Task Force members gathered at the Exhibit Hall to share information and mission trip experiences with those who were interested in the Cuba ministry.

The total number of churches appointed by the Methodist Church in Cuba Annual Conference is approximately 400. Each one supports an average of 6-20 house churches and missions numbering over 700 throughout the Island. The membership in the Cuba Conference has doubled since 1996 to over 50,000 active disciples. Communications of the ministry continues to expand with, not only a web page and emails, but also in Facebook, Global Missions blogs, etc.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

The process of inviting Cuban pastors and laity to visit their partner churches in different Florida districts has improved but some still experience delays in coming to Florida. However, many of those who are approved now are granted a 5 year visa to return to the U.S without any further church invitation. This year, 31 Cuban pastors and laity were hosted by their sister churches, giving them an opportunity to experience our style of worship, and our churches' hospitality. This, more than ever, has become a vital part of keeping the relationships strong.

Currently, 179 Florida churches are in sister church relationships with 186 Cuba churches. Although new sister church relationships were formed, others were dissolved for a variety of reasons, so the ratio of Cuba and Florida churches partnerships (and the need to form more) remains the same. There is still a majority of Methodist churches in Cuba waiting for a partner church in Florida. The Florida Conference encourages all Florida churches that do not have partner relationships with a Cuba Methodist church to engage in a mission ministry through the Methodists United in Prayer, laboring in Christ's love to get 100% of churches in this relationship.

EAST ANGOLA/FLORIDA PARTNERSHIP

The East Angola/Florida Partnership provides a wonderful opportunity for people to answer God's call to serve a mission in Africa. Lives are changed when we answer God's call and form lasting cross cultural relationships that are held together by Christian love.

Our main emphasis continues to be on education at all levels from primary to post-secondary education. We continue to provide financial aid to the Quessua High School and to the Hope for the Children of Africa Middle School. We continue to financially support the feeding program for the 50+ boys who live there. Currently, we have 5 Angola students on scholarship. Two are at Africa University in Zimbabwe, two are in Luanda, Angola and one is in Saurimo. There are three more students who have been approved for scholarships. One to study in Luanda, one at Africa University and another in Malange.

Florida teams build relationships as they teach and provide the tools for jobs in construction, welding, plumbing, carpentry, masonry, painting etc. for the boys. We have provided sewing machines, fabric, accessories and instruction as we develop skills and activities that will empower women. These are times of laughter and singing as we work together.

Harvest UMC and FUMC Homestead sent teams in June and October. A Florida Conference delegation comprised of Armando Rodriquez and Clarke Campbell-Evans attended the Angola Annual Conference in February 2015. We have teams scheduled for late July, early November and third team with date pending.

The East Angola/Florida Partnership continues to enjoy a very close working relationship with the Association of Alumnae and Friends of Quessua, AEAQ. They have provided financial support and encouragement in all of our efforts. A recent wind storm caused terrible damage to Quessua boarding house and school. The members offered that if we came all the way from the US, they should do more. The Garcias hosted a time of sharing as we dined and discussed the needs of Quessua. They eagerly offered to help provide clean water by immediately exploring viable options and to address issues regarding our entry visas for Angola. They took note of this concern and will make efforts to find an acceptable solution in the near future. The AEAQ met with the Vice-Governor who promised to attend to the matters presented in a more supportive manner. We are extremely grateful for the relationship we share with this group and for the interventions that we pray will come to fruition.

We partner with the Yellowstone and Rocky Mountain Annual Conferences in the US and the Angola Connection, a gathering of former missionaries to Angola and their relatives. A member of this group created an endowment fund to benefit theology students. We are grateful for all who join with us in fulfilling the goals of rebuilding Quessua following long years of civil war. Kenneth Koome from General Board of Global Ministries (GBGM) is in a covenant relationship with the Florida Conference. He continues to function as the Mission Financial Officer where he oversees the distribution of GBGM funds to the mission. Ken also trains new leaders in the area of finance. Ken is delightful and a great asset in our efforts.

Reverends, Doctors Leonardo and Cleivy Garcia are in a covenant relationship with the Florida Conference. They continue to faithfully serve as our missionaries to East Angola in the community of Quessua and to the surrounding villages. They are teachers at the Quessua School of Theology where Cleivy also serves as Vice-Dean. The Garcias are also responsible for overseeing the reconstruction of the boy's dormitory. Cleivy and Leo graciously host teams from our conference and others. Team members are made to feel at home as they enjoy the Garcia's warm hospitality. During times of readjustment in their jobs, Leo can be seen plowing fields as Cleivy gathers others to assist in publishing literature to be used in teaching adults and children.

We give thanks to God for all of our partners in ministry as we continue to explore ways we can build lasting relationships while empowering the beautiful people of Quessua.

DISASTER RECOVERY MINISTRY

Equipping churches to prepare for disaster continues to be a high priority for Disaster Recovery Ministry. This is accomplished through training, leadership development and consistent communication.

From June 2013 to June 2014, 184 volunteers representing 33 churches attended “Disaster 101: Basic Disaster Ministry Training”; 49 volunteers were trained and certified -- and 29 volunteers recertified -- as early responders for the Florida Conference and UMCOR, bringing our total number of early response team volunteers to 304. Additionally 147 volunteers have been trained by UMCOR to provide spiritual and emotional care in disaster.

I was again honored to serve as co-chair of the Southeastern Jurisdiction Disaster Academy planning team. The Disaster academy was hosted by the North Georgia Conference in February 2014 with six volunteers from four Florida churches attending. As always it was a great time of building relationships, sharing experiences and learning new competencies.

Disaster-trained volunteers continued to maintain their readiness through ministry in their local community and beyond. This included mission in Pahokee, Tampa, Bartow, the children’s home, our camps and more.

Disaster ministry is all about getting to know your community and getting connected – to the community and the conference – before disaster happens. It’s about building relationships and meeting needs.

The churches and volunteers involved in disaster ministry embody that vision. I am grateful for the many ways they engage in this unique ministry of preparation and waiting, knowing that it is not if but when the next disaster will occur.

In ministry with you,
Pam Garrison, Florida Conference Disaster Response Coordinator

PRISON AND JAIL MINISTRY TEAM

The Prison and Jail Ministry Team made great progress toward clarifying their mission and role as a task force of the annual conference: to promote Christ-centered ministries of prevention, healing and restoration. Two goals were adopted to live into that mission.

The first goal is to initiate “No More Throw Away Kids”, a partnership with the African Methodist Episcopal church to provide a mentor (“faith friend”) for every incarcerated child in Florida. JFJ Ministries, a community ministry of Van Dyke UMC, will provide the training and the initial roll out is planned for fall 2014.

The second goal is to explore opportunities over the next three to five years for re-entry partnerships in our communities that would provide holistic, faith-based processes to assist men and women transitioning from prison back into their communities. There seem to be many small ministries that assist with re-entry for ex-offenders but frankly, the need is overwhelming. The vision of the team is to work with these existing ministries and, where appropriate, encourage new ministries, and connect them to the community in ways that can engage more churches and more community wide resources.

Extensive research as well as an intentional effort to develop relationships with prison and prison-related ministries and agencies will be essential. Educating our churches and helping them find ways to assist that are within their capacity will also be crucial. The goal is not to re-invent but rather to identify what is working and see how the local church, as well as the conference, might enhance and/or add to existing, effective programs to strengthen and sustain them for the long term. We believe this approach has the potential to involve the whole church – not just a few interested people -- in a variety of functions and contexts.

The next steps are to begin the challenging work of implementing these goals.
Pam Garrison, Prison Ministry Staff Liaison

HAITI – FLORIDA COVENANT

The Haiti Florida Covenant Committee continues to make progress toward establishing deeper connections between our conferences, pastors and churches. Most significantly, during the past year we have completed two major conferences in collaboration with the Institute of Preaching, Candler School of Theology, the Haiti Florida Covenant Committee, and the Methodist Church of Haiti. We were greatly assisted in the development and implementation of the conferences by Sharon Harbottle and Dr. John Harbottle, British Methodist missionaries serving in Haiti, and the Christian Education offices of the Haiti Methodist Church.

The conferences were designed for local pastors in Haiti to help them develop skills in preaching. The majority of Methodist churches in Haiti are served by local pastors, under the supervision of approximately 15 seminary trained Circuit Superintendents, making this type of instruction extremely useful. The first preaching workshop, held in Petit Goave, Haiti in late June, 2014 was attended by over 75 local pastors in the region. We were so very fortunate to hear lectures from Dr. Ed Phillips, Associate Professor of Worship and Liturgical Theology, as well as Rev. Courtney Smith, a graduate student in preaching, both from Candler School of Theology. The three day event brought together leadership from both the Florida Conference and the Haiti Methodist Church and participants were deeply appreciative and complimentary of the event. Since the response was so overwhelmingly positive the two subsequent workshops, originally scheduled for subsequent years in 2015 and 2016, were combined so that all the remaining local pastors from other areas of Haiti would have the opportunity to share in this enriching experience. So in January 2015 we gathered to share the same material with two more groups of pastors from other areas of Haiti. Over 100 local pastors attended these workshops, as well as the leadership from the central offices of the Methodist Church of Haiti, including President Gesner Paul. The two final workshops were held back to back in early January 2015 to accommodate the schedules of the Candler faculty in attendance, and were held at the College Freres Campus in Petionville. Again the events were very well received.

While the development of new covenant relationships on a church to church basis in the last year has slowed, we have made tremendous progress in establishing deeper connections and relationships with Haiti leadership. One very real, but unforeseen benefit of the preaching events was the ability to meet the vast majority of local pastors in Haiti and interact with them in a short period of time, something which would have been difficult to impossible otherwise. We are thankful to the Institute of Preaching for their help in making these events possible, and to Greg Harford from the Conference Staff who labored tirelessly along with Sharon Harbottle in Haiti to prepare and implement the many details of the workshops.

We hope that in the coming year the connections we have made will develop in greater collaborative ministry between our churches, pastors and conferences.

Pam Carter, Chairperson

HISPANIC ASSEMBLY

Blessings in the Name of our Savior:

The Executive Committee of the Hispanic Assembly is honored to report during the year 2014 many miracles were witnessed by the Hispanic faith community and our Annual Conference brothers and sisters. Last year, and during Annual Conference (AC), the Hispanic Assembly presented a resolution in reference to the DREAM Act of 2012 (DREAMER) students and their inability to obtain grants and student loans from the Global Board of Higher Education and Ministry (GBHEM) due to their legal status in the US. After the resolution was approved, it was sent to Bishop James E. Dorff and the Board members. On November 24, 2014, GBHEM changed their application process to included DREAMER students from our congregations affording them the opportunity to attend colleges and universities. To date, 15 DREAMER students from all of the US were able to apply for the GBHEM grants and loans

The Academia Latino-Hispana of the Florida Conference prepared laity and clergy in biblical, theological and administrative areas which provided tools for developing new leadership in our Conference. In 2014, a total of 965 students took courses in three campuses. The Academia, with facilitators from the Hispanic Ministries National Plan, provided training for Modular Courses I, II, and III in South Florida. Clergy and laity from Florida, Michigan, Pennsylvania and North Carolina participated in these trainings and became facilitators of the modules. During the 2014 AC, Bishop Ken Carter recognized the certification of 14 new Lay Missionaries that completed their modules. The new graduates provide the AC with more talent able to work with the Hispanic communities around the State of Florida.

The Academia has many goals for the coming years. Of which, one is to bring the Course of Study to South Florida with the intention to be accessible to local pastors as well as other Spanish speaking members belonging to other conferences. In addition, Academia has a goal to open more campuses in South Florida and in the South West district as well.

During 2014, several retreats and workshops took place in Central and South Florida, with outstanding attendance. Topics covered included, but were not limited to, Advent, Lent, and Social Justice. The Family Camp celebrated at the L.E.C. in Leesburg, Florida was outstanding where more than 421 brothers and sisters were in attendance. The Rev. Victor Gonzalez from the Cuba Annual Conference was the facilitator and he developed a spiritual revival and bonding for the attendees. The youth group had their own activities within the Family Camp retreat which was a blessing for them. Many of them gave their lives to the Lord and the Spirit filled the place with His presence.

In 2015 the Youth representative of the Hispanic Assembly will be exploring the Spanglish program at the California-Pacific Annual Conference. This program is targeted for young students between the ages of 14 to 25 and who are from third and fourth generation Hispanics born in the US. Spanglish will fill up the generational gap between the Anglo and Hispanic cultures and the program is set to go live in late 2015.

Work continues for His Kingdom through the expansion of sources, training and equipping servants for His mission. We thank God for having a connectional ministry and for the help from the AC, our Bishop and his Cabinet as well.

In His Service,
Rev. Cesar J. Villafaña, O.S.L.
President, Hispanic Assembly

HISPANIC MINISTRY TEAM

The Hispanic Ministry Team is committed to develop new ministries for the Hispanic – Latino communities as per the Comprehensive Plan.

To accomplish this goal, during 2014 the HMT continued focusing on the training of our Hispanic – Latino pastors and laity leadership through the “Academia Hispano – Latina”

In 2014, the first group of 30+ laity leaders completed the requisites to become Lay Missioners. Also in 2014, a group of 12+ pastors completed the requisites to be certified as National Plan Facilitators. The initial purpose for equipping these groups of laity leaders and pastors is to strengthen our existing missions and congregations in areas such worship and liturgy, Bible, theology and administration among other courses.

In 2014, we participated in the National Hispanic Caucus MARCHA (Methodist Associated Representing the Cause of Hispanic Americans). In the meeting, the MARCHA membership voted on the resolution to organize a caucus that will represent the Hispanic – Latino missions and congregations in the South East Jurisdiction of the United States of America. The Hispanic Ministry have been involved in the development of this caucus.

Also in 2014, the Hispanic Ministry Team have attended all of the Hispanic Assembly meetings and supported all of their events throughout 2014.

In 2015, we will continue to discern in other opportunities for our Hispanic – Latino ministries.

In Christ,
Gustavo A. Betancourt

IMAGINE NO MALARIA

From the moment we kicked off Imagine No Malaria in The Florida Annual Conference last June, we knew God was going to do some amazing things around this Annual Conference!

FLUMC is the 32nd Annual Conference in The United Methodist Church to join the effort in stopping the preventable disease, Malaria. Imagine No Malaria is the effort of our denomination to raise $75 Million by General Conference 2016. From the official kick off in 2010, we have surpassed $65 Million!

The Imagine No Malaria campaign in The United Methodist Church began at the 2008 General Conference as a continued effort of the Nothing But Nets campaign with Sports Illustrated and The NBA.

Approximately 60% of United Methodists have participated in some way with Imagine No Malaria. This has become the largest mission we've set a goal on! It's an exciting time for United Methodism as we desire to see an end of malaria in our lifetime!

As United Methodists here in Florida, we cannot wait any longer. There is an urgency with malaria: one person dies every minute as this disease affects mainly the hardest to reach and poorest people in Africa. In the Sub-Saharan parts of Africa, 75% of Africans are infected every year. What is difficult to understand is that over 90% of deaths are children under 5 and pregnant women. Many parents do not name their children until the children reach 5 years of age because the parents know just how deadly malaria is.

Shortly before Annual Conference 2014, individuals with a passion for Imagine No Malaria were selected to lead our Conference's effort with Imagine No Malaria. Our Steering Committee presented a goal to the Annual Conference of 250,000 lives saved (based off $10 buying an insecticide treated bed nets).

Here are some interesting facts since last Annual Conference:

1. 72% of churches in Florida have officially signed on to raise money, pray faithfully, or spread awareness about Imagine No Malaria as of March 2015!
2. Churches have officially pledged to save 63,439 lives (and many are saving even more!)
3. The average church goal is to save 132 lives from malaria.

This is great news! However, we are encouraging churches to continue with the efforts, even if a goal is surpassed. Many churches across the country have integrated Imagine No Malaria into a long-term funded mission of the church.

What are some ways to continue to live into the call for Imagine No Malaria?

- Save more lives! Join the Impact 100 club! (Go to imagineflorida.org for more info on Impact 100)
- Add Imagine No Malaria to your church's calendar each month and have a special activity. (imagineflorida.org has ideas!)
- Prayerfully consider a doubling or tripling of your original goal. (Many churches have already done this!)
- Incorporate the children and youth ministries to participate! (Ideas for children/youth are found at imagineflorida.org)
- Remember, 100% of donations go to save lives!
- Pray for the families in Africa who are losing loved ones to this preventable disease. Pray and ask God for direction in ways to be the church as it relates to Imagine No Malaria.

Our Florida United Methodist Churches are gaining momentum!

Here are some examples of how God is at work in our Conference:

1. Harris Chapel UMC pastor, Juana Jordan preached about casting our net to the other side of the boat. The congregation was encouraged to try new things in ministry and trust in God. In one Sunday, Harris Chapel surpassed their total goal of saving 100 lives by saving over 130! Great work Harris Chapel!

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

2. First UMC in Mt. Dora has a young man who has committed to saving 100 lives through his public high school by raising money and awareness. Because of their success so far, Mt. Dora UMC increased their goal from saving 500 lives to 7,500. With God, ALL things are possible!
3. First UMC in Lake Wales has participated in parades, local service clubs, hosted open movie nights, and is committed to inviting their community to Imagine No Malaria as they seek to save 1,000 lives! First UMC Lake Wales has a “Never Give Up” attitude!

Lastly, I personally wish to thank Kylie Foley, our Conference Field Coordinator for Imagine No Malaria who never gives up and has a profound passion for Imagine No Malaria and sharing God’s love to all. I would also like to thank Bishop Ken Carter and Clarke Campbell-Evans for their incredible support in this campaign. I also would like to thank our wonderfully talented Steering Committee for their commitment and determination to see this campaign through. Lastly, I wish to thank our District Superintendents, District Representatives, District staff members and our churches who have supported this mission and ministry that we share together as United Methodists.

To God be the glory for what God is doing in The Florida Annual Conference and Imagine No Malaria!
Rev. Jeffrey St. Clair, Steering Committee Chair, Imagine No Malaria

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMITTEE

The Florida Annual Conference Social Justice Committee was established at the 2014 Annual Conference. This committee was birthed from the former Global Missions and Justice Conference Committee. Now two committees – Conference Missions and Conference Social Justice – are able to focus on their specific ministry initiatives and action items as well as partner the committees’ work when opportunities arise.

The Conference Social Justice Committee has spent their inaugural year intentionally discerning the vision and the work to which this body has been called. We hear God’s call to motivate members of the Florida Annual Conference in their response and ability to respond to social justice concerns in our immediate communities, in our conference, in our nation, and in our world. We seek to motivate these responses by lamenting social injustices that cripple God’s people, by listening to the stories of those who have been harmed, by learning from those who have walked paths of hardship and restoration, and by leading our conference in educated, intentional, and prayerful responses to help transform social injustices into justice of all God’s people.

The Conference Social Justice Committee desires to attend to our work with a committee membership that is representative of the beloved community of our conference and we are working alongside the Conference Committee on Nominations to make this desire our reality.

The Conference Social Justice Committee launched Will They Know: A Social Justice Blog of Florida United Methodists during 2014. The purpose of the blog is to provide space for reflection and dialogue on social justice passions and concerns of the clergy and laity in our Annual Conference. Members of the committee, clergy, laity, and conference staff, including Bishop Ken Carter, contributed devotional posts. We felt this blog could be the first of many offerings from the Committee to the Annual Conference to help raise awareness, stir conversation, and lead our Annual Conference in Christ-like responses to matters of justice.

The Conference Social Justice Committee is committed to taking the necessary time to fully discern and fully develop our vision and the scope of our work. I am immeasurably grateful for the guidance and presence of Rev. Clarke Campbell-Evans and Rev. Dr. Harold Lewis on our committee. I am thankful for the faith-filled members of this committee, for their boldness in responding to God’s call towards justice in their lives, and for their partnership in our work together. I look with great joy towards where God is leading out committee and trust that as we live this life and lead our Annual Conference that we will embody the hope imbued in John Wesley’s Catholic Spirit, “Though we cannot think alike, may we not love alike? May we not be of one heart, though we are not of one opinion? Without all doubt, we may.”

Rev. Sarah B. Miller; Chair, Conference Committee on Social Justice

SUMMER MISSION INTERN PROGRAM

Forty young adults served in community outreach ministries across Florida last summer as part of the Conference's Summer Mission Intern Program. The outreach ministries included CROS Ministries in Palm Beach County, Grace Place for Children and Families in Naples, Branches United Methodist Mission in Florida City, Riverside Retreat in LaBelle, and Centenary Camp in Quincy. Many of the interns served in cross-cultural settings. They engaged issues of poverty through relationship-building, dialogue and critical thinking, prayer, and reflection. The words of one intern summarize the overall purpose of this valuable program: "This internship has really opened my eyes not only to the needs of the people of this world but also how much God works and shows through those needs."

The program also provided opportunities for interns to experience spiritual growth and evaluate personal growth. They gathered daily for prayer and devotion and weekly for worship and reflection. The site supervisors and the program director checked in with each intern on a weekly basis, providing ongoing support for the interns to share and process through their experiences, to encourage them in their goals, and to assist them in problem-solving and transforming conflict.

The Summer Mission Intern Program continues to grow and develop each year. As we look to the future, our continued goals are to create a culture of mission interns, to develop leadership opportunities among them, and to guide young adults toward a lifetime of missional engagement.

COMMITTEE ON NATIVE AMERICAN MINISTRIES (CONAM)

The Committee on Native American Ministries was formed in September 2005.

Our Mission Statement reads:

- To communicate the Gospel of Jesus Christ to Native American people in a culturally relevant way and disciple them in a culturally affirming way
- To encourage Christ-centered worship in a culturally redemptive way
- To facilitate the presence of Native Americans in the wider church, in a culturally appropriate way

Our Current Goals include:

- Continuing to make available a place for native people to receive teaching and fellowship that is culturally relevant to them, through our Annual Gatherings

We just hosted our Tenth Annual Native American Ministry Gathering at the Life Enrichment Center, Leesburg, April 17-19, with over 70 in attendance, many being repeat attendees from previous years. Our guest speaker was Casey Church. Casey is a member of the Potawatomi Tribe of Michigan. He is a contextual minister, traditional coil pottery artist, and the director of Wiconi, Intern'l. Also, with us was Pedro Zepeda. Pedro is a member of the Seminole Tribe of Florida. He is a traditional artist, cultural presenter and living historian. The Theme for the Gathering was "The Journey of Hole in the Clouds."

- Encouraging each charge to appoint a Native American ministry representative from within their congregation; this is a "shall have" in the Book of Discipline, (para. 654).
- Promoting the observance of Native American Ministries Sunday throughout the Conference; this is one of the "special Sunday offerings" in the Book of Discipline (para. 263) Monies received from Native American Ministry Sunday offerings are the CONAM's only source of financial support.
- Supporting the development of American Indian Christian Circles

These are groups of native people meeting in UM churches, who volunteer to open their doors. At this time, we have two of these congregations, one meeting at the Thonotosassa UMC and one meeting at the Mascotte UMC and we are in the process of establishing another in the Tallahassee area. These circles are places where Native Americans can participate in Christ-centered worship, in the native way, and hear biblically based teaching that is culturally relevant.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

- Making ourselves available to UM churches throughout the Conference to assist in their ministry with native persons and to raise awareness regarding Native issues, culture, and traditions.
- Networking with native pastors and other Native American ministries, around the conference and throughout North America, to bring support and help in whatever way we can.
- Participating in and supporting the work of the South East Jurisdictional Association on Native American Ministries (SEJANAM), Lake Junaluska, NC. by attending conferences and lending a hand in the ministry. Members of CONAM have led worship, taught workshops, and helped with various needs during these annual conferences.
- Attending Native American events around the conference, where we reach out through developing relationships, friendship evangelism, etc. Two events that we attend each year are the Bushnell Powwow, in September and the Silverhawk Flute Gathering, in October.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all of the UM Churches who give to this ministry with their Special Sunday Offerings, each year. We could not continue to minister to the Native American people within our conference without your help.

For more information on the work of this committee or if you would like someone from the Florida CONAM to share in your church service or event, please contact Vickie Swartz, Chair, at 941-544-6951.

UNITED METHODIST VOLUNTEERS IN MISSION

UMVIM Florida began 2014 with more and more churches connecting with us for their insurance needs. Our UMVIM Florida vision is to transform the world through short-term Christian mission experiences and our mission is to equip, empower and encourage the local church to experience missions. More and more we are becoming a resource that our churches are connecting with, as we build stronger relationships. In 2014, the Florida Conference sent 152 UMVIM Teams, up from 112 to 26 countries with a total of 1555 missionaries. In addition, 14 teams registered and went on Domestic trips with a total of 236 missionaries. We had 73 volunteers from 15 churches received in depth training on how to lead a team on mission.

The UMVIM Leadership Team continues to serve God by serving others through the service of each UMVIM Team.

COMMISSION ON RELIGION AND RACE

¹⁸ Little children, let's not love with words or speech but with action and truth. ¹⁹ This is how we will know that we belong to the truth and reassure our hearts in God's presence. (CEB)

The Conference Commission on Religion and Race (CCORR) over the past seven years has worked diligently to advocate for racial diversity in the Florida Annual Conference. I give thanks for the members of the CORR who have served faithfully as we struggled with issues of exclusivity and perhaps worse, indifference.

CCORR renewed our commitment to inclusivity and justice at a meeting in September of 2008. The important work re-educating ourselves on methods, processes, and available resources began in earnest. The ripples of CORR efforts, as we prepared to provide advocacy and leadership in the Florida Conference are:

The ongoing review of the 2003 GCORR Annual Review to address key areas of concern.

In 2014 CCORR reviewed and revised our Mission and Organization statement to reflect the model recommended by the General Commission of Religion and Race and approved by 2012 General Conference.

The revision includes specific guidance concerning the reporting of discrimination concerns and dissemination of the CCORR RACIAL/ETHNIC GRIEVANCE REPORT FORM.

Complaints of racial discrimination made by clergy and laity continue to be a reality. CCORR is dedicated to monitoring complaints and will address through consultation with the Bishop and other appropriate leadership to investigate and assist in resolution.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

Our purpose and mission is to work with the Conference boards, agencies, districts and local congregations to promote and develop cultural/racial inclusiveness throughout the whole of the church.

Our work is accomplished through education and training, monitoring and consulting with the Conference boards, agencies, districts and local congregations to provide awareness and opportunities for inclusion and to assist with reviewing practices and policies that may create barriers to the promotion of diversity and inclusiveness.

The Conference Committee on Religion and Race recognize that The Bishop and the Cabinet hold the key in providing this annual conference with guidelines for cross-racial and cross-cultural appointments. As well as continued leadership, along with District Superintendents, in ensuring diversity in selection of the various members of conference and district committees, boards and agencies.

The work of CCORR this year continues to focus on working closely with Conference, District and Local Church leadership to promote inclusivity. CCORR will work closely with the Director of Justice & Multicultural Ministries, as well as collaborating with The Committee on the Status and Role of Women (COSROW) to monitor organizational policies, practices and systems with the goal of truly reflecting the Beloved Community intend by our Creator, an inclusive community.

Thank you on behalf of the members of the Florida Conference Commission on Religion and Race.

JUSTICE FOR OUR NEIGHBORS

South Florida Justice for Our Neighbors began its services as a ministry of the South East District on July 1, 2014. With our office located at Redland Community United Methodist Church in Homestead, S FL JFON provides free immigration legal services and holds monthly clinics staffed by SFL JFON attorney, volunteer attorneys, and other volunteers. South Florida Justice for Our Neighbors is a part of a network of United Methodist immigration legal services ministries. We were honored to host The National Justice For Our Neighbors Board of Directors at clinic held on February 16. With members of the National Board volunteering alongside our local attorney and volunteers, we served 13 clients that evening, six of whom being newly registered clients. At this clinic, we received two unaccompanied alien minors from Guatemala as clients. The National Board of Justice for Our Neighbors awarded S FL JFON a grant of 10,000 to support our work with unaccompanied minors. FL Bar attorney Roland Robinson is able to represent these clients in family court, an often important step in helping them obtain legal status in the United States. In January we were able to hire Peter Nelson, a young adult who will enter law school in the fall, to assist SFL JFON in serving our clients and reaching out to the community.

We currently have 37 registered clients for the year 2015, and meet with 3-4 clients per week through individual consultations at Redlands Community UMC. Of the opened cases, 2 are seeking adjustment of status from Us, Several are filing relative petitions, and several are in Removal hearings before the Immigration judge. Others are seeking Naturalization or Permanent Residence based on the Cuban adjustment Act.

SFL Justice for Our Neighbors is thankful for the financial support of individuals, The Florida Conference, and the SE and AC Districts.

YOUNG ADULT MISSIONAL MOVEMENT

Building upon the legacy of camps, conferences, children's education, youth ministries and campus ministries, the Young Adult Missional Movement (YAMM) has set out to extend our discipleship and leadership development throughout the years of young adulthood.

We seek to identify, recognize, gather & encourage all expressions of young adults in missional service in the Florida Conference. We look to provide support in the way of coaching, encouraging and connecting young adults together, to exchange best practices, prevent mistakes, support spiritual development and facilitate reflection, action and growth.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

Young adults 18-30 years old are given the opportunity to share the love of God while mutually giving and receiving cross-culturally with neighbors within micro-missional communities. This is experienced through meaningful work, intentional and cooperative Christian living and community engagement.

The work began with an exploratory team of interested and knowledgeable members. Once need and desire had been established, the work moved to a design & launch team. The team gathered monthly from the winter of 2014 and saw the program through the fall launch and stabilization currently. The goals set for the first year were exceeded. Now the work will move to a steering committee. With a designated chair, cross-conference support and multiple layers of skills, gifts and interests, the steering committee will oversee systemization and solidification of policies, procedures and best practices.

In the first year, thirteen young adults began service in the fall of 2014. These thirteen lived in three houses of three, six and four persons. Jacksonville, Orlando and Pinellas Park became our first three hosting communities. For various reasons, three young adults have had to leave the program. In January 2015, three more began service, joining the Jacksonville team. Currently, there are thirteen individuals serving in the micro-missional communities.

In other locations across the state, young adults are choosing a life of service and intentional living. Within Miami Dade alone there are six houses of young adults committed to common worship and service. In Immokalee and North Tampa there are beginnings of small experiments. In Melbourne, there is an all-male house. These did not and do not require conference oversight, however, may all expressions of young adults choosing a life of meaning service be blessed and cared for.

Prayer and planning hope to see the expansion of the program to five sites and twenty-eight participants for the fall of 2015. The fiscal goal of the program is to be self-sufficient and free of apportionment fund support by the end of the second program year.

It is our prayer that mission service becomes the normal and natural step beyond education for all young adults. Through cross-cultural community engagement we will develop an abundance of leaders both in our clergy and lay ministries. We will build vibrant communities, increase the space of young adult leadership, serve alongside communities across our conference and we will constantly, consistently, and creatively keep the fellowship of Christ relevant.

On behalf of the Steering Committee, Chairperson, Rachel Sumner

OUTREACH MINISTRIES

The Bible is full of action words – go, proclaim, feed, welcome, heal, serve. The Outreach Ministries of the Florida Annual Conference help churches put their faith into action by serving the hungry, the homeless, children and families, immigrants and others in need. The ministries include:

Branches - formerly South Florida Urban Ministries (South East District) serves, educates and inspires people through student, family and financial stability services in partnership with churches and communities. We fulfill our mission by engaging children, youth and adults with life-changing opportunities for them to become better educated, to become more financially stable and secure, to make long-term, positive life choices and to know God.

Church and Community Connection (East Central District) supports the efforts of local congregations as they develop outreach ministries to meet critical needs within their communities, especially those efforts addressing hunger and children in poverty. CCC also works to create new partnerships by connecting churches to their neighborhoods, community organizations, and other congregations.

Christians Reaching Out To Society (Atlantic Central District) serves those who are hungry through community collaborations. CROS partners with congregations to share God's love through food pantries, hot meals, after school snacks, home delivered meals, summer camps, a weekend food backpack program and gleaning fresh produce from fields. CROS also serves as an advocate and catalyst working on justice ministries.

Community Outreach Ministry (North East District) is committed to training and equipping a mighty force of followers of Jesus who are transforming our neighborhoods through prayer-walking our streets, partnering with our schools through mentoring and other important services, providing emergency services of mercy to those in desperate need, advocating for the justice of all who are oppressed, and witnessing about Jesus in the power of the Holy Spirit to the un-churched, de-churched and over-churched people in our midst.

Cornerstone Family Ministries (South Central District) works to make a lasting and positive impact on disadvantaged children and their families by nurturing bodies, developing minds, and fostering hope through Christ. This ministry works with 136 early childhood learning centers throughout the South Central and Gulf Central districts with a particular focus on providing access for low income children to nutritious food and connecting those centers that are not already connected with a local church. In addition, this ministry is one of only two UMW National Missions institutions in the state. In addition to this missions nutrition outreach, the Rosa Valdez Early Childhood Learning Center and Lab School has served poor infants, toddlers and preschool aged children in Tampa's inner-city since 1892. The ministry served over 28,000 children living at or below the poverty level and facilitated the serving of over 4,000,000 nutritious meals in 2014.

Grace Place for Children and Families (South West District) puts faith into action – providing pathways out of poverty by educating children and families. Grace Place provides programs in early childhood development, after school and summer youth development programs, adult English language classes, parenting and family literacy.

Halifax Urban Ministry (East Central District) works to prevent homelessness by providing food, financial help and other support services to those at risk of becoming homeless. We intervene on behalf of homeless people to sustain, stabilize and shelter them, with the goal of helping them achieve independence.

Justice For Our Neighbors (Central Florida) offers welcome to immigrants by providing legal immigration services, education and advocacy in monthly clinics in three Central Florida locations.

United Methodist Cooperative Ministries of Madison County (North West District) works with the rural communities of Madison County on elder programs, hunger ministries and sending children to camp. The Thrift Store performs a vital community service by offering low-cost items and giving items to meet a variety of needs.

UMCM Suncoast (Gulf Central District) works to alleviate the symptoms and address the causes of poverty through service, education and advocacy. It provides four Centers for Early Learning, adult English language and family literacy classes, citizenship classes, homelessness prevention, rapid re-housing and feeding programs.

Please contact your closest Outreach Minister for assistance in connecting to ministries in your community that can make a difference and share the love of Christ.

OFFICE OF CONGREGATIONAL VITALITY

NEW CHURCH DEVELOPMENT

Collaboration and progression are the two most descriptive terms for the 2014-15 Conference Year in New Church Development (NCD). Collaborative work with multiple ministries and organizations coupled with a progression into our Strategic Plan resulted in progress toward our Congregational Vitality vision of using our resources to create “a sustainable culture of vitality as measured by a 20% increase in the number of healthy congregations within our Conference by 2019.”

The collaborative work included the following:

With the Appointive Cabinet:

- Agreed to a coordinated conference wide closed property sales and management process utilizing outside specialists in those fields.
- Agreed to create a combined fund of District NCD assets to be budgeted and distributed by the appointive Cabinet in consultation with the Director of NCD.
- Agreed to reorganize the roles of the Conference Congregational Vitality and District NCD committees to encourage more “dreaming and visioning” at the District level.
- Agreed to standards for appointment of future new start pastors including completion of the New Church Start Academy and aptitude assessments

With the Strategic Leadership Team:

- Met in a retreat format to develop recommendations that align NCD resources with the Conference Mission and Vision, including those listed above.
- Began work to refine the NCD Strategic plan in light of these recommendations

With Board of Higher Education and Campus Ministry:

- In cooperation with The Trustees and the Appointive Cabinet, developed a plan for the use of 10% of closed church sale proceeds to fund the critically needed construction at FSU-Wesley.
- Began planning for a combined new church-new campus ministry joint venture.

With the Florida United Methodist Foundation:

Since its beginning in July of 2013 a loan restructuring program has been implemented in partnership with the Florida United Methodist Foundation. At the program’s beginning NCD loans totaled $12,279, 771. It is projected that the NCD Loan Portfolio will be reduced to less than $2.5 Million by year end 2015, positioning NCD for higher returns on investment which will increase funding for future new ministries.

In cooperation with the Conference Investment Committee repositioned the assets of NCD (held by the Foundation) for higher long term returns.

As we live our way into the NCD strategic plan, seven pre-chartered new starts met their benchmarks and continue to receive funding: Engage Online, North Naples; Inglesio Metodista Unida Nuevo Pacto; New Covenant Lake Deaton Campus; The Collective, First Deland; The Five at University Carillon; The Portico, a Ministry of Hyde Park and Vessel at University Carillon. Additionally, 20 Mission churches (defined as those serving in impoverished areas as distinguished from the Discipline’s definition of mission as any pre-chartered church start) received support through NCD. Restarted under a new format will be The Foundry, a second site of St. Petersburg First. Two ministry starts, Ametros in Miami and Restoration in Jacksonville, were discontinued. Currently three new starts are planned for the coming year, with two others deferred until appropriate leadership is developed.

The year also saw the implementation of two new programs:

- Two pre-chartered churches, Good Samaritan Tallahassee and Celebration Gainesville were selected for 2nd Tier/Boost Funding. This is a new program to provide support for churches on the cusp of chartering who need specialized staff to energize growth. Harvest Lakewood Ranch became the first recipient of funds for a program designed to prepare pastors to develop second sites.

In 2014 NCD began operating under new funding arrangements. Under the new plan payments to support New Ministries in 2014 were $886,598.00, an increase of $64,634.00, totally funded by investment earnings rather than apportionment dollars. While implementing this plan over the eighteen month period June 30, 2013 through December 31, 2014, net NCD Assets grew from $16,039,501 to $16,394,672.

Finally, 2014 was the inception of the New Church Start Academy. Twenty pastors participated in twelve days of instruction spread over 4 separate sessions. The topics covered were: The Pastor’s Spiritual Health and Life; Creating a Discipleship Process; Lay Leadership Development; Connecting to the Mission Field; Creating a Culture of Generosity; Entrepreneurship; Vision and Leadership. The plan is for the group to continue to meet quarterly for continuing education. A new group will begin their experience in September of 2015.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

In summary it has been a year of advancement for New Church Development in partnership with many other ministries of the Annual Conference. With God's grace guiding us, we will continue to advance The Kingdom of God together.

In the Peace of Christ,

Larry A. Taylor, Chair

Rev. Dan Jackson, Director, New Church Development

CONGREGATIONAL VITALITY

Congregational Vitality (CV) has been fulfilling its purpose, "To lead the Conference's efforts in creating more vital congregations, both new and existing." This has been through various approaches. The first approach is rebuilding and repurposing the district CV teams. We provided a foundation to those teams with the CV vision and purpose and taught the use of tools to assist in assessment of church vitality. We advised each district CV team to form a deploy team comprised of people with specific talents as a resource to work with a local church in a targeted area. Each district superintendent has then structured their CV teams to meet the unique context of their district. Keeping the CV teams trained, utilized, and equipped as an asset to the district superintendent will be an ongoing pursuit.

Another approach toward the purpose is launching the Learning Communities with Teaching Churches, Mentoring Churches, and Enhanced E-Learning. The plan is to roll out about five teaching initiatives per year over the next three years. These will be churches with a known giftedness who will host a weekend learning event followed with six months of connection via monthly, 30-minute webinars. The purpose of the webinars is to highlight a topic from the event, share successes and struggles, and to encourage. This will be a learning community working together to implement what was learned at the live event with a higher probability of effectiveness.

Mentoring Churches will be matched (by the district office and/or the CV team) with another local church having specific, short-term request for mentoring in a defined area, such as worship, hospitality, thrift stores, etc. This is intended to be a three month match working more intensively for a month and two months of follow up. Using our United Methodist connection, we want to be purposeful in resourcing our local churches with the assistance of a nearby church.

The enhanced E-Learning is currently in process with several videos recorded of topics frequently requested by district leadership training events. We will utilize videos and webinars throughout various connections for specific church leadership roles in the local church. This allows a church to provide training that is consistent and accessible anytime. Each year, depending on the budget availability, we will add more quality learning on demand videos.

BOARD OF LAY MINISTRY

REPORT OF CONFERENCE LAY LEADER

Jesus taught us to love God with all of our heart, soul, and mind; and to love our neighbor as ourselves. In 2nd Peter 3:18 (NIV), we read “But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and forever! Amen” From Matthew 28:19, we read that Jesus said “go and make disciples.” Two years ago we encouraged you to make a friend with a young adult. Likewise, if you were a young adult we asked you to find someone older than you and offer friendship. Hundreds of you came forward with the name of the person God had given you and placed that name written on a card in a basket beneath the cross. Since then, Rachael, Derrick and I have been preaching and teaching this across the Conference, and older and younger adults have been witnessing in their congregations and districts about their Christ centered intergenerational relationships. That was a first step in the development of a deep and trusting relationship between two or more of God’s creation who could invest in each other, learn from each other, hold one another accountable, and share in a constellation of mentoring with many ages, experience levels, and interests. God has called us, young and old, to be his witnesses, love one another, develop and mentor emerging disciples.

I have seen the way the Holy Spirit moves in and among believers and nonbelievers in these relationships through fellowship, prayer, study, accountability, and mission. I have seen churches depending on the Holy Spirit for life and growth experience. There are opportunities for fresh expressions of ministry and discipleship in other venues where young and old are found outside of the walls of the church, but not outside the hearts and abilities of Christ’s disciples, you and me. May we follow the leading of the Holy Spirit in every way we serve, always remembering how Jesus loves everyone and calls each of us to offer grace and biblical truth to each other and to those who do not yet know Christ.

As we approach this election year for delegates of the 2016 General Conference I am reminded of the way we are to develop leaders for tomorrow through the experiences of today. The important work of The United Methodist Church requires that laity and clergy delegates of our Conference be of representative ages, gender, ethnicity, and culture. They are to commit to be prepared for the work, present at each of the pre and post conference meetings, ready to work hard and be diligent over the next two years of their commitment.

As a priesthood of believers we are to reach out to the poor, the lost, and the sick, as we partner with our pastors to lead the church, our community, our districts, our conference and the world. I pray that we will always remember Jesus’ command and commission, and avoid the temptation of the politics that sometimes, inappropriately, misguides our actions.

LAY SERVANT MINISTRIES

Your Florida Conference Lay Servants have been busy this year, involving themselves in a variety of classes and ministries all over the State of Florida. We have had some changes in District Leadership, but all nine directors have been busy with setting up and in some cases teaching classes. And of course, many lay servants throughout the Conference have been involved in many ministries and activities with their churches, their districts, and in some cases with Annual Conference responsibilities as well.

Our Annual Training Event at the LEC last August helped us “To Equip the Saints,” and was a rousing success. We started off with a great plenary address by Bishop Ken Carter, and had a wonderful time, both together at meals and evening activities, as well as in our classes. Rev. Geraldine McClellan taught us a little about preaching—actually, she taught us a lot, but what we absorbed might be a different matter! Rev. Harold Lewis took us on a “Journey into Discipleship,” to help us as churches grow our members into becoming true disciples of Jesus Christ. Rev. Jeanine Clontz reminded us that we are not just about ourselves, but here to help demonstrate and extend God’s grace into the world through “Outreach and Mission through Vital Congregations.” Last, but not least, Dee Allen took us on a more intimate walk with Jesus, learning to grow more intimate with him through her “Introduction to Prayer and Fasting.”

This year we plan on taking what we have learned and extending it forward to “Reach Next Generations.” The Church of Jesus Christ extends backwards and forwards through time and all around the world, so it is our responsibility here and now to “play it forward” by reaching and helping to equip the next generations that are following us. Join us as we look through this lens and learn how to disciple, plant lay missionaries, understand the next generations coming up, and look at some new initiatives being tried here in the Florida Conference and elsewhere. We promise you a time of fun, fellowship, and learning that will touch your heart and soul.

Blessings to all of you,

FLORIDA CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST MEN

For the Florida Conference UMM, 2014-15 was a year of transition and that was the main order of business for the year. One of our main objectives is to keep ourselves looking to the future and to be prepared to minister to men of a newer generation while not forsaking the men who have been faithful partners and participants in the past.

The Board and Conference Committee met in the spring and elected officers for 2015-2016 biennium. There was general acceptance of a set of goals and objectives for 2014 and beyond. The need to recruit new leadership for the Florida Conference UMM was one of the main goals that was highlighted. In addition to the elections, we saw the addition of two new District Presidents who have actively engaged with our organization. Other additions to the Conference Committee were electing a representative of Bethune-Cookman University and a representative of the Life Enrichment Center to that body. Our goals have included working more closely with Bethune-Cookman and the LEC.

In that same vein, Conference Lay Leader Russ Graves has inspired us to join the Bishop’s initiative of “Imagine No Malaria,” with the goal of wiping out malaria worldwide. Florida Conference UMM voted to support an event for this cause to be held at Bethune-Cookman University in January, 2015. Several UMM representatives turned out for that effort. We are looking forward to other opportunities to support that mission.

Both of the Fall Men’s Retreats were successful events that have been modeled after our past retreats featuring speaking, outstanding music and breakout sessions. We saw several men commit their lives to Christ, others rededicating their lives to Christ and many using the altar time to address praises, joys, concerns, and problems.

A new option was added to the retreats that met with guarded success. On Saturday afternoon of each Retreat, our men were offered the opportunity to engage in missional opportunities to be of service in the community around our Life Enrichment Center and at the Center itself. Currently, we are looking at adding other missional opportunities.

We also decided to return to having a Spring retreat in 2015, but with a twist. In the past, our Spring retreats have been held for couples only. This new retreat was billed as a Coed Spiritual Formation Retreat, titled “Spring Time by the Lake,” open to singles as well as couples. We thought it was well accepted and we are planning on continuing this theme. Several other new formats for our retreats are under discussion. We have not given up hope of having Bishop and Mrs. Carter featured at a Spring retreat.

We had an engaging Strategic Thinking Retreat in January, moderated by former Conference Lay Leader Bill Walker, to help set our course for 2015. The Conference Committee also met during the Retreat this Spring to conduct its regular business.

Another opportunity we hope to promote is the availability of Jim Boesch, our 1st Vice President, to consult and provide servant leadership and discipling training opportunities to both clergy and laity of our local churches and district organizations through our Men’s Ministry network. Jim is deployed staff of the GCUMM and is a Men’s Ministry Specialist with a well-respected reputation in that area.

All things considered, 2014 was a critical year for the Florida Conference UMM. We are very excited to see what God has planned for us in the balance of 2015 and beyond.

FLORIDA CONFERENCE UNITED METHODIST WOMEN

United Methodist Women is a lay women's organization whose PURPOSE is to know God and to experience freedom as whole persons through Jesus Christ, to develop a creative supportive fellowship and to expand concepts of mission through participation in the global ministries of the church.

The Florida Conference United Methodist Women mourned the passing of their seated President, Aggie M. Reed who was called to be with the Lord on Thursday, February 26, 2015. We thank God for the leadership Aggie has provided to the organization and to the rest of the church. Her life and ministries were celebrated at Allen Chapel AME Church in Daytona Beach Friday, March 6, 2015. The Leadership Team is very grateful to Bishop Ken Carter, The Rev. Dr. Sharon Austin, The Rev. Dr. Walter Monroe, our Lay Leader, Russ Graves and a number of other clergy and laity from all over the conference for their support during that time of celebration.

We communicate through the "Genesis" the official Florida Conference United Methodist Women publication, our website: <https://sites.google.com/site/flcumw>. Response is the official national magazine. Additional information may be found on the national office website: www.unitedmethodistwomen.org.

Mission u (formerly School of Christian Mission) was held July 10-13, 2014 at Florida Southern College in Lakeland. The theme was "Learn, Pray, Act, Transform - God Makes All Things New" and, the studies were: The Roma of Europe, The Church and People with Disabilities and How Is It with Your Soul? Women, children and youth from around the Conference were in attendance. All newly ordained clergy received an invitation to participate in Mission u with a full scholarship.

The 2014 theme for the Spiritual Enrichment Retreat and Conference Annual Meeting was "Joyful Heart, Joy-filled Life" based on Proverbs 4: 23 "Keep your heart with all vigilance, for from it flow the springs of life" (NRSV). Rev. Denise Sawyer led the Spiritual Enrichment Retreat held at the Life Enrichment Center September 12-14. Yuland Daley was the leader of the mini-Retreat for teens and college/university women.

The 41st Conference Annual Meeting was held at First United Methodist Church, Lakeland November 15, 2014 where we gathered to celebrate our mission work. The keynote speakers were Rev. Steve Springer and Dianne Springer. Rev. Springer formerly served as a Missionary Pastor in the Red Bird Missionary Conference and his wife, Dianne also served as a Missionary in that same Conference. Rev. Dr. Sharon G. Austin installed the newly elected Conference Language Coordinators. Districts, Units and individuals were recognized for their accomplishments in the Reading Program, Mission Studies, as Mission Today Units, Five Star Units and Rainbow Givers. The budget for 2015 was approved. Thanks to all faithful United Methodist Women we exceeded our pledge to mission of $429,000.

Selected Conference Elected Officers and District Presidents attended Leadership Development Days in St. Louis, MO and Tempe, AZ in November sponsored by our National Office.

An inspirational celebration of the fourth Haitian Convocation was held February 21, 2015 at St. John's Haitian United Methodist Church in Boynton Beach, FL.

Children's Advocacy Days, April 13-15, 2015 in Tallahassee, provided an opportunity to meet with legislators, receive information, and advocate for the needs of children. United Methodist Women have been active participants at this event for many years. The Social Action Liaison has been active not only advocating for children, but also on issues of justice for our neighbors, immigration reform, domestic violence, mental health, and human trafficking.

You are invited to the 2015 Mission u at Bethune-Cookman University, July 9-12, 2015. The studies are: Created for Happiness: Understanding Your Life in God, Latin America: People & Faith, and The Church & People with Disabilities. Continuing education credits are offered.

We affirm our PURPOSE, living by Faith, Hope, Love In Action.

MINISTRY OF THE ORDAINED

OFFICE OF CLERGY EXCELLENCE

“For everything there is a season,” writes the author of Ecclesiastes. We heartily celebrate the season of Winnie Dean (Administrative Assistant) and Wanda Byrd (Office Assistant) who faithfully, brilliantly, and generously served the Office of Clergy Excellence with their presence, gifts, and skills for twenty-two and seven years, respectively. We are deeply grateful for their work with us, especially over the course of our critically formational first year as Director and Assistant Director. We bless Winnie as she continues with her position as Administrative Assistant in the Episcopal Office and we bless Wanda as she enjoys the fullness of life in retirement.

We also joyfully welcome the season of our new Administrative Assistant, Holly Finley, who joined the Office of Clergy Excellence in September 2014. Holly is a bright, proactive, organized, highly conscientious, infinitely helpful, warmly courteous, and caring person whose invaluable work already greatly supports and enhances all areas of the Office of Clergy Excellence.

The Office of Clergy Excellence supports and offers resources to the nine District Committees on Ministry and the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry for candidacy certification, licensing, and ordination pathways for those persons called to ordained and licensed ministry in the local church, community, and throughout the world. We also provide Life-long Learning opportunities for our clergy. BOARD OF ORDAINED MINISTRY

Most of the work of the Board of Ordained Ministry involves the applications for licensing, commissioning, and ordination in the Florida Annual Conference. Applicants access the needed documents through the Office of Clergy Excellence and then spend months writing and preparing all that is necessary for their applications to be in order.

Once the applications are submitted, the review teams of the Board of Ordained Ministry review each part of the written work and the sermons or Bible studies presented by video. Board members serve on one of the four review teams: theology, proclamation, leadership or personal growth. In November the Board convenes and each application is given a prayerful and thorough review.

The Board convenes again in January to interview those applicants whose written work has been approved. Board members give a week of their time to focus on this significant work for the church. Lay members of the Board and clergy work together in a collaborative, respectful, open process of discernment.

At Annual Conference we all get to celebrate the culmination of this process at the service of licensing, commissioning and ordination. It is a mountaintop moment of meaning as we worship the God who calls women and men into service.

As Chair of the Board of Ordained Ministry, I am enormously grateful to every person who serves on the Board and gives such a huge amount of time and energy to this important task. For the members of the Executive Committee and other leaders, there is an extra commitment. Each one of them does a wonderful job caring for the people and the process entrusted to us.

To Dr. Wayne Wiatt we owe special gratitude. He resources us incredibly well and has done such outstanding work with all the candidates and the large amount of details needed to keep everything going smoothly. Rwyth Fuquay and Holly Finley do a wonderful job keeping track of all that detail and tending to people who are always most important to us.

MINISTERIAL EDUCATION FUND

The Ministerial Education Fund apportionment supports a fundamental part of the connectional ministry of The United Methodist Church. It enables all local churches throughout the conference to assist persons who are candidates for ministry. With the contributions made by members of the churches during 2013, your Board has been able to assist persons up to $4,000 per semester. This help is often crucial for candidates, many of whom give up other careers to enter the ministry. These are the guidelines which the Ministerial Education Fund committee uses in administering these funds:

Ministerial Education Funds (MEF) will be made available to all certified candidates who are attending seminary. Local Pastors in Course of Study Schools may receive scholarship assistance from MEF, as can persons attending the Licensing School. MEF funds may also be used to provide scholarship assistance to local pastors and deacons, licensed by the Board of Ordained Ministry, who are enrolled in an ACPE-approved CPE program.

MEF continuing education grants will be made available to Diaconal Ministers to help finance their two annual continuing education units on the same basis as such funds are made available to ordained ministers.

Distribution of MEF receipts is 90% for students and 10% for continuing education.

COMMISSION ON EQUITABLE COMPENSATION

The Commission on Equitable Compensation exists to assist churches who are in need of financial support on a short term basis. It is our goal to see transformation come through the implementation of new vision by making disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world. The Commission's purpose is to provide short-term grants that assist in this process of making disciples. These grants are designed to help churches continue in full time ministry as they revise their future, thus helping them to return to a self-supporting status. It is our prayer as a commission, that we can be both a facilitator and an encourager in the ministry of churches in need of short term financial assistance.

GUIDELINES FOR 2016

Equitable Compensation funds will be granted in accordance with the following guidelines. Only the Equitable Compensation Commission at the request of a District Superintendent may grant exceptions.

Who is qualified to receive minimum salary funds?

All full-time pastors who are not excluded in Section 2.

Ministers serving full time pastoral assignments with an average attendance of 100 in worship. If a congregation falls below 100 in average worship attendance, the first year the maximum support will be reduced by 10%. If the congregation continues to have less than 100 in worship for 3 years, consideration will be given to the church becoming part of a circuit or part-time if the church wants to remain eligible for Equitable Compensation Funding. The exceptions are student appointments and part-time pastors.

Who is not eligible for minimum salary support?

All pastors who are retired.

Part-time pastors are not eligible for minimum salary support except in those cases where ministry within the discretion of the District Superintendent and Cabinet warrant special support. The amount of support available will not exceed 50% of the amount available on a full-time basis.

Full time appointments with less than 100 in average worship attendance.

Ministers on Leave of Absence.

Associate Pastors.

Any ordained conference member not under pastoral appointment.

Those who are appointed from other Annual Conferences under Disciplinary appointment of ¶¶346.1 and 346.2.

The maximum allowable salary support is 20% of minimum salary. To be eligible, a pastor must live in the bounds of his/her parish and give full-time service to that charge. Studies pursued in an approved college or university is considered part of the work of the ministry if approved by the District Superintendent.

Applications for Equitable Compensation funds are submitted twice a year and must be received by the Conference office on or before November 1st and April 1st.

The November 1st application must include:

The signature of the Chairperson of the Staff Parish Relations Committee.

A Vision and Mission statement as envisioned by the whole body of the church.

A Written Ministry Plan for implementing the Vision and Mission statement into the life of the church. A summary of the measurable goals accomplished to date as reflected in Evangelism, Worship, and Outreach.

A Treasurers report, including all assets, for the current year to date status of the financial condition of the church.

A request for funds by the Charge Conference and the signature of the District Superintendent.

A copy of the congregations Stewardship Commitment Plan.

Summary of the Measurable Goals accomplished to date as reflected in Evangelism, Worship, and Outreach.

The April 1st application (if not submitted the previous November must include all of the above requirements) may be completed by the District Superintendent without the accompanying forms and submitted to the Conference office. The Equitable Comp committee will meet by conference call review these extensions and new requests.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

All congregations receiving Equitable Compensation Grants must renew their application by the April 1st deadline. Please use the application form found at www.flumc.org and note on the application “A Request for Renewal” for the current funding year.

Any new request must include a cover letter by the District Superintendent naming the missional strategy involved in the request and the timeline during which this funding would be needed.

Additional support, up to $2000, is available for “Missional Congregations.” “Chartered Churches” with documented outreach to the poor, through service and evangelism may also apply for “Missional” support, with the approval of the District Superintendent. The church must be receiving an Equitable Compensation grant in order to be eligible for this additional support.

Before a church is granted salary support, the church must conduct, or agree to conduct, a Stewardship Commitment plan.

Assistance may not be received from both Missional Funds and New Church Development Funds. Assistance may not be received from both Minimum Salary Support Funds and New Church Development Funds.

Churches whose salary support is at “The Minimum” may apply for assistance with utilities, health insurance, or moving expenses. Churches/missions must submit a plan for ministry when making an initial application for equitable compensation funds. This plan must demonstrate the need for assistance and the manner in which the church/mission will be working to eliminate that need in a timely way.

Churches/missions may receive the requested assistance for up to five years. In year six (6) the original request will be reduced by 25%; in year seven (7) by 50%; in year eight (8) 75%. There will be no assistance granted after the eighth year.

Any funds granted to those churches approved, will first have to pay any outstanding balances owed to the Florida Conference. Those items that must be paid in full include:

Health Insurance premiums
Property and Casualty premiums
Pension premiums
Workers Compensation premiums
“The Clergy Support” line item from apportionments.

The approved funds from the grant will be used to pay the balances of any outstanding debt and the balance of the funds will come to the church.

Reimbursement Accounts:

Charges receiving Equitable Compensation Funds may establish a reimbursement account up to $2000.

Salary reduction for pension purposes:

Clergy receiving Equitable Compensation funds may designate a portion of their compensation to the “Before Tax” contribution for the pension program.

ADDITIONAL EQUITABLE COMPENSATION INFORMATION AND REQUIREMENTS

Missional Congregations:

Missional situations are those missions or organized churches in areas which demand an effective ministry but are not financially capable of providing such ministries without Conference assistance. There will be an annual review by the District Superintendent, to determine if each Missional situation in the district meets the guidelines.

The Equitable Compensation Commission may provide amounts up to $2,000 for Missional support, and an additional $2,000 may be granted for Haitian and Hispanic congregations in exceptional circumstances. Request for salary support from Equitable Compensation Commission for Missional situations shall be made by November 1st and April 1st and shall accompany the Equitable Compensation Request form.

Eligibility for extended Missional support

A mission must meet the following criteria to receive extended support and will be annually reviewed to determine continued compliance until they are able to establish independence. Chartered congregations are not eligible.

Provide evidence that the mission has a vision statement, rooted in the Great Commission, which actually functions to shape the decisions about deployment of people and financial resources in ministry.

Provide evidence that the pastor exerts effective leadership in casting and realizing the vision.

Provide evidence of the mission's effectiveness in making and growing disciples.

The mission makes a number of new disciples (first time professions of faith or "restorations") at least equal to 10% of its average worship attendance.

The mission has a system of nurturing discipleship for all persons, long time Christians and newly professed ones.

The mission carries out a consistent program of teaching the stewardship dimension of discipleship including sacrificial proportionate giving by all disciples.

The mission has a worship average attendance of at least 100, or grew in attendance in the past 12 months at a rate that would project reaching 100 in no more than 5 years.

Provide evidence that the mission is taking responsibility for a greater and greater percentage of its total expenditures. The goal is financial independence in some reasonable time frame.

Transforming Congregations

Congregations which are in need of transformation, according to the Conference's definition adopted in 2003, may receive a grant of no more than $10,000 per year for up to five years, if they cannot afford the salary of available pastors with the requisite transformational skills and leadership ability. The Cabinet will follow these guidelines in making appointments according to "fit" and will use funds from the Commission to supplement salaries if needed to achieve the "fit."

The congregation has a vision statement that actually functions to shape decisions about deployment of people and financial resources.

The vision is rooted in the Great Commission.

The projected pastor is committed to stay at the church for at least 6 years.

The congregation wants "transformation" for Missional rather than for survival reasons. They understand the need they have for transformation and agree to cooperate in transforming with the pastor appointed to lead.

The leaders of the congregation are committed to transforming. They have an understanding of what transformation is, what it is going to cost in terms of sacrifice and fundamental change in congregational life, and how long this will take.

The church is willing to re-evaluate its leadership structures and put leaders in place who are willing to implement the changes transformation requires in the local church context.

The church will enter a transformation process approved by the District Superintendent, the department of Congregational Vitality, and/or the District Committee.

A church in transformation, while experiencing fundamental and often painful change, is still a part of the UM connection. Some churches undergoing transformation may have difficulty fulfilling the following responsibilities: connectional giving, pension and health insurance contributions for pastor, property insurance, workers compensation premiums.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

*In order to receive help from the Commission on Equitable Compensation the church will affirm these as responsibilities they intend to fulfill. If the church has been unable to fulfill these responsibilities they will develop a covenant, signed by the "Leadership Team" and carry out a plan to reach annual fulfillment within 5 years. The process of transformation may temporarily cause a reduction in the number of people participating in the life of the church and a reduction in financial strength. In this situation temporary accommodation can be arranged, without lessening the church's long term commitment to fulfill their connectional responsibilities. The Superintendent recommends the church for this program in partnership with the Office of Congregational Transformation.

Utilities, Health Insurance, Moving Expenses:

The Equitable Compensation Commission recommends that each local church pay the Pastor's utilities and the group hospitalization premium. In hardship situations pastors may apply through their District Superintendent to the Equitable Compensation Commission for $720 in utility payments not covered by the local church. The Equitable Compensation Commission will pay up to $5000 of the base Health Insurance plan.

The Equitable Compensation Commission joins with the Cabinet in recommending that each receiving church pay actual moving expenses within the bounds of the Florida Conference. Pastors at minimum salary level may apply through their District Superintendent to the Equitable Compensation Commission for funds not to exceed $500 or 75% of the total cost if not paid by the local church.

Parsonage Fund:

This fund is intended for the purchase and upgrading of parsonages and not for rental property or pastors living in their own homes. Application can be made through the District Superintendent for grants not exceeding $3,600. The funds, if granted, will be paid upon the submission of receipts for the work completed to the parsonage, or the proof of a mortgage.

2016 Budget Request

The Council on Finance and Administration is requested to appropriate $370,000 for the Equitable Compensation Commission for the fiscal year 2016. The Conference Treasurer shall remit funds to the District Superintendents and or the church as certified by the Executive Director of the Equitable Compensation Commission.

SHADE AND FRESH WATER

Shade and Fresh Water (S&FW) believes that healthy clergy make for healthy churches. Since Melba Whitaker's vision well over a decade ago, when a group came together to form S&FW, we have grown in many ways. Now we offer personal and covenant group retreats to clergy in need of respite or Sabbath, divorce care, spiritual direction, as well as a difficult transitions retreat and care.

During the past year we have fostered partnerships as a way of strengthening our connections with the Conference. We are promoting clergy awareness of self-care by listening to the needs of clergy, their families and conference staff. We are evolving into a more responsive and supportive ministry to be present, proactive, and aware of the changing needs and challenges that face clergy today.

This year we are broadening our scope. After listening to conference clergy it is apparent that there is a desire for pastors to be connected with a spiritual director in their area. This year we began the process of pairing clergy with spiritual directors in their area in the hopes that a long-term supportive relationship can be formed between clergy and their own spiritual director. To facilitate this change we formed a working relationship within the Florida Annual Conference with Clergy Excellence and the Board of Ordained Ministry.

Beginning this year, S&FW is gifting every new clergy licensed, commissioned or ordained at Annual Conference with six sessions of spiritual direction with a spiritual director in his or her local area. In addition to this we will be gifting them with a 3 day spiritual retreat at our newly created Wesley Suite at the LEC in Fruitland Park. In Cooperation with the Camps and Retreat Ministries, S&FW has been renovating a suite for the purpose of creating a sacred space for retreat and spiritual direction during S&FW personal retreat. This is an exciting time, and we are looking forward to the future of clergy wellness through intentional support.

Our website, www.shadeandfreshwater.org, provides information about our various offerings including personal retreats, covenant group retreats, spiritual direction, managing change retreat and more. Registration is available online.

INSTITUTE OF PREACHING

The Florida Institute of Preaching (IOP) was established through a generous endowment by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sherman. For over 20 years, the IOP has helped pastors in the Florida Annual Conference develop their capacity to share the Gospel. Working together with Duke Divinity School, the Institute brings together a small group of pastors each year to help them nurture and develop their gift of preaching.

The Institute is designed to help already capable preachers who are open to personal development through dialogue and reflection with their peers. For that reason, the Institute is open to all full-time Elders and local pastors in the Florida Conference with at least five years' experience of preaching on a regular basis who do not anticipate a change in appointment in the coming year. The IOP has also partnered with Western North Carolina Conference who fund a small group of pastors who participate each year. In addition, the IOP has funds and supports training opportunities for pastors in the Bahamas. Most recently the IOP has partnered with the Real Ideas Conference to offer workshops on effective communication and biblical preaching.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSION AND HEALTH BENEFITS

The Conference Treasurer, Mickey Wilson, reviewed the year end 2014 Benefit Trust statement and reported the ending balance as of December 31st is $51.2M.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

Effective January 1, 2014, the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits required clergy to contribute at least 1% of their total annual compensation into UMPIP to be eligible for the CRSP employer match of 1%. Conference staff have worked to educate and inform clergy members of the change to CRSP requiring matching contributions.

At this time approximately 96% of actively working clergy have enrolled in UMPIP and are making their required matching contributions. In addition, new clergy members joining the Conference for their first appointment be automatically enrolled in the UMPIP plan for the 1% matching contribution. Clergy members may decline to participate but will have to opt-out instead of making an initial enrollment election to participate. The CBOPHB hopes this automatic enrollment will encourage clergy to be more proactive in planning for their retirement and to ensure they receive the CRSP employer matching funds.

The members of the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits (CBOPHB) take their fiduciary responsibilities very seriously. Board members work closely with Conference staff to understand plan funding requirements and the financial decisions that must be made by our Conference. We regularly review detailed financial information regarding asset performance and pension contributions from local churches to determine the funding status of our plans as well as our ability to make required pension contributions. The CRSP pension plan (and all successor plans) are fully funded at this time.

This committee wants to express our deepest gratitude and thanks to our retiring Treasurer, Mickey Wilson, for all the good work done he has done for the CBOPHB. This committee has benefited greatly from his expertise and guidance during his tenure. And we welcome the new Treasurer, Tony Prestipino, to the committee.

As Chair of the committee, I want to thank all the board members who give of their expertise, wisdom and time to do our work. We pray together and seek to discern God's will in these great stewardship matters. I also want to express my confidence and appreciation for the HR & Benefits staff Wendy McCoy, Helen Mitchell, and Lois Durham. This board's performance is greatly enhanced through the care and support of these professionals.

Report I – Past Service Rate

The Conference Board recommends the Past Service Rate for 2016 remain at $771.

Report II – Special Grants

The CBOPHB recommends special grants and/or pension support for: Walter McMullen, Donald Rock, Rev. Charles Constant, Elizabeth Hogan and Deborah Parsons.

Report III – Apportionment Recommendation for 2016

The CBOPHB has sufficient resources to fund obligations for the Retiree Health Insurance Program, Special Grants and the Clergy Wellness Initiative without requiring apportionment funds. As such, the CBOPHB is not requesting apportioned funds in 2016.

Benefit Trust Statement

A comprehensive benefit funding plan document and complete audited financial statements are available upon request from the Conference Treasurer.

Report IV – Housing/Rental Allowance Resolution Resolutions Relating to Rental/Housing Allowances for Retired or Disabled Clergypersons of the Florida Conference

The Florida Conference (the “Conference”) adopts the following resolutions relating to rental/housing allowances for active, retired, or disabled clergypersons of the Conference:

WHEREAS, the religious denomination known as The United Methodist Church (the “Church”), of which this Conference is a part, has in the past functioned and continues to function through ministers of the gospel (within the meaning of Internal Revenue Code section 107) who were or are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed ministers of the Church (“Clergypersons”);

WHEREAS, the practice of the Church and of this Conference was and is to provide active Clergypersons with a parsonage or a rental/housing allowance as part of their gross compensation;

WHEREAS, pensions or other amounts paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons are considered to be deferred compensation and are paid to active, retired, and disabled Clergypersons in consideration of previous active service; and

WHEREAS, the Internal Revenue Service has recognized the Conference (or its predecessors) as the appropriate organization to designate a rental/housing allowance for Clergypersons who are or were members of this Conference and are eligible to receive such deferred compensation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED: THAT an amount equal to 100% of the pension or disability payments received from plans authorized under The Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church (the “Discipline”), which includes all such payments from the General Board of Pension and Health Benefits (“GBOPHB”), during the year 2016 by each active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson who is or was a member of the Conference, or its predecessors, be and hereby is designated as a rental/housing allowance for each such Clergyperson; and THAT the pension or disability payments to which this rental/housing allowance applies will be any pension or disability payments from plans, annuities, or funds authorized under the Discipline, including such payments from the GBOPHB and from a commercial annuity company that provides an annuity arising from benefits accrued under a GBOPHB plan, annuity, or fund authorized under the Discipline, that result from any service a Clergyperson rendered to this Conference or that an active, a retired, or a disabled Clergyperson of this Conference rendered to any local church, annual conference of the Church, general agency of the Church, other institution of the Church, former denomination that is now a part of the Church, or any other employer that employed the Clergyperson to perform services related to the ministry of the Church, or its predecessors, and that elected to make contributions to, or accrue a benefit under, such a plan, annuity, or fund for such active, retired, or disabled Clergyperson’s pension or disability as part of his or her gross compensation.

NOTE: The rental/housing allowance that may be excluded from a Clergyperson’s gross income in any year for federal income tax purposes is limited under Internal Revenue Code section 107(2) and regulations thereunder to the least of: (1) the amount of the rental/housing allowance designated by the Clergyperson’s employer or other appropriate body of the Church (such as this Conference in the foregoing resolutions) for such year; (2) the amount actually expended by the Clergyperson to rent or provide a home in such year; or (3) the fair rental value of the home, including furnishings and appurtenances (such as a garage), plus the cost of utilities in such year.

HEALTH INSURANCE SUBCOMMITTEE

The Affordable Care Act (ACA) continues to impact health care as we know it as well as our current program. One critical driver is the cost of our current self-insured United Healthcare plan. Our plan will be subject to an excise tax of $250,000 in 2018 if we do not make substantial changes. The excise tax, also known as the “Cadillac Tax” is indexed to the cost of our plan and it will increase each year that we do not reduce the underlying cost of the plan. We are also concerned at the continuing rate of increased costs for our current health plan-- increases which will eventually either make the plan unaffordable for local churches or will require severe benefit reductions in order to remain affordable. Clearly, we must act to address these issues. The Health Insurance Subcommittee is prepared to offer reasonable alternatives as we learn and adapt to the new landscape created by the ACA.

At the same time, critical aspects of the ACA are currently being challenged in the Supreme Court and, in this fluid regulatory environment, the best way forward remains unclear. This level of uncertainty requires us to remain flexible and adaptable while maintaining compliance with existing law. In the meantime, this committee is researching opportunities created by the ACA that can expand individual choice by modifying the current mandatory program.

The ACA has created an evolving marketplace for health insurance that was previously very limited due to pre-existing limitations and exclusions. Individuals now have opportunities to shop for insurance coverage that were previously not available.

In addition, it is important to be aware that federal subsidies (also known as premium tax credits) are available to those with household incomes up to 4 times the Federal Poverty Level (FPL). This means additional financial assistance to purchase health insurance would be available through the public exchange (www.healthcare.gov) for clergy members whose taxable income in 2015 is at or below 400% of the FPL ($79,160 for a family of three). This dynamic environment has created a challenge for the Conference and requires we consider alternatives that better accommodate individual choice and preferences.

Today we calculate the employer contribution for health insurance based on the projected annual cost of the self-funded United Healthcare plan. The numerical value of the employer “blended rate” is determined by a formula approved by the Florida Annual Conference almost 20 years ago. The formula specifies the employer or local church pay 80% of the premium cost and the employee (clergy member) contribute the remaining 20% of the premium cost.

Insurance plans available on the public exchange (www.healthcare.gov) describe benefit plans using precious metals to differentiate levels of costs and coverage. There are four levels of benefit plans: Platinum, Gold, Silver and Bronze.

The Health Insurance subcommittee is proposing the “Freedom to Choose” initiative. This would require the Florida Conference to alter our current policy and practice for providing and supporting health insurance benefits that will permit individuals to explore other options. The recommended method for accomplishing this is to require a defined level of employer support for all full-time appointed clergy.

The amount of the insurance stipend will be calculated based on the current level of employer support for a plan of benefits that approximates the benefit level of the United Healthcare Choice Plus plan. We will continue to use the same cost-sharing formula substituting the United Healthcare plan cost with the projected value of an exchange based plan that is classified as “silver”. This stipend will be paid by the local church directly to the eligible full time appointed clergy member. The amount of the stipend will be based on family size and the proposed amount of the annual employer stipend in 2017 will be:

| Single | $9,000 |
| Employee + one | $12,000 |
| Family | $15,000 |

Clergy members are expected to continue contributing to the purchase of their health insurance – just as they do today. Single members contribute $124 per month and clergy members with families contribute $301 per month. The combined annual premium dollars (employer or local church and individual personal contributions) for purchasing insurance coverage in 2017 is projected to be:

| Single | $10,500 |
| Employee + one | $15,600 |
| Family | $18,600 |

The CBOPHB will monitor the amount of the health insurance stipend and will communicate updates as needed to local churches and other related employers annually.

This approach will permit those who do not currently have other coverage to exercise individual choice in purchasing health insurance that best meets their individual needs. Furthermore, the Board intends to codify employer support for health insurance in the standing rules. The Conference will always require local churches (and other related employers) to provide an insurance stipend to all full-time clergy for the purchase of health insurance if no group plan is available.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

The subcommittee will bring a formal proposal detailing the proposed changes to the February 2016 board meeting for action. If approved, the “Freedom to Choose” proposal will be presented at the 2016 Annual Conference seeking authorization for implementation effective January 1, 2017.

Until this transition is completed, plan participants and local employers should expect premium rate increases in order to maintain the plan’s financial integrity and solvency.

We urge all interested constituents to be in prayer for the committee members as we work to craft the specific details necessary to execute this change.

The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits (CBOPHB) make the following recommendations:

- a. The CBOPHB is authorized to make decisions relating to benefits and offerings of coverage for the Florida Conference, including but not limited to the ability to adopt plans that include outside funding, self-funding, or a combination thereof. These decisions will be made after study, research and evaluation, and consultation with appropriate industry experts, actuaries, consultants and other resources available at the time.
- b. Minnesota Mutual is to continue as carrier for the Supplemental Life Insurance Program and will be paid 100% by each participant without Conference Funding. Minnesota Life is the carrier for an additional Voluntary Life with AD&D, paid 100% by each participant without Conference funding.
- c. The firm of AON/Hewitt Consulting shall continue to serve as Agent of Record for the Life Insurance Program.

The Health Insurance sub-committee would like to express our grateful appreciation to the staff of professionals that support this subcommittee: Wendy McCoy, Helen Mitchell and Lois Durham. The progress being made and the improvements to the plans and programs would not be possible without the dedication of this team.

Russ Barlow, Vice-Chairperson

JOINT COMMITTEE ON DISABILITY

The Florida Annual Conference provides disability benefits through participation in the Comprehensive Protection Plan (CPP). For benefit year 2016 and beyond, the disability benefit will equal 70% of Plan Compensation capped at 200% of the Denominational Average Compensation (DAC). The minimum incapacity benefit will be 40% of the DAC. These benefits are coordinated with Social Security benefits. In addition, there is a 3% annual increase each July, provided the benefit was in effect by the previous December 31.

The Joint Committee on Disability has approved continuing disability benefits for the Conference Year 2015-2016 for the following persons: Jocelyn Adhemar, Michael Bozeman, Thomas Ettinger, Albert Hicks, Susan Lewis, Drew Parsons, Nathan Boles, Richard Quakenbush, Sandra Parsons, William Ingram, Samuel Parvin, Dawn Anderson, Rachael Hollingsworth and Barry Bahr.

We ask that these persons and their families be kept in our prayers.

PREACHER’S RELIEF BOARD

The primary purpose of this ministry is to provide limited financial assistance to pastors when faced with unforeseen emergencies and to provide financial assistance for housing for clergy as well as surviving spouses of deceased clergy when they are unable to afford adequate housing within their own means.

The Preacher’s Relief Board was able to assist several families in 2015. This support often involves networking with other agencies to provide appropriate assistance as necessary. In addition, the Preacher’s Relief Board also provides assistance with moving expenses for retiring clergy who are on minimum salary.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

And, the Preacher's Relief Board supports the cost for the retirement luncheon for clergy who are retiring at this year's Annual Conference.

Churches, clergy and others wishing to donate to the Preacher's Relief Board can designate their funds through the Conference Treasurer's Office. Individuals wishing to donate homes or property should contact Wendy McCoy, Staff Liaison for the Preacher's Relief Board.

Those clergy persons who find themselves in difficulty can petition relief from The Preacher's Relief Board by going on-line to www.flumc.org; click on Administration, then Human Resources – Health Care & Pensions and choose the link for Preacher's Relief Board.

COUNCIL ON FINANCE AND ADMINISTRATION

This year, in addition to our usual work in CF&A, a sub-committee pursued interviewing, selecting and hiring of a new Conference Treasurer subsequent to the retirement of Mickey Wilson, who graciously stayed until his successor was identified. Led by Assistant Chairperson of CF&A, Harriet Mayes, the committee spent a few months in the process, ultimately extending an offer to Tony Prestipino, who previously held the same position in the South Carolina Conference. He accepted the offer and will be with us during portions of the Annual Conference, most importantly as we confirm his selection by vote of the Annual Conference.

I am pleased to report the following:

The percentage of apportionments paid this year is 88.63%, a 5.5% increase over last year.

The portion of churches paying 100% of their apportionments has increased again this year, to 68%, an increase of 2.1 percentage points.

The transfer of administrative tasks such as bill paying, posting of most transactions and fiscal oversight of the Districts to the Conference is complete. Once again, our financial budget found in your workbook includes the numbers for the Districts as well. These are not new apportionments but rather an inclusion of their requests along with the Conference.

The 2016 budget reflects no increase as compared to the 2015 budget.

Rev. Kimberly Uchimura, Council on Finance and Administration

COMMITTEE FOR MINISTRY PROTECTION

2015 PROPERTY/CASUALTY & WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE PROGRAM

The Florida Conference Property/Casualty and Workers' Compensation Insurance Program is celebrating a milestone this year. This is the 20th year the program has been in existence!

The years following 1992's Hurricane Andrew revealed the need for a comprehensive, Conference-wide insurance program. The current insurance program and the Department for Ministry Protection (formerly known as the Risk Management Department) was formed in 1995 as a means of bringing cohesiveness in insurance coverage for all United Methodist churches and related ministries within the Conference.

Now, two decades after the Annual Conference's wise decision to create this program, it has been tested through multiple hurricanes, other catastrophic claims, turmoil in the insurance market, and a faltering economy. Through it all, the insurance program has remained steadfast in its ability to provide comprehensive, cost-effective insurance coverage for all Conference churches, schools, and direct ministries. It remains strong and vital and stands as a model to other United Methodist conferences and to other church denominations.

2015 is the sixth consecutive year that property and casualty insurance premiums for Florida Conference churches have remained the same. While individual church allocations may vary from prior years (due to local factors, such as property appraisals and adding buildings and/or vehicles), the overall costs of the insurance program for 2015 has not increased and remains exactly the same as the five prior years.

The Department for Ministry Protection reports to the Conference Treasurer and the Committee for Ministry Protection. Currently, this Committee is comprised of volunteers representing each district of the Florida Annual Conference. Collectively, the skills of this very active committee include, but are not limited to: attorneys, CPAs, insurance and risk management professionals, local pastors and church administrators. The program would not enjoy its unparalleled strength but for the guidance, hard work, and dedication of this stellar committee.

The insurance program is structured to provide broad and comprehensive coverage. The coverages include, but are not limited to:

- Property: includes windstorm, hail, flood, and earthquake coverage;
- Liability: includes general liability, property damage to others, sexual abuse and molestation, employment practices liability, and medical payments coverage;
- Automobile: includes liability and physical damage coverage, medical payments and uninsured/underinsured coverage;
- Crime: includes theft, burglary, robbery and employee dishonesty coverage;
- Workers' Compensation: provides coverage for employees that are injured in the course and scope of their employment.
- Activities Medical Insurance: provides coverage for bodily injury for accidents to volunteers of the church, youth group participants, children enrolled in daycare, nursery, pre-k and camps, excess over any personal health insurance;
- International Medical Accident Insurance: provides medical payments for accident injuries or sickness to volunteers while participating on scheduled or sponsored activities outside the United States of America, excess over any amounts payable by any other health care plan;
- Terrorism: Property and casualty coverage.

As we celebrate 20 years of quality service to the Florida Annual Conference, the members of the Committee for Ministry Protection and the staff of the department are excited about the future. We consider it a privilege to be able to help insure:

- $2.3 billion in property located in every city, town, and hamlet served by the Florida Conference;
- Over 760 vehicles, including private passenger vehicles, vans, buses, trailers, golf carts, watercraft, and two

motorhomes;

- Over 200 pre-schools and schools;
- Over 9,000 employees who are covered by Workers' Compensation insurance;
- Tens of thousands of volunteers;
- Countless local church ministries, programs, and events, held both on and off church property.
- Over 1,500 international travelers in 2014 alone;
- Comprehensive coverage for a variety of other unique exposures, such as Camps & Retreats, Wesley Campus Ministries; The Florida United Methodist Children's Home, and Florida Conference district offices.

It is indeed a privilege and an honor to serve. We hope our efforts ultimately enable ministry by freeing local congregations to confidently interact with God's people as they serve them and Him.

Respectfully submitted,

Rev. Susie Horner, Chair
Committee for Ministry Protection

LaNita V. Battles, Claims/Risk Manager

FLORIDA CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

The Board of Trustees continues to oversee the property entrusted to all the Methodists in Florida.

The Trustees are responsible for the needs of the Conference Center and the Episcopal Residence and provide guidance to the Campus Ministries as they continue to deal with a variety of real property issues.

Unlike the Camps and Retreat Centers which have a skilled professional staff and maintenance reserves, the campus ministries don't have sufficient resources necessary to do more than deal with routine maintenance issues. As a result, the Trustees are working closer with the campuses to supplement their individual maintenance needs.

The Trustees obtained a line of credit in the amount of $2.5 MM in order to fund the renovation of the Barnett Lodge. Currently, the outstanding balance is less than $1.25 MM with pledges of $750 K expected to be received over the next 3 years. The Trustees continued the practice of contributing $50k per year to reduce the deficit.

Your Board of Trustees has agreed to obtain a line of credit from the Florida Foundation in the amount of $2.5MM to build a new facility on the campus of FSU. The cabinet and NCD agreed to provide 10% of the proceeds from sold churches to satisfy the LOC. Construction is to begin in late summer 2015 with completion by summer of 2016.

Episcopal Residence: This property continues to require maintenance and repairs typical of a property of this age.

Conference Center: This property, of which we all should be extremely proud, has presented no issues to the board since we moved in.

Cemeteries: A special thanks to Dr. Ed Dinkins, an ex-officio member, for his fine work and his investigations, in locating and resolving ownership issues surrounding abandoned cemeteries. More often than not, the UMC has no legal obligation but rather a moral obligation.

Your Board of Trustees, as authorized in BOD Par. 2512.3 and 2512.4, created the Trustee Investment Committee to work with various conference agencies, districts, local churches and FUMF to help identify their investment objectives and recommend vehicles to achieve these objectives. We are blessed that Vernon Swartzel, former President of the FUMF, agreed to chair this committee comprised of experienced investment professionals. The following is the report of the Conference Investment Committee's Chair Vernon Swartzel. We are blessed to have a group of professionals willing to donate their time and expertise to serve on this important committee. A very special thanks to Vernon for his leadership.

Respectfully submitted,
Cary Hardee, President
Florida Conference Board of Trustees

INVESTMENT COMMITTEE

In its first year the Conference's Investment Committee proposed a committee charter and policies that establish investment guidelines (to be consistent with the socially responsible investment principles set forth in the Book of Discipline) and incorporate accountability standards to be used for monitoring the effectiveness of the Conference's investment program, and these were adopted by the Board of Trustees.

The Committee also determined that the Florida United Methodist Foundation will be the custodian for virtually all of the Conference's investments and selected two independent investment managers to recommend investments to reach short-term and long-term financial goals.

Respectfully submitted, Vernon Swartzel, Chairman, Investment Committee

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON EPISCOPACY

Both the Committee on Episcopacy of the Florida Annual Conference and Bishop Carter have been very receptive to the Southeast Jurisdiction Episcopal Review and Evaluation Instrument designed to engage the committee and the bishop in dialogue about the episcopal leadership of the Florida Annual Conference. I thought a review of this process might be helpful as this year's report.

At our first meeting on February 27, 2014, the Committee wrote a covenant together, which has been re-visited at each of our subsequent meetings. Jorge Acevedo and Sharon Luther, both members of the Southeast Jurisdiction Committee on Episcopacy, have led the committee through the comprehensive evaluation and growth plan process, discussing in detail all eight categories. At this first meeting committee members completed the Episcopal Review and Evaluation Forms individually. The forms were compiled, with the consensus acknowledgment of how challenging it was to complete this assessment given the short tenure of Bishop Carter's episcopal leadership in Florida at that point.

At our meeting on August 20, 2014, the Committee discussed the first three categories of Bishop Carter's review: Formation, Administrative Responsibilities in the Florida Area, and Leadership. We had a very good discussion with Bishop Carter that served the primary purpose of Bishop Carter informing committee members in regard to these areas. Helpful dialogue ensued that added to an overall sense of unity with regard to the assessment process and the privilege of serving together in ministry. Bishop Carter stressed to the committee that our primary purpose is to focus on the quality of the relationship between the bishop and the annual conference for the sake of the mission of the church.

At the third meeting on September 18, 2014, the chair of the committee invited two cabinet members suggested by Bishop Carter to attend to participate in the discussion of categories four and five: Preaching and Teaching and Appointment-making. Bishop Carter was not present for this meeting because of another commitment. There was consensus between Bishop Carter and the chair of the Committee prior to the committee meeting that this would be a good thing that would help to facilitate a sense of unrestrained openness from the two members of the Cabinet. Much of the meeting consisted of committee members listening to insights of the cabinet members and engaging in dialogue with them. Again, this was a significant time of learning for members of the committee, especially in regard to how the appointment process works. This dialogue also underscored the positive connection that Bishop Carter has with members of the cabinet and the respect that they have for him and his leadership.

At our last meeting of the year, on November 17, 2014, we met with the Florida Annual Conference Strategic Leadership Team (SLT) for a dialogue in regard to the overlap of the work of these two groups and how they might interface more effectively for the sake of the mission of the church. There was detailed discussion, with active input from Bishop Carter, in regard to the initiatives that each group is working on, particularly in regard to new church development, the definition and role of mission churches in the conference, and the sensitive issue of church closures. In addition, our committee shared with members of the SLT about the assessment process in which we have been engaged with Bishop Carter.

The overall sense of the committee is that this assessment process is much-needed as a helpful tool in enhancing interaction between the committee and Bishop Carter that involves information sharing, creative thinking, and sound communication about important issues related to the ministry of the Florida Conference and the leadership of our bishop.

We understand that this process is one that will continue to be tweaked and strengthened as our conference and others continue to engage with it and learn to make the most constructive use of it as an ongoing tool to strengthen the relationship of the bishop with the annual conference.

Respectfully submitted,

Bob Bushong
Chairperson

AFRICA UNIVERSITY

The vision of Africa University is improved quality life, peace and prosperity for the peoples of Africa through quality higher education that includes teaching, researching, community service and leadership development.

The mission of Africa University is to provide quality education within a Pan-African context through which people can acquire general and professional knowledge and skills, grow in spiritual maturity and develop sound moral values, ethics and leadership qualities.

Africa University's motto in the Greek language is translated into English to mean: "I am the vine; you are the branches." John 15:5 "... Africa University established its philosophy of higher education on the values of the Gospel."

--From the Africa University Prospectus, 2009

The news about Africa University (AU), Mutare, Zimbabwe, remains exciting and filled with hope! The renewal of relationships fostered at last year's FL Annual Conference featured the incredible music of the AU choir ambassadors and the spirited preaching of Dr. James 'Jim' H. Salley, Associate Vice-Chancellor for Institutional Advancement. You responded to this outpouring by giving $57,275.89 through our Annual Conference Special Offering toward the endowment of a scholarship. Thank you Florida United Methodists! We were further blessed by the choir's itineration throughout the Conference to a number of churches, as well as to the Warren W. Willis Camp. Their music, spirit and expressions of the AU story thrilled the hearts of both young and old.

In March of this year, a delegation of lay and clergy members of our Conference visited the University, where they were hosted by Jim Salley, students (some of whom visited us last year) and the University's faculty and administration. One of the highlights of their visit was attendance at the installation of the University's new Vice Chancellor, Dr. Munashe Furusa. Vice Chancellor Furusa embodies the hope of Africa University through his experience as a first generation college graduate who has risen to the top of his profession.

Our Conference extended hospitality to the Africa University Development board members as they gathered in Orlando on Saturday, April 18th, 2015. Their service to the University included their 'Saturation' effort, wherein they remained in Florida to speak and preach in several of our congregations on Sunday, April 9th, 2015. We were blessed to receive them!

The story of the University's ongoing accomplishments is vast and we are grateful for an opportunity to celebrate which includes:

The announcement of plans to receive an endowed professorship in the Faculty of Theology.

The implementation of a PhD program in Peace, Leadership, Governance and Development.

Thank you for your continued prayers and support of this vital mission of our Church! For more information please visit www.support-africauniversity.org.

ASBURY THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY

Asbury Seminary is now well past its 90th anniversary and we are looking forward to the centennial celebration in 2023. We continue to work through our Strategic Plan 2023, the ten core values of which can be distilled down into three major emphases: Asbury Seminary will be faithful to its heritage, transformative in its impact, and global in its reach.

Today, our total enrollment is over 1,500 students, which makes Asbury Seminary the 8th-largest theological school out of 265 such accredited schools in the United States and Canada. Our student body currently encompasses students from 39 countries and 93 denominations. Over one-third of them are women. Over half our students are United Methodists and are enrolled in the Master of Divinity program.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

Nearly 1 out of every 6 United Methodist pastors ordained in the United States in 2013 (the last year for which statistics are available) are Asbury Seminary graduates.

Our more than 10,000 living alumni serve the cause of Christ through 148 denominations on 6 continents, in 72 countries, and in every state in America.

The Lilly Endowment in Indianapolis has approved a half-million-dollar grant for the Florida Dunnam campus to help impact the quality of preaching primarily in the Hispanic church and secondarily in the African-American church. The program will also nurture a greater interest among participants to continue their training and theological education to grow and enrich their ministry, and it will encourage the development of Supportive Networks among pastors and leaders, which will continue to enrich their lives and ministries far beyond the three-year initiative.

The program builds on the Latino/Latina Studies Program, which began in 2002, as well as developing a bilingual Master of Arts in Christian Ministry and supporting the bilingual Doctor of Ministry degree on the Florida Dunnam campus. This Fall, the DMin launches a cohort of eighteen latino/a students, including UM pastors, and provides an opportunity with this group of leaders to nurture a network of relationships that can facilitate ongoing ministry and leadership development in the lives of many who will follow and connect with the various dimensions of the Asbury Seminary and the Hispanic Initiative.

Additionally, with the help from the Piper Grant funding was made available for a full-time regional recruiter to work specifically with our Hispanic constituencies in recruiting for all three levels of programs at the Florida campus: Latino/a Studies Program (LLSP), Masters of Arts, and Doctor of Ministry. The Piper Grant also provided scholarship opportunities specifically for Hispanic students entering Masters level programs at the Florida campus.

Kalas Village, our family housing complex, is now complete, with 150 townhouse units filled. The Bob and Ellen Stamps Community House was dedicated last Fall. This beautiful facility includes a large kitchen and eating area, room for crafts of all kinds, a stage area, and a children's chapel. It is a kid-friendly facility, and is used for birthday and anniversary celebrations and potlucks of all kinds, lessons in various crafts and artistic expressions, as well as for Bible studies and other community group gatherings. A large outdoor playground adjoins the Community House, built through gifts from our Board of Trustees.

With the completion of Kalas Village, the former married student apartment building known as William House has been repurposed to add capacity to Asbury Inn. William House has been completely renovated into 22 guest suites, nearly doubling the capacity of Asbury Inn. This is a much-needed addition to our guest facilities on campus. The renovated William House was re-dedicated for its new purpose in a ceremony held in May.

The Community Garden continues adjacent to Kalas Village. Individual and community garden plots are available. The garden is not only a place for growing nourishing food – it is a place for lessons to be learned, as classes are taught in such eco-friendly subjects as composting and bee-keeping. The Seminary views this initiative as a living laboratory for creation care and community. A fire pit, prayer garden, and butterfly garden have been added, while the nature path and stone fence entrance have been completed. A “chicken tractor” composting project is underway, where chickens will be used to turn and process the compost, perhaps even using scraps from the cafeteria. Plans are for the walking path to be extended also. The Community Garden continues to be a blessing, especially to our international students.

Last September, during the meeting of the Wesleyan Heritage Conference held on the Asbury University campus, a statue of Charles Wesley was dedicated on our campus on the newly-built plaza in front of Estes Chapel. This original statue depicts Charles holding a book in one hand and a quill pen in the other and is the only statue of Charles Wesley on the North American continent. Attendees of the conference and Seminary staff gathered around to dedicate the statue, which was paid for by private donations. They sang Charles Wesley hymns, read a litany together, and heard an address given by Dr. Ken Collins, Asbury Seminary's own Wesley scholar.

Dr. Sue Russell, Associate Professor of Mission and Contextual Studies, is the newest member of our faculty. She came to Asbury Seminary from Biola University, where she was Associate Professor and Chair of the Department of Anthropology. Prior to that, she spent 17 years in cross-cultural ministry and field research with Wycliffe Bible Translators in Southeast Asia, where she worked with a committee of national pastors to complete the translation of the whole Bible into the Tagal language.

Dr. Jason Vickers has been appointed to the position of Professor of Theology and will serve at the Memphis, Tennessee extension site of Asbury Seminary, beginning this July. He has been on the faculty of United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio since 2006 and is an effective teacher and well-known author and scholar, having published numerous books and articles in the area of Wesleyan theology. The Asbury-Memphis program is a partnership between Asbury Theological Seminary and Christ United Methodist Church in Memphis. Students can pursue the MDiv degree there through classes based on a cohort model. These same courses may apply for the Certificate in Christian Studies.

BETHUNE-COOKMAN UNIVERSITY

Bethune-Cookman University (B-CU) is an exceptional place established on the historic foundation of the Christian faith. Dr. Edison O. Jackson, the sixth President, Trustee Chairman, Rev. Dr. John Harrington, and Vice President, Bishop Kenneth Carter are providing phenomenal leadership before the cabinet, students, faculty, and staff; thus fostering a spirit of academic excellence and civic engagement.

Bethune-Cookman represents rich diverse religious traditions from around the globe. As a Methodist endowed University, B-CU is unapologetically Christian and anchored in the Wesleyan practice of Scripture, reason, tradition and experience. B-CU sustains its legacy of faith, through the commitment and support of the United Methodist Church.

These are exciting times at Bethune-Cookman University. Our giving is strong and our enrollment continues to increase. Currently, we are experiencing an increase of 2 percent in accepted students from last year. We anticipate 1100 freshmen and 200 transfer students for the fall enrollment.

Bethune-Cookman is a place where students enter to learn and global leaders depart to serve. B-CU offers baccalaureate degrees in 37 majors through six academic schools – Art and Humanities; Business; Education; Nursing; Science, Engineering and Mathematics and Social Sciences and maintains intercollegiate athletic programs and instrumental choral groups that have achieved national recognition. B-CU has a diverse international faculty and a student body of more than 3,400. On May 13, 2015 325 graduated with degrees, thus departing to serve.

Our Chaplaincy Department is the first of its kind within our history and is made up of a Dean of the Chapel/ Executive Chaplain, Rev. David Allen Jr. and an additional University Chaplain, Rev. Kenya Lovell. The Chaplaincy Department is open to serving all faith groups regardless of race, culture, religion, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, gender or ability; and are intentional in providing compassionate care to all who desire spiritual counseling, encouragement and guidance. In January we did our annual seminary tour to expose students to institutions of theological education. Students had an opportunity to dialogue with presidents, deans, faculty members and student representatives at Gammon and Candler. On May 13, 2015 we graduated 3 pre-ministerial students who will be attending seminary next year.

Bethune-Cookman has experienced a strong fiscal year and our endowment is solid. The total giving target for Fiscal Year 2014-2015 is $32,122,298. Total giving year-to-date for the University is $26,728,701. The annual fund giving target for Fiscal Year 2014-2015 is $3,500,000. Annual fund giving year-to-date for the current year is $2,533,721. The restricted giving target for Fiscal Year 2014-2015 is $28,622,298. Restricted year-to-date giving is $24,194,979.

Bethune-Cookman has launched significant goals to enhance the quality of its academic initiatives. There are sixteen (16) objectives listed under the university's strategic goals to enhance academic effectiveness.

Those objectives are: (1) Develop a curriculum that promotes vigor for the General Education Core; (2) Develop curriculum that promotes rigor and pedagogy for new and existing degree programs; (3) Develop co-curricular service learning activities that promote rigor and pedagogy for degree programs; (4) Develop policies to recruit and retain excellent faculty; (5) Increase the number of faculty in critical areas of STEM, Business, and Nursing; (6) Develop Flagship programs in STEM and Business; (7) Recognize and reward excellence for faculty and staff; (8) Increase the number of programs seeking accreditation; (9)

CANDLER SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY

For 100 years, Candler School of Theology at Emory University has prepared real people to make a real difference in the real world. Since our founding in 1914, more than 10,000 students have graduated from Candler, where they have been shaped as Christian leaders who put faith and love into action, transforming the world in the name of Jesus Christ. Here, students are challenged academically, encouraged spiritually, and immersed in Christian service from the first day they arrive on campus. This unique approach ensures that our graduates are ready to serve wherever God leads.

One of 13 official seminaries of The United Methodist Church, Candler is grounded in the Christian faith and shaped by the Wesleyan tradition. We are one of seven graduate professional schools of Emory University, a top-tier research institution offering extensive resources and a rich context for study. Our location in the city of Atlanta offers a learning environment that reflects the highly diverse communities of the 21st century world. There is no better place for ministry preparation that addresses our major denominational priorities: developing leaders, starting and growing churches, ministry with the poor, and improving global health.

During the 2014-2015 academic year, Candler celebrated its Centennial, marking our 100th anniversary with a series of commemorative events highlighting memories of the past and visions for the future. The yearlong celebration began in the fall of 2014 with the dedication of the final phase of our new LEED-certified building and the premiere of Religion and Reason Joined: Candler at 100, a new book on our history. The commemoration continued through the spring of 2015 with guest lectures, exhibits, and “Prophetic Voices,” a major academic conference addressing the challenges and opportunities facing theology in the 21st century.

Not only has Candler expanded its physical space this year—we have expanded degree offerings as well. In response to the changing needs of the church, Candler introduced five new degrees to equip Christian leaders: the Doctor of Ministry, the Master of Religious Leadership, the Master of Religion and Public Life, and two dual degrees with social work and development practice.

Candler’s student body reflects the diversity and breadth of the Christian faithful. Our enrollment stands at 447, with 320 seeking the Master of Divinity, 43 the Master of Theological Studies, 14 the Master of Religious Life, 20 the Master of Theology, 29 the Doctor of Ministry, 10 the Doctor of Theology, and 11 enrolled as Non-Degree students. The student body is 52 percent women, 35 percent people of color (U.S.), and the median age of the entering class is 27. Students represent 42 denominations, with nearly half identifying as United Methodist.

Candler draws considerable strength and inspiration from its relationship with The United Methodist Church. Our ability to fulfill our mission of educating faithful and creative leaders for the church’s ministries in the world depends upon your support, gifts, and prayers. Thank you for the countless ways you advance this vital ministry in the life of our denomination. Visit us in person in Atlanta or online at candler.emory.edu to see firsthand how Candler prepares real people to make a real difference in the real world.

DUKE DIVINITY SCHOOL

The academic year 2014–2015 has been an exciting year as we continue to engage with the church, academy, and society on important ecclesial and cultural issues. The heart of our work remains the preparation of men and women for Christian ministry and leadership within the church. As part of that mission, our initiatives, centers, and programs continue to be a vital resource for us to extend the good news of God's invitation into all spheres of a complex and hungry world. Far from being an ivory tower, Duke Divinity School is a place where faculty, students, and staff are eager to use the training for ministry in order to serve others and serve as a light to the world.

Duke Initiatives in Theology and the Arts (DITA) recognizes that the arts shape the imagination of a community and provide the forms through which many people most directly and compellingly encounter the message of the gospel. On Palm Sunday, Duke Chapel hosted the American premiere of the new St Luke Passion, written by the eminent Scottish composer James MacMillan. The work was commissioned by Duke Divinity School in conjunction with the Netherlands Radio Philharmonic Orchestra and the City of Birmingham (U.K.) Symphony Orchestra. During the process of composing the piece, MacMillan met several times with a group of theologians and biblical scholars from Duke Divinity School and the University of Cambridge to reflect on the shape and meaning of Luke's narrative. In addition to this stunning choral work, DITA has sponsored lectures by visiting scholars and hosted the first artist-in-residence, Malcolm Guite.

The newest of our initiatives, Theology, Medicine, and Culture, builds on the extraordinary faculty resources offered by four physicians who hold joint faculty appointments in the Medical School and the Divinity School at Duke. Working together with other members of the faculty who share an interest in healthcare and medical ethics, they are developing a range of programs that seek to clarify and strengthen Christian witness and action in the complex world of healthcare. One program, Walking Together, sponsors conferences that address care of the mentally ill in faith communities. Another, Reimagining Medicine, will gather health professionals at a summer conference to consider proposals for the ways in which local communities might draw on Christian perspectives to shape the delivery of medical care.

The Center for Reconciliation (CFR) celebrated its 10th anniversary this year, and this has been a time of transition for the center. Co-founder Chris Rice accepted a role with the Mennonite Central Committee in Korea, and he will retain his connection to Duke as senior fellow for Northeast Asia. In that role he will coordinate the emerging work of the Christian Forum for Reconciliation in Northeast Asia, which will be modeled on the successful development of the Great Lakes Initiative (GLI) in East Africa. Duke has helped to support the GLI for the past seven years, and this year full leadership transitioned to local African leaders. The Divinity School has received a major gift commitment to endow a faculty position that will also serve as director of the CFR, and a search has begun to fill that position. In the coming years we intend to strengthen our emphasis on issues of racial reconciliation in local contexts.

Leadership Education at Duke Divinity (LEADD) draws inspiration both from the Christian theological tradition and from the best recent studies and practices of leadership and entrepreneurship. In partnership with the Lake Institute, this year LEADD offered an executive certificate in religious fundraising. LEADD also offers a program for denominational and institutional leaders, Foundations in Christian Leadership. Faith & Leadership, the online magazine published by LEADD, continues to reach over 300,000 readers and provide a resource for theological reflection and "traditioned innovation" for all in ministry. Their continued excellent work was recognized again this year with awards from the Associated Church Press "Best of the Christian Press" contest.

The Center for Studies in the Wesleyan Tradition has been a source of internationally acclaimed research and support for Methodist and Wesleyan studies since 1979. This center offers courses for both Course of Study and Divinity students, provides access to outstanding research resources for students and scholars of the broad Wesleyan tradition, and supports the production of critical editions of the texts of John and Charles Wesley in print and online formats. The center also sponsors the Summer Wesley Seminar, led by professors Randy Maddox and Richard Heitzenrater, which invites application from scholars to spend an intensive residency at the Divinity School to facilitate their study of Wesleyan heritage.

In addition to our major initiatives, Duke Divinity School has a number of other programs that extend the good news of God's salvation to disparate parts of our society. Our program in prison ministry sends divinity students into prisons in order to take classes alongside people who are incarcerated. The certificate in prison studies provides students with the opportunity to engage specifically with people in prison and the system that imprisons them in the context of theological education and formation for ministry. Thriving Rural Communities, a partnership between Duke Divinity School, The Duke Endowment, and the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Conferences of The United Methodist Church, helps divinity students, pastors, laity, districts, and conferences cultivate and strengthen Christian leadership and United Methodist congregations in rural North Carolina. The Duke Youth Academy for Christian Formation continues to offer high-school students an opportunity for intensive theological engagement and practice.

Several of our faculty were recognized this year for their scholarship and interdisciplinary expertise. Willie Jennings, associate professor of theology and black church studies, was given the prestigious 2015 Louisville Grawemeyer Award in Religion for his book, The Christian Imagination: Theology and the Origins of Race. The Grawemeyer Award in Religion, an annual $100,000 prize that honors and promotes insights into the study of religion, is given jointly by the University of Louisville and Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary. Norman Wirzba, professor of theology and ecology, was named a Henry Luce III Fellow for 2014-15, and he also received a major Sabbatical grant for Researchers from the Louisville Institute. These awards are supporting his current work on two book projects: From Nature to Creation: Christian Life in a Postnatural Age, and Creation, Creatureliness, and Creativity: An Essay on the Human Place in the World. Jennie Grillo, assistant professor of Old Testament, received a 2014 Manfred Lautenschlaeger Award for Theological Promise and a W. F. Albright Institute of Archeological Research fellowship to conduct research in Israel. Maria Doerfler, assistant professor of the history of Christianity in late antiquity, was named a visiting research fellow at New York University's Institute for the study of the Ancient World. Curtis Freeman, research professor of theology and director of the Baptist House of Studies, was appointed the chair the Baptist delegation in a five-year international dialogue between the Baptist World Alliance and the World Methodist Council. Richard Payne, Esther Colliflower Professor of Medicine and Divinity, was named to the Interagency Pain Research Coordinating Committee of the National Institutes of Health by the U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services. This is a federal advisory committee that supports pain research and promotes collaboration across the government to improve understanding of pain and pain-related treatments.

We continue to welcome students from a range of backgrounds who are called to serve God and the church. In 2014, our total enrollment was 656 students: 462 are enrolled in the M.Div. degree program; 36 in the M.T.S.; 12 in the Th.M.; 45 in the Th.D.; 54 in the D.Min.; 24 in the M.A.C.P.; 15 in the M.A.C.S.; and 3 who are special students. Thirty-nine percent of our students are United Methodist, with an additional 4 percent from other Wesleyan traditions, and 46 percent of our M.Div. students are United Methodist. Fourteen percent of all students are Baptist, 8 percent are Anglican or Episcopal, 3 percent are Roman Catholic, 7 percent are Presbyterian or Reformed, with the remaining 9 percent from other denominations or nondenominational churches.

In addition to the ongoing excellent academic and field education work done by students each year, several students had notable achievements. Two of the top three prizes in the Student Essays in Christian Wisdom competition sponsored by The Living Church magazine were claimed by Divinity School students: Kevin Rose M.Div.'16 won second place and John Zambenini M.Div.'15 won third place. Second-year M.Div. student Jacob Drake was selected to present a paper the Oxford University Byzantine Society international Graduate Conference held in Oxford, England. Michelle Wolfe M.Div.'14 was awarded a fellowship by FASPE (Fellowships at Auschwitz for the Study of Professional Ethics) to participate in a two-week program in New York, Germany, and Poland for an intensive study of contemporary ethics. Four divinity students, part of a research group in American religious history, were among the winners of grants for research projects using the Religion in North Carolina digital collection. Other students did exemplary work in organizing conferences for ministry to the sexually abused and issues in pastoral care for military veterans.

We remain deeply grateful for the relationships among The United Methodist Church, this Annual Conference, and Duke Divinity School. We look forward to working with you in the task of preparing men and women for Christian ministry. To learn more about Duke Divinity School, please visit our website at www.divinity.duke.edu.

FLORIDA SOUTHERN COLLEGE

Florida Southern College continues to perpetuate its tradition of offering the highest caliber of academic and student life programs in order to prepare students to make a positive and consequential impact on society. I am pleased to provide an update on our programs and share highlights of our achievements from the past year.

Florida Southern is proud of our highly active Campus Ministries and Church Relations Program comprising nine major student-led ministries directed by Rev. Timothy Wright '94 with the assistance of three full-time professionals. In addition to hosting the annual Campus Ministries retreat and Campus Ministries Block Party for the entire campus, FSC students started a new initiative: MocSoctober. Through this program, students collected over 1,000 pairs of socks to distribute to those in need in the Lakeland community and elsewhere. Also, through a second new outreach initiative called Love in Action, students raised funds to dig a well in Uganda to provide clean water to local villagers.

Florida Southern continues to be a place where students experience the call to ministry. This year, three of our outstanding seniors have been accepted to divinity school and will continue their studies in the fall. We are proud that Amy Scroggin will attend Duke Divinity School on a prestigious Duke Divinity Fellowship and will be joined by her classmate Allexis Willcox. ROTC Cadet Stephen Finocchiaro will attend Brite Divinity School at Texas Christian University in preparation for a career as an Army chaplain.

Our nationally recognized engaged learning program provided meaningful academic experiences for our students, including: First-year students participated in Yale University's Small World Initiative conducting original research designed to discover new antibiotics; education majors trained teachers in Honduras; nursing students provided health care to underserved populations, including families in Africa; political science students presented papers at the Southern Politics Symposium at The Citadel; and biology students conducted National Science Foundation-sponsored research.

Florida Southern students continue to earn recognition for academic excellence. English Writing major Laurel Milburn '14 was awarded a fully funded Graduate Fellowship for Columbia College of Chicago's elite MFA Poetry program. Political Science major Hunter Kaiser '14 won "Best Senator" honors at the Floyd Riddick Model Senate simulation. History major Anthony Woodside '16, Computer Science major Sean Mold '16, and English major Selys Rivera '17 presented papers at the Florida Historian Conference in February.

Our alumni also are being recognized for outstanding achievements. As a most notable example from this past year, Christie Bassett '07 was named Polk County Teacher of the Year and was subsequently honored as Florida Teacher of the Year. She is currently touring the state and the nation as Christa McAuliffe Ambassador for Education speaking on Florida's educational opportunities before returning to the classroom next year.

This past year, we launched two new graduate programs. The 16-month Master of Accountancy (MAcc) program prepares students for the certified public accounting examination and a career in accounting. It also affords qualified undergraduate students the opportunity to earn their bachelor's and MAcc degrees in four and one-half years. The College's first doctorate program was launched, the Doctorate in Educational Leadership (EdD) program, which is designed for teachers and administrators in K-12 schools who want to prepare for educational leadership positions, such as principal or superintendent.

A generous bequest from FSC alumna Lamar Louise Curry '27, an education major whose teaching career spanned more than 35 years, is enabling us to construct the Lamar Louise Curry Education Center. The Curry Education Center will be home to our graduate education programs and will include an auditorium that will accommodate all of our education majors for their joint meetings and instruction. Planning for the new building is currently under way, and we expect to break ground in fall 2015.

To better meet the needs of current students in our rapidly growing undergraduate and graduate nursing degree programs and in anticipation of the fall 2016 launch of a new Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree program, we are building a 2,500 square-foot second story addition to the Joe K. and Alberta Blanton Nursing Building. The addition, which will be completed this spring, will house supplementary laboratory and classroom space that is vital to enable us to continue to meet the rigorous standards required for our nursing accreditations as we further expand our nursing program.

Construction of the new 45,000-square foot, three-story Bill and Mary Ann Becker Business Building, the soon-to-be home of the Barney Barnett School of Business and Free Enterprise, began last spring, and we look forward to dedicating the building next fall. We are confident that this model instructional facility, featuring high-tech classrooms and meeting rooms, a state-of-the-art trading floor and computer lab, a video conference center, and other amenities will help us attract and retain outstanding faculty and students and support our quest to establish the Barnett School as one of the “Top 25” business schools in the nation.

The past year also has ushered in a new era for performing arts education at Florida Southern. We opened the new, 4,700 square-foot, state-of-the art Wynne Warden Dance Studio in November. We introduced new majors in musical theatre and dance, and welcomed Erin LaSala, assistant professor of dance, to create the new dance curriculum and serve as our first dance instructor. The Florida Dance Theatre accepted our invitation to partner with us as the professional dance company in residence at Florida Southern, and the Imperial Symphony Orchestra (ISO) relocated its administrative offices to our campus. The even closer working relationship that our music, theatre, and dance departments now have with these arts organizations will allow for a greater number of collaborative performances and more opportunities for our talented students to gain experience performing together with world-class professionals of the Florida Dance Theatre and the ISO.

A commitment to civic engagement and community service is a distinguishing feature of our campus culture at Florida Southern. As an example, the Barnett School’s chapter of Enactus, an international nonprofit organization for college students that promotes social responsibility in business, implemented three service projects that addressed needs in the Lakeland community: a food drive that collected 18,000 pounds of food for local food pantries; a delivery service through which FSC students can order fresh produce from local farmers; and a campaign to aid the Central Florida Speech and Hearing Center in promoting the use of the loop system, a technology that helps hearing-impaired individuals hear better in public spaces. The Enactus team presented their projects at the Enactus National Competition in Cincinnati and finished among the top 20 teams in a field of 200 teams from around the country.

Florida Southern continues to earn recognition as one of the nation’s best small private colleges. Florida Southern has been honored as a College of Distinction based on its excellence in four distinct categories: engagement of students, success of graduates, quality of faculty, and general atmosphere on campus. FSC is again included in The Princeton Review’s “379 Best Colleges” and in the prestigious Fiske Guide to Colleges 2015, and U.S. News & World Report ranks FSC #5 among Regional Colleges in the South and #1 in Florida in its annual rankings of “America’s Best Colleges.”

FSC’s NCAA Division II athletics program continues to earn its ranking among the nation’s top five programs. Ten of our 19 NCAA varsity teams competed in post-season play in the 2013-2014 academic year. All-American golfer Tim Crouch ’14 repeated his national championship, and standout tennis player Sabine Goge ’14 was nominated for NCAA Woman of the Year. Our Men’s Basketball Team won its third consecutive Sunshine State Conference (SSC) Tournament Championship while Coach Linc Darner earned his fifth SSC Coach of the Year title and All-American guard Kevin Capers ’15 was named SSC Player of the Year. Eighty-five Moccasin student-athletes received 2013-2014 NCAA Division II Academic Achievement Awards, and 198 were named to the SSC Commissioner’s Honor Roll.

I am grateful for the opportunity to share this update on Florida Southern’s progress. The accomplishments of the past year, and many others, would not be possible without the generous annual support of Florida United Methodist Conference, for which our college community is deeply thankful. I hope our achievements demonstrate that our students truly are outstanding, and that Florida Southern College is a worthy recipient of the Conference’s support.

FLORIDA UNITED METHODIST CHILDREN'S HOME

"Let the children come to me and do not stop them, because the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Remember this! Whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God like a child will never enter it."

- Luke 18:16-17

The mission statement of the Florida United Methodist Children's Home states that we are "to empower children and families to experience God's love and care as revealed in the ministry of Jesus Christ". This is what compels the ministry of the Children's Home forward. The foundation of all we do is the love and grace of Jesus Christ made real through the work and support of His Church.

We are fortunate at the Children's Home to be blessed with such outstanding professional men and women that compassionately work with each child that comes into care. Their work is truly inspiring. The Children's Home is a part of your family as a United Methodist Church institution. We have been on duty for 107 years and continue to serve as an extension of your local church to help you meet the needs of children and families with special needs. What began as the Florida Methodist Orphanage in 1908 has grown into a diverse ministry offering residential care on two campuses, therapeutic group care, emergency shelter care, foster care services, transitional and independent living assistance, career development training, on-campus school and education program and a community child care center. We typically touch the lives of approximately 400 children each and every day.

Throughout our 107-year history, FUMCH has been privileged to have strong, supportive Board of Trustees, whose commitment has allowed our organization to be innovative and responsive to the changing needs of Florida's children, youth and families. I would like to express my deep gratitude to our Trustees for their exceptional leadership and unwavering support.

Several important milestones have occurred during the past year. The most notable was the dedication of the Madison Youth Ranch on September 23, 2014. The event was attended by 750 people and marked the opening of the second campus of the Children's Home. Another first was the expansion of our on-campus school, Aldersgate Academy, to serve 24 residents with a unique learning environment for academic success. Finally, we opened a Heart & Home Resale Shop in Orange City, Florida in October 2014 to help provide support for the Children's Home and to offer additional opportunities for donations and volunteers. I invite you to celebrate the progress we have made without ever losing sight of the work we still need to do.

Each year it is our privilege to recognize individuals, churches and groups that have gone above and beyond to support and promote the Children's Home. For their exceptional efforts in 2014 we have awarded the following: "Pastor of the Year" – Reverend Bob Bushong of First UMC of Winter Park; "Church of the Year" – New Horizon UMC of Southwest Ranches; "Local Church Representative of the Year" – Carolyn Black of First UMC, High Springs; and "Mission Work Group of the Year" – St. John's UMC of Winter Haven. Please join me in lifting up these outstanding people who have made the ministry of the Florida United Methodist Children's Home a priority.

In 2014, we hosted our annual Day On Campus event in March with over 1,500 in attendance mainly from the North Central, North East and North West Districts. Other events included our Annual Alumni Reunion, Christmas activities, numerous mission work teams, many campus tours, hosting various church and community groups on our campus and much more.

The local church goal of giving in 2015 is set at $12.00 per member and will remain the same for 2016. We think this is a reasonable goal that every church should strive to meet. The Children's Home is an extension of your local church and a part of your family as United Methodists. We earnestly hope you are able to give beyond this minimum level of support. We request this historic plan be continued whereby on each Fifth Sunday and on Christmas Sunday, the church school offering and the undesignated offering (loose plate) received in Sunday worship services be remitted directly, along with special donations and gifts, to the Florida United Methodist Children's Home. Without this vital income, the Children's Home would face significant financial strain.

Thank you for reaching out in Christian compassion to partner with us to make a difference. We can rejoice with St. Paul when he writes to the Philippians, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Together we can accomplish great things for children youth and families.

FLORIDA UNITED METHODIST FOUNDATION

By the end of 2014, the Florida United Methodist Foundation had completed 48 years of service to the Florida Conference, continuing its mission “to strengthen ministries of United Methodist churches and agencies by promoting comprehensive Christian stewardship through education, consulting, development and financial services.”

Through the faithful stewardship of many churches and individuals, assets under management with the Foundation continued to grow. By the end of 2014, assets totaled $284 million, representing an increase of $2 million over the previous year.

The number of conference churches participating in the Foundation’s ministry also grew, with 487, or 71 percent, holding 1,115 accounts.

And thanks to gifts made to the Foundation, coupled with interest earned on accounts within the Development Fund and the Foundation’s investment funds, $5.6 million in new income became available to support churches, ministries and other nonprofit missions.

Investments

Church and conference agency investments in Foundation funds grew by $4.5 million to $104.2 million, generating earnings of $3.5 million. At the same time, Development Fund account investments totaled $73.7 million, generating $1.1 million in earnings.

In an effort to better serve investor needs, the Foundation expanded its fund portfolio from three to five, offering a greater selection of high quality, socially screened and broadly diversified funds that provide more flexibility, different time horizons and varied risk tolerance features.

Planned gifts managed by the Foundation, including trusts, charitable gift annuities, donor advised funds and endowments, totaled more than $41 million. And because the gifts are managed for the benefit of churches and other United Methodist charities, at least 40 percent of each gift’s residual amount went to a United Methodist ministry.

Development Fund

As of Dec. 31, 2014, assets in Development Fund accounts reached $132.6 million, including individual accounts totaling $58 million. These cumulative investments, made possible through a strong connectional system, enabled the Foundation to continue providing a low-interest loan program that fuels the growth and capital needs of new and existing churches and missions.

By the end of 2014, the Foundation’s loan portfolio was more than $116.6 million. Among the loan recipients were:

- 147-year-old Mt. Pleasant United Methodist Church in Gainesville, which was able to begin construction of a multi-use facility across from its historic sanctuary that will expand its ministry to the community;

Tampa Korean United Methodist Church, which purchased the former Crossroads Community United Methodist Church campus, utilizing the space for Christian ministry once again and enabling the church to accommodate a growing faith community; and
- Saint Paul’s United Methodist Church in Ocala, which began enhancing its campus and expanding its growing school in an area of the state that is finally experiencing economic recovery.

Mission

As the Foundation endeavors to achieve its mission and the goals of its strategic plan, it continues to look for innovative ways to preach and practice stewardship and support ministry.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

In early 2015, the Foundation partnered with the Florida Conference Office of Clergy Excellence to offer the Young Clergy Stewardship Academy, a stewardship and financial literacy training program for young clergy and ministry candidates. The session was designed to help clergy develop financial building blocks necessary for good personal and professional stewardship. A particular focus was student debt. A $50,000 grant from the denomination's Young Clergy Initiative Fund, established by the 2012 General Conference, provided funding for the pilot program, which could become a model for other conferences.

Empowering clergy and churches to meet financial challenges was also a focus of the Foundation's stewardship consulting services and educational seminars, which included the popular "R-10 and Counting" retirement workshop. Through its educational programming, the Foundation collaborated with the Florida Conference to provide resources for successful stewardship.

And guided by its strategic plan, which calls for developing closer and more innovative relationships with United Methodist-affiliated organizations in Florida, the Foundation and Bethune-Cookman University entered a new phase of their long-term partnership. The two signed an agreement that gives the Foundation planned giving responsibilities for the university, including planned giving consultations, gift administration and investment services.

The Foundation also continued to expand its outreach by strengthening its communications priorities. Based on a rebranding initiative conducted in 2014, the Foundation launched a new website and adopted a new logo that pairs a "spirit leaf" with the United Methodist cross and flame, symbolizing new life as the Foundation works to empower churches and ministries to thrive.

It is hoped that God will continue to bless these efforts and the many ministries of the conference as, together, all work to bring about His kingdom on earth.

PERKINS SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Perkins School of Theology celebrates our vital connections with the Florida Annual Conference, including recent Perkins graduate from Florida.

Total enrollment at Perkins exceeds 400 students, of which approximately two-thirds are United Methodist and more than one-third are ethnic minority students. Master's degree programs comprise approximately 51% female and 49% male students. The D.Min. program includes students from southern Asia taking classes in Singapore and Dallas. Our Ph.D. program comprises 30 active students, including two Latino Ph.D. students supported through a grant from the Luce Foundation to Perkins' Center for the Study of Latino/Christianity and Religions.

Dr. Jack Levison (Ph.D., Duke, 1985) joined the Perkins faculty as the third appointee to the W.J.A. Power Chair of Biblical Hebrew and Old Testament Interpretation. Dr. John Martin, new director of Development, came to Perkins after serving as president of Roberts Wesleyan College in Rochester, New York. Following a nationwide search, a senior scholar and teacher eligible for appointment to the Lois Craddock Perkins Chair in Homiletics is expected to join the Perkins faculty in fall 2015.

Perkins restructured its Master of Divinity degree, effective spring 2015, enabling full-time students to complete the program in three years and reducing overall cost of the degree. The M.Div. now requires 73 term hours of academic credit, including the nine-hour internship.

A new "Master of Arts in Ministry" (M.A.M.) degree has replaced the C.M.M. The M.A.M. offers five tracks: two previously-existing tracks in Christian Education and Urban Ministry, and new tracks in Theology and Social Justice, Christian Spirituality, and Evangelism and Mission.

A $2.5 million gift to SMU will establish the new Susanna Wesley Centennial Chair in Practical Theology at Perkins.

Perkins thanks our many colleagues, friends, and alumni/ae across the connection for generous support in many ways, including referrals of prospective students, as we continue our vital mission of preparing women and men for faithful leadership in Christian ministry.

Grace and Peace,

William B. Lawrence

UNITED METHODIST CONNECTIONAL FEDERAL CREDIT UNION

Throughout the years, your Board of Directors has adopted strategies for short and long-term goals that insure the Credit Union's future development and growth. During 2014, we continued to implement those endeavors necessary to maintain growth along with a strong financial picture.

Our achievements include:

Four $1,000.00 college scholarships were awarded to members ages 17 – 35 of the Florida, North Georgia, South Georgia and Alabama-West Florida Conferences.

We continue to fulfill our mission of "Supporting Those Who Support the Light of Christ" through our low-cost/no-cost financial services for our churches.

We implemented "SPRIG by CO-OP" – a smartphone, tablet and web app that allows members to make deposits, check balances, transfer money between accounts, pay loans and make person-to-person payments from virtually anywhere using the camera on their mobile device(s).

We continued to have several very successful car loan promotions that helped members reduce their monthly payments on their current loans at other financial institutions and obtain great rates on new vehicle purchases.

In 2015, we are introducing upgrades to our Protection Plus Checking that provide members with greater value and increased security and expanding our VISA Credit Card Program to include the ability for almost all members to obtain a credit card. Lastly, look for our new theme for 2015, "Helping People Afford Life" as a part of all of our communication efforts with you. And, make sure you let other eligible family members and friends know the value of credit union membership too!

Of course, all of this could not have been achieved without our staff, my fellow board members, and other volunteers that helped make 2014 another great year for your Credit union. Most importantly, however, I want to thank you, our members, for continuing to do business with your credit union.

We're Safe. We're Secure. We Are Your Credit Union!
James R. Mitchell, Chairman

LAKE JUNALUSKA ASSEMBLY, INC.

On February 10, 2015 Lake Junaluska, the Southeastern Jurisdiction of The United Methodist Church, the United States, and the world lost a great leader. Rev. Dr. R. Wright Spears died at the age of 102. He served as a pastor to multiple churches in South Carolina and as the President of Columbia College for 26 years, a time during which he helped that institution navigate momentous social changes. Dr. Spears and his wife Mary Blue retired to Lake Junaluska in 1977 where he continued to promote social justice in all forms. Few organizations have in their history a person as influential as Dr. Spears. He had a vision for Lake Junaluska, and spent his years here quietly encouraging us all to more fully live into the Kingdom of God through our mission of Christian hospitality. Arguably the most influential person at Lake Junaluska in the last 50 years, in both formal leadership roles and quiet behind the scenes work, he understood the importance of balancing the budget while offering a great experience to our guests. He urged us to offer great programming, and at the age of 95 was instrumental in launching the Lake Junaluska Peace Conference. Dr. Spears understood that offering Christian hospitality goes beyond simply welcoming our paying customers. At our best, we are what he envisioned us to be: a place that welcomes all and provides transforming and renewing spiritual experiences and a place that pays attention to the bottom line and is operated more like a college than a church camp. We have a long way to go to be the perfect fulfillment of Wright's vision for Lake Junaluska, but we are further along that path today and more inspired to fulfill our mission "to be a place of Christian hospitality where lives are transformed through renewal of soul, mind, and body" than ever thanks to his influence.

For the third year in a row, we ended the year "in the black." We continue to accomplish this without any Operational Apportionment support from the Southeastern Jurisdiction. Lake Junaluska has embraced the new financial model that was approved by the 2008 SEJ Conference and we remain committed to always "live within our means." 2014 was a record breaking year for charitable giving. We received $1,079,994 from 1,257 individuals. This represents a 34.4% increase in total giving over 2013 and a 2.6% increase in number of donors.

We continue to refine and implement our plans for improvements to our facilities, grounds, and programs. Plans were approved in 2014 to begin an extensive renovation of The Terrace hotel, a project that will have a significant impact on the quality of the guest rooms and public spaces in that facility and will influence the level of service provided to all of our lodging guests. We completed all of the projects planned in 2013 including converting the Jones Dining Hall into a year round facility, renovating the children's playground at the Wilson Children's Building, and numerous improvements to the lake front consisting of a new boat storage area along with a boat dock and fishing pier just to the north of the swimming pool and a beautiful meditation garden to the south. We are working diligently to refine and improve our existing programming for youth and adults and continually seek to implement new innovative programs that align with our mission.

As a member of The United Methodist Church within the Southeastern Jurisdiction we want you to know that "your" asset, Lake Junaluska, is doing very well. You can be very proud of this important organization within the jurisdiction and the larger United Methodist Church. We are striving to be good stewards of the resources with which you have entrusted us and to carry on the legacy of Dr. Wright Spears.

If you haven't already, please pick up a copy of our 2015 program, Discover Lake Junaluska. Peruse its pages to read about the impact of our programs, to learn about new projects we are working on, and to familiarize yourself with our calendar of events. We do hope you can come and visit us this year for a conference, a retreat, or a vacation to be transformed and renewed in soul, mind, and body.

RESOLUTIONS

RESOLUTION TO REQUEST THAT THE FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION LIMIT THE ADVERTISING OF SEXUALLY ORIENTED PRODUCTS

Whereas we acknowledge that children are one of God's greatest and most precious gifts to us, and that as parents and guardians we are charged with the responsibility to protect, nurture and teach our children in a way that will honor God; and

Whereas parents should be given the opportunity to raise their children in a safe and wholesome environment, and should have the right to choose when and how to teach their children about sexually sensitive topics; and

Whereas parents, in many cases, choose options in their homes for controlling and limiting the programs their children watch on television and the websites they visit; and

Whereas televisions are available in many public places where children are present but over which their parents have no control; and additionally,

Whereas parents in most cases cannot control the advertising to which their children are exposed; and

Whereas we believe that viewing advertisements for "male enhancement" aids and other sexually oriented products, for both male and female use, is not appropriate for young children;

Be it therefore resolved that the Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church send a copy of this resolution to the Federal Communications Commission, both electronically and through the United States Postal Service, requesting that the advertising of such products on television be limited to times and programs when young children would least likely be watching.

Be it further resolved that concerned members of the Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church be encouraged to personally write to the Federal Communications Commission, their local television stations, and their cable and satellite providers, expressing their dissatisfaction with inappropriate advertising.

Be it further resolved that in the implementation and distribution of this Resolution, we do not foresee any financial impact to the Conference for this Resolution.

This motion is presented by Becky Watson, lay member of the Florida Annual Conference, and the members of Community United Methodist Church, Belle Glade, and Atlantic Central District, as approved at the Leadership Council Meeting on 1-20-15.

RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF FLORIDA FARMWORKERS

Whereas, for decades, Florida farmworkers worked for sub-poverty wages, have been excluded from fundamental labor rights like the right to overtime pay and benefits, and have faced sexual harassment, verbal and physical abuse, and in the most extreme cases, modern-day slavery in order to harvest the food on our plates; and

Whereas, since 1997, federal officials have successfully prosecuted seven slavery operations in Florida's fields, involving over 1,200 workers; and

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part III

Whereas, after more than a decade of education, outreach, and action in its Campaign for Fair Food, the Coalition of Immokalee Workers (CIW) — an internationally recognized farmworker organization based in Southwest Florida — has developed the Fair Food Program, a creative and historic partnership among farmworkers, the vast majority of Florida tomato growers, and thirteen major food corporations; and

Whereas, through their commitment to the Fair Food Program, these corporations — among them Taco Bell, McDonald's, Subway, Whole Foods, The Fresh Market and Walmart — commit to:

- pay a Fair Food Premium for the tomatoes they buy from Florida which is paid to farmworkers in the form of a bonus;
- buy only from suppliers who comply with the Fair Food code of conduct, which includes the provision of time clocks, shade, water and bathrooms, the right to form participatory health and safety committees, and a zero tolerance policy for sexual harassment and slavery, and
- respect farmworkers as equal partners in monitoring and administering the agreement.

Whereas, through the Fair Food Program, far-reaching reforms have spread across the $650 million Florida tomato industry affecting tens of thousands of workers, including nearly $15 million in Fair Food Premium paid by participating buyers to improve workers' wages; industry-wide implementation of a 24-hours worker complaint hotline and a rapid, effective complaint investigation and resolution process; a worker-to-worker education process conducted by CIW on the farms and in company time to ensure that workers understand their new rights and responsibilities; a human rights-based Code of Conduct with enforceable zero-tolerance policies for forced labor, child labor, violence and sexual assault; and industry-wide monitoring by the third party organization, the Fair Food Standards Council;¹ and

Whereas, the Fair Food Program has been honored various times by the White House for its success in eliminating modern-day slavery, and was praised on the front page of the New York Times as "the best workplace monitoring program in the US"² and in the Washington Post as "one of the great human rights success stories of our day;"³ and

Whereas, participation of more major buyers of tomatoes in the Fair Food Program is essential to eliminate the alternative market in which traditional abuses continue and enable the expansion of the Program into other states and crops; and

Whereas, the Social Principles of The United Methodist Church holds that:

- "Every person has the right to a job at a living wage... We believe that persons come before profits... We support policies that encourage the sharing of ideas in the workplace, cooperative and collective work arrangements..."⁴
- "Workers from other countries are in many societies an important resource to fill the society's need of workers. But foreign workers too often meet exploitation, absence of protecting laws, and unreasonable wages and working conditions. We call upon governments and all employers to ensure for foreign workers the same economic, educational, and social benefits enjoyed by other citizens."⁵
- "Corporations are responsible not only to their stockholders, but also to other stakeholders: their workers, suppliers, vendors, customers, the communities in which they do business, and for the earth, which supports them. We support the public's right to know what impact corporations have in these various arenas, so that people can make informed choices about which corporations to support. We applaud corporations that voluntarily comply with standards that promote human well-being and protect the environment;"⁶ and

Whereas, Publix, Florida's largest privately-owned company, has declined to even meet with farmworkers of the CIW to discuss joining the Fair Food Program for over five years, despite calls from farmworkers and consumers of faith and conscience through thousands of letters and prayers, a six-day fast, and peaceful marches of up to 200 miles; and

Whereas, United Methodists from across Florida have stood with the CIW for decades in echoing calls for justice, giving rise to the transformational changes in the fields ensuring dignity and respect for tens of thousands of farmworkers; and

Whereas, the 2005 General Conference passed a resolution in support of the CIW's efforts to call on Taco Bell to sign a Fair Food Agreement, after which they became the first corporation to do so;⁷

Therefore be it resolved, that the Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church supports the groundbreaking changes in Florida agriculture ushered in by the Fair Food Program.

Be it further resolved, that the Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church calls on Publix Supermarkets to uphold farmworkers' human rights by joining the Fair Food Program.

Approval of this resolution would not require any financial obligation of the Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church.

Upon approval of this resolution, the Conference Secretary will compose and send a letter on behalf of The Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, to corporations the Coalition of Immokalee Workers is presently inviting to join the Fair Food Program, such as Publix Supermarkets and Wendy's. Continual correspondence and conversation by United Methodists throughout The Florida Conference will be encouraged until said corporations become full participants in the Fair Food Program."

ENCOURAGING JUST RESOLUTION PROCESS

Whereas, it is now legal in the state of Florida for same-sex couples to be married.

Whereas, it is only a matter of time until scores of our ordained clergy in the Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church are asked by their sons, daughters, long-time members of their congregation or members of the community to either officiate or request the use of United Methodist church buildings to host same-sex weddings.

Whereas, those requests are in direct conflict with our United Methodist Book of Discipline ¶1341.6 and ¶12702.1b (BOD 2012) and could be interpreted as unauthorized conduct or chargeable offenses that could lead to church trials. Pastors and leaders of our congregations will be put in the unfortunate position time and time again of having to choose between these portions of the Book of Discipline and the section that states "we commit ourselves to be in ministry for and with all persons." (BOD 2012, ¶161)

Whereas, on the national scene we have recently had two examples of addressing complaints brought against clergy within our denomination in the cases of The Rev. Frank Schaefer and Bishop Melvin G. Talbert. The ensuing aftermath of the church trial involving the Rev. Frank Schaefer, his bishop, and the Eastern Pennsylvania Annual Conference brought on enormous negative publicity toward our denomination with its decision to remove Rev. Schaefer's ministerial credentials and then reinstate those credentials. It was also financially costly and very time consuming drawing precious resources away from critical ministries of the church. With the complaint brought against Bishop Melvin G. Talbert, the episcopal leadership involved determined that the just resolution process as outlined in ¶363.1c was an appropriate option to resolve the complaint. That process was much more humane and dignified.

Whereas, it was requested in Just Resolution Agreement related to Bishop Talbert, “that the Council of Bishops acknowledge that ways of resolving disagreements within a community of faith should be distinct from those of a civil judicial process.”

Be it therefore resolved, that this meeting of the Florida Annual Conference strongly encourage our bishop and cabinet that any complaint brought forward against an ordained pastor or against a congregation in violation of ¶341.6 or ¶2702.1b be resolved through just resolution rather than through a church trial.

Note: This resolution brings no additional financial cost to any Conference agency or committee and there are no programmatic implications for which a Conference staff person would be responsible.

RESOLUTION TO SUPPORT THE UNBORN CHILD AND ITS MOTHER

Whereas our Lord Jesus commands us, “I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another (John 13:34 NRSV),” and “You shall love your neighbor as yourself” (Matthew 22:39 NRSV), and our Lord also declares “I was a stranger, and you invited Me in; (Mat 25:35 NAS) and, “Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these who are members of my family, you did it to me” (Matthew 25:40 NRSV); and

Whereas as United Methodists, we believe that Christ died for all persons, (John 3:16) and our Discipline states, that, “Primary for us is the Gospel understanding that all persons are important-because they are human beings created by God and loved through and by Jesus Christ and not because they have merited significance.”(2012 Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church, Paragraph 161, page 108); and

Whereas, the Bible declares that all humans are distinctively created in the image of God, (Genesis 1:27); and

Whereas, followers of Christ are required to, “...do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God.” (Micah 6:8 NRSV); and

Whereas our Discipline states: “We mourn, and are committed to promoting the diminishment of, high abortion rates. The Church shall encourage ministries to reduce unintended pregnancies such as comprehensive, age-appropriate sexuality education, advocacy in regard to contraception, and support of initiatives that enhance the quality of life for all women and girls around the globe. We particularly encourage the Church, the government, and social service agencies to support and facilitate the option of adoption. (See ¶ 161L.) We affirm and encourage the Church to assist the ministry of crisis pregnancy centers and pregnancy resource centers that compassionately help women find feasible alternatives to abortion (See ¶ 161J.)”; and

Whereas, according to the widely respected and politically pro-choice Guttmacher Institute, in 2011(the latest year for which full statistics are available), 84,990 women obtained abortions in the state of Florida (Guttmacher Institute, “State Facts about Abortion: Florida”, available from <http://www.guttmacher.org/pubs/sfaa/florida.html>); accessed 27 January 2015); and Whereas, our Bishop Carter has proclaimed, “A consistent ethic of hospitality would call us to welcome the unborn as the stranger.” Consistent Ethic of Hospitality: Including the Unborn in Our Inclusiveness. (<http://wesleyanaccent.seedbed.com/2014/01/25/bishop-ken-carter-a-consistent-ethic-of-hospitality-including-the-unborn-in-our-inclusiveness/>)

Therefore, we as members of the Florida Conference of The United Methodist Church, recognize unborn children as our “neighbors” ((Matthew 22:39 NRSV) whom we are to love, as “strangers” (Mat 25:35 NAS) whom we are to welcome, as “the least of these.” (Matthew 25:40 NRSV)

Therefore, we as members of the Florida United Methodist Conference, in accordance with scripture and our United Methodist Discipline, affirm our belief in the sanctity of unborn human life, and respect the sacredness of the life and well-being of the mother as well as the unborn child. Further, we recognize tragic conflicts of life with life that may justify abortion. We call all Christians to a searching and prayerful inquiry into the sorts of conditions that may cause them to consider abortion. We entrust God to provide guidance, wisdom, and discernment to those facing an unintended pregnancy.

Be it further resolved that we urge local pastors to become informed about the symptoms and behaviors associated with post-abortion stress. We further encourage local churches to make available contact information for counseling agencies that offer programs to address post-abortion stress for all seeking help.

Be it further resolved that in the implementation and distribution of this Resolution, we do not foresee any financial impact to the Conference for this Resolution.

CREATION CARE RESOLUTION

Be it resolved to live a Godly life, acceptable to the father through God's creation

WHEREAS, Genesis 2:15 states that we are to tend the garden that God made

WHEREAS, God formed us from this sacred place, providing for our sustenance and commanded us to work it and keep it; his holy creation

WHEREAS, we, the people of The United Methodist Church recognize that we are heirs of God's creation

WHEREAS, we are to be faithful stewards of the garden, blessed with these gifts to bless others and those yet to be born

WHEREAS, we, as God's children, are responsible for the way we live and use God's creation, the natural environment

NOW THEREFORE, let it be resolved that our churches adopt creation care practices, planned annually through a committee under the guidance of a mentor to implement in all areas of ministry and mission

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that our theology, doctrine, education and outreach be an effective witness to these biblical commands for future generations

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that to this end we will teach our children to care for the garden that God made and to be faithful stewards as creation belongs to our God, the divine gardener

There is no financial impact of this resolution on the Annual Conference.

This speech will not count against the debate limitations referenced in Standing Rule 207.
 4. Resolutions Involving, or Potentially Involving, Other Conference Agencies.  - c. Treasurer Oversees Budgets. The Conference Treasurer shall manage all expenditures of the Annual Conference.
 - d. Checks Payable to Entities. Checks written to agencies, boards, districts, committees, commissions, or institutions shall be made payable in the name of the particular entity and not to any individual related to the entity.
 - e. Administrative and Program Budgets Required. In cooperation with the Treasurer's office, each organization shall designate in its annual budget an administrative budget (which shall include all fixed - costs, including staff payroll and benefits, taxes, utilities, debt service, insurance, etc.) and a program budget. Administrative costs shall have priority of payment.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part IV

- f. Advances and Budget Changes. Advances against anticipated income for a program may be made if funds are available. Changes to the administrative budget may be made with CF&A approval. Changes to the program budget may be made with CF&A approval when requested by the agency involved. Requests for making changes in budgets and for funding of unbudgeted projects or programs may be brought to CF&A for consideration.
 - g. Zero-base budgeting; budget requirements. The annual budgets for all Conference program and administrative entities shall be prepared on a zero-base. It is intended that all programs, projects, and functions, old and new, be analyzed and re-evaluated on a year-to-year basis; that groups requesting budgeted funds shall frame their request in terms of the Conference vision and mission; and that groups justify their requests in detail to explain why money is needed, specifically what it will be used for, the resulting benefits, and what would result if the request were denied. The groups requesting budgeted funds shall propose alternative courses of action, suggest levels of funding to fulfill pre-stated goals, and rank proposed activities in their order of importance. CF&A shall prepare guidelines to assist the groups requesting budgeted funds in their preparation of annual budget requests in accordance with this standing rule.
 - h. Financial Reports/Audits Required. All entities, including the districts, receiving funds through the CF&A or the Conference Treasurer's office shall present an annual financial report and/or audit to CF&A following the guidelines and within the time frame as specified by CF&A, including a statement of all monies held in reserve accounts. When there is failure to comply with this rule, CF&A may decline to consider requests for funds for the following year and/or may withhold funds until such report is received.
 - i. Conference Reserve Fund. CF&A is authorized to maintain a Conference reserve fund which may consist of: funds budgeted for that purpose; funds received from whatever source for activities which have been terminated and which remain unused; year-end unused balances in the budget of conference program and administrative areas; and income earned by the investment of the cash flow in the Conference Treasury. The Conference reserve fund may be used to manage cash flow and/or allocated to specific needs as approved by CF&A. Status and uses of the Conference reserve fund shall be reported at regular sessions of the Annual Conference.
 - j. Executive Committee Acts as Personnel Committee. The Executive Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration, including the Bishop or the Bishop's designee, the Conference Treasurer, the Director of Connectional Ministries, and the Human Resources Director shall serve as the Personnel Committee for Conference employees and shall be responsible for setting policy, benefits, and compensation; and handling grievances. This rule does not limit the role of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry or the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits in relation to clergy matters.
 - k. Emergency Borrowing. In the event of a major emergency between sessions of Annual Conference and with the approval of the Bishop and a four-fifths majority of the Cabinet, a four-fifths majority of the Trustees, and a four-fifths majority of the Council on Finance and Administration, the Council on Finance and Administration may borrow up to one million dollars and/or, with the consent of other agencies, may suspend payment of, or reallocate, monies within the Conference budget.
 - l. Approval Required for Obligations in Excess of Budget or Resources. No agency or entity of the Conference shall be allowed to obligate itself beyond its approved budget or available resources without the prior approval of the Cabinet and CF&A. This rule does not apply to Bethune-Cookman College, Florida Southern College, the Florida United Methodist Children's Home, the Florida Conference Foundation, or to District Boards of Mission and Church Extension.
5. Policies of the Council.
- a. Mileage Allowance. The mileage allowance for all persons traveling by automobile for conference meetings is set at the IRS allowable business rate plus tolls actually paid. Actual expenses for travel by other means will be reimbursed up to, but not exceeding, the above mileage rate. Per diem amounts will be set by the executive committee of the Council on Finance and Administration (CF&A); in hardship situations the Chairperson of CF&A, in consultation with the conference treasurer, may adjust these amounts. Persons authorized to represent the conference in an official capacity in meetings beyond conference bounds may be reimbursed for actual expenses. Prior approval from the conference treasurer is required for reimbursement. The group or person requesting approval must also indicate which fund will be used for reimbursement. In keeping with the spirit of good stewardship, expenses are to be kept to a minimum. To maximize resources of both time and money, conference groups should meet only when necessary to accomplish conference business. Whenever possible, groups are also encouraged to schedule meetings in conjunction with other conference events.

- b. Housing Allowances to Conference employees. Housing allowances, when provided to employees of conference institutions and groups, shall be based on the prevailing rental rate in the area in which the staff member housing is located. Professional staff occupying conference-owned parsonages are responsible for stewardship of the parsonages in accordance with the Florida Annual Conference Parsonage Guidelines as published in the 2008 Conference Journal and/or as amended.
- c. Fair Share Formula for Apportionments. The fair share formula shall be used to determine the local church apportionment for all conference and general church budget areas. The fair share formula is based on the items as reported in lines 53 through 62 of Table II of the most recent year-end statistical report compiled by the conference statistician. These items include Pastor & Associate Compensation, Deacon & Diaconal Compensation, Other Staff Compensation, Current Expenses for Program, and Current Operating Expenses. Compensation includes housing allowances and housing related expenses paid to Pastors, Associates, Deacons, Diaconals, and other staff. In reporting Operating Expenses, churches should not include payments made to the conference for the conference's ministry protection program for property and casualty, workers compensation, or automobile insurance. Each local church should include only those expenses of their "tuition based" school actually paid by the local church. Expenses of the school, paid by tuitions, are not to be included. The Florida Annual Conference recognizes the importance of New Church Development and the role of the Mother/Daughter relationship. Therefore the expenses of the Daughter church, which are paid by the Mother church, should not be included in the operating expenses of the Mother church for the purpose of computing apportionments; such expenses are to be reported by the daughter church. The total amount spent on these items in each local church is divided by the total amount spent on these items for all conference churches. This calculation determines each local church's fair share percentage or decimal. This fair share decimal is then multiplied by the amount approved for each area in the conference budget to determine the amount each local church is asked to give. Each district shall ensure that the total amount apportioned to the churches in that district is fully paid. Each district may decide how the apportionments within the district will be shared by the churches in order to achieve the 100 percent goal. Any Clergy Support apportionment and Episcopal Fund apportionment not fully paid by a church shall be carried forward to the next year and added to that church's apportionment. Apportionments shall be given in full and on a timely basis. Local churches are encouraged to give 10 percent of each apportionment item per month during the first 10 months of the year.
- d. District Work Fund Apportionment Formula. District Work Fund apportionments shall be calculated using the same formula for all churches in every district throughout the Conference, based on the compensation paid to the church's pastor(s) and other appointed clergy. The Cabinet and CF&A together shall establish an upper limit percentage to use in this formula so that district-level mission, ministry and administration are adequately funded, in keeping with the spirit of good stewardship, while taking into consideration the individual districts needs and resources.
- e. Not obligating Conference funds in excess of anticipated income. Except as otherwise provided in these Standing Rules or in the Discipline, no agency, individual or group may obligate conference funds in excess of anticipated income. CF&A shall have authority to make amendments to a budget to accommodate pressing needs but those amendments must be proposed to CF&A for consideration and will be considered in the context of available funds and other conference priorities. Funds will be available "On Ratio" as received. See particularly Standing Rule 419.4.b, 419.4.c, 419.4.f, and 419.4.i.
- f. Budget Submission Policies. Any board, agency or other entity seeking funding in the conference budget shall submit their budget requests to the conference treasurer not later than the tenth day of January for inclusion in the budget to be presented to the Annual Conference that year. The CF&A executive committee may grant reasonable extensions to the deadline. Any entity that has designated or other funds available to them will provide that information when submitting their budget requests. Each group's budget request must be in the format and include the information requested by CF&A. The budget request must include line item explanation of the amounts requested and show the signature of the chairperson or secretary of the group.

- g. Line of Credit. The Council on Finance and Administration is authorized to negotiate favorable rates for and to establish a loan or line of credit (secured or unsecured) not to exceed $1 million ($1,000,000). In the event of a financial shortfall this loan or line of credit would be used to manage cash flow needs for operations of the Conference. Any use of this loan or line of credit shall be reported to the Annual Conference upon its next meeting.
- h. Empowerment to Act Between Sessions of Annual Conference. The Council on Finance and Administration, in consultation with the Bishop, is empowered to act on financial matters between sessions of the Annual Conference. Such actions shall be reported to the Annual Conference upon its next meeting.
- i. Executive Committee is Personnel Committee. The Executive Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration shall be the Personnel Committee of the Conference, and shall have authority to act on all personnel matters, including, but not limited to matters concerning staff compensation, employment, and other human resource matters. These decisions will be made after careful study, research, evaluation and consultation with appropriate experts, consultants and other resources available at the time.
- j. Salaries for District Superintendents. The salaries for district superintendents will fluctuate annually according to the percentage change in the Florida Conference Average Compensation of clergy members, as calculated and published by the General Board of Pensions and Health Benefits. Additionally, each district superintendent will be reimbursed for business expenses, included business travel, at the IRS allowable business rate.

Par. 421. Conference Board of Trustees

- 1. Establishment. Pursuant to ¶ 2512 of the Discipline, there shall be a Conference Board of Trustees (Trustees).
- 2. Trustees Hold Title. The title to all Conference-owned property shall be held by the Board of Trustees of the Florida Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, Inc., except those properties held by other incorporated bodies authorized by the Conference.
- 3. Legal Status of Property. The legal status of all property belonging to the Conference, including the tax status, shall be the responsibility of the Trustees.
- 4. Insurance Coverage. The Trustees hold responsibility for seeing that adequate insurance coverage, as determined in cooperation with the Conference Ministry Protection committee, is provided for all Conference-owned property and facilities.
- 5. Responsible Use of Property. The Trustees shall work cooperatively with all Conference agencies in plans for responsible use of Conference-owned property and facilities.
- 6. Trustee Approval Required. The Trustees shall approve acquisitions of real property, construction of new buildings, additions to existing facilities, and capital improvements to Conference-owned property.
- 7. Review of Building Plans. Before a building can be built, altered, or purchased 1) by a Conference agency with the Trustees holding title; or 2) with direct appropriations from the Conference budget; the Trustees must review and approve any plans at both the preliminary and final drawing stages and/or approve the purchase. The cost of this review shall be assessed against the projects involved.
- 8. Capital Maintenance Endowments. It is expected that the cost of all new buildings shall include funding for a capital maintenance endowment designated to pay for some of the future capital maintenance needs of the building.
- 9. Repair and Maintenance. The Trustees are responsible for ensuring that repair and maintenance of all Conference-owned property is properly carried out by the agencies that oversee them.
- 10. Staff Housing for Clergy. Where residences are owned by the Conference and available, staff persons are to reside in them. Maintenance for the housing will be paid by the Conference Agency that hired the staff person. In cases where a housing allowance is paid in lieu of a parsonage, the employing entity shall negotiate a satisfactory housing allowance and be responsible for paying it.
- 11. Certificate of Insurance Required. A certificate of insurance shall be furnished to the Conference Board of Trustees by companies performing work on Conference property. The Trustees shall require Conference agencies, which control the use of Conference-owned property, to provide adequate insurance to cover all legal liability of the Trustees and those using the property.

Par. 422. Ministry Protection Committee

1. Establishment and Purpose. There shall be a Ministry Protection Committee that shall have overall supervision of the Property, Liability, Workers Compensation, and other related insurance and Ministry Protection programs of the Florida Annual Conference. The Committee shall report to, and be amenable to, the Conference Council on Finance and Administration. The Committee shall serve as an intermediary in explaining, negotiating, and implementing the Conference-wide Ministry Protection program with all church-related entities that are involved in the program. The Committee shall have responsibility for selecting the broker of record, negotiating insurance contracts, designating the types and limits of insurance included in the program, establishing the financial parameters of the program, and other appropriate matters relating to the Conference-wide Ministry Protection program.
2. Risk Manager Expenses. The positions of Risk Manager and support staff shall be established within the office of the Conference Treasurer. Budgeting of the Ministry Protection Department and the expenses of this Committee are contained within the administrative management fee of the Ministry Protection program. These fees are to be paid out of premiums, not apportionments, are to be reviewed and approved by the Committee, and are subject to approval by the Conference Council on Finance and Administration.
3. Membership. The Committee will consist of eight members-at-large, who will be placed in four classes of two persons each, and who will serve for four year terms. The Committee will not be limited to, but must include, members with insurance, legal, pastoral, and financial experience. The Conference Council on Finance and Administration will appoint from among its membership one member with voice and vote to this Committee. The Conference Trustees will appoint from among its membership one member with voice and vote to this Committee. The Cabinet will appoint one District Superintendent to this Committee. The Cabinet representative, the Conference Chancellor, the Conference Treasurer, and the Conference Risk Manager will serve as ex-officio members of the Committee. The Committee, at its discretion, may invite others to serve as ex-officio advisors to the Committee.
4. Officers. The Committee shall nominate, and the Conference Council on Finance and Administration shall elect, the Chair, Vice-chair, and (if needed) other officers of the Committee."

Par. 423. The Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits (CBOPHB) shall have the organization and function of the predecessor Board of Pensions.

1. Membership. The Board shall consist of twenty-one members: one third laywomen, one third laymen, and one third clergy, elected for a term of eight years and arranged in two classes as nearly equal as possible so that one half will rotate each quadrennium. A District Superintendent appointed by the Bishop, the Director of Human Resources and Benefits, the Conference Treasurer and the Assistant Treasurer for Administration shall serve as ex-officio members. Additional ex-officio members with voice, but without vote, who bring special interest and skills may be added to the CBOPHB as needed.
2. Officers. The Board shall elect from its membership a Chair, a Vice-Chair, Secretary and a Chair of the Preacher's Relief Board. The Vice-Chair shall also Chair the Health Insurance Subcommittee and shall represent the Conference in matters related to health insurance. All members of the CBOPHB are also members of the Preacher's Relief Board.
3. Qualifying for Conference Sponsored Retiree Health Insurance Program. These provisions are only available for fulltime clergy who are ordained ministers, deacons or Board approved local pastors as well as members of the Florida Annual Conference.
4. Administrative Rules Governing Eligibility & Benefits for Retiree Health Insurance Program are as follows:

Grandfathered Plan

The Conference provides support to retired clergy to purchase health insurance when these criteria are met:

- A clergy person must have a minimum of 10 years of service in Florida and credits are limited to 40 years for awarding service credits.
- The individual must be serving in an appointment made by the Bishop of the Florida Conference and enrolled in the Conference health insurance program at the time of retirement. In addition, he/she must be continuously enrolled in the health insurance program for a minimum of five years immediately prior to retirement.

- For those who began service in the Florida Conference prior to January 1, 2003, all years of service in all conferences of The United Methodist Church will be credited.
- The Conference funding applies to the retired clergy's spouse (credits will only be extended to the clergy members spouse at the time of retirement) and will continue for the spouse even if the clergy precedes the spouse in death.

New Retiree Health Insurance Benefit Effective July 1, 2014:

The new benefit is a Health Reimbursement Account (HRA) arrangement. The HRA is an account-based plan that provides an annual subsidy for the purchase of health insurance in retirement based upon total years of service at the time of retirement in the Florida Conference. The following are specific details on plan eligibility and benefit provisions:

- As of 7-1-2014 those clergy age 64 or those age 55 or older with a minimum of 35 years of service and are serving in an appointment made by the Bishop of the Florida Conference and are enrolled in the Conference health insurance program on July 1, 2014 may elect the credit-based health insurance plan when they retire as outlined above for themselves and any eligible spouse. Or, they can elect the new HRA program. It is their choice at the time of retirement. This group is "grandfathered" with the credit-based plan remaining an option.
- Clergy who transferred their membership to the Florida Conference after 1/1/2003 will not receive credit for prior service in other Annual Conferences.
- HRA Plan Eligibility. All other clergy serving full time under Episcopal appointment and enrolled in the Conference health insurance program on July 1, 2014 will be eligible for the new HRA benefit upon retirement. Full time is defined as an appointment at or above minimum salary for each type of clergy category as defined in the Conference journal. Clergy must be enrolled in the Conference health insurance program at the time of retirement. In addition, they must be continuously enrolled in the health insurance program for four of the last five years immediately prior to retirement.
- Anyone not meeting the HRA Plan eligibility requirements as of 7-1-2014 (and is not grandfathered) is not eligible for a future HRA benefit or any subsidy from the Conference for the purchase of health insurance as a retiree.
- These changes do not affect existing retirees and are effective for retirements on or after July 1, 2014.
- As of July 1, 2014, service credits for clergy who are currently on leave or clergy who take a future personal, sabbatical, transitional, family leave of absence or any other non-paid leave are limited to 12 months. Non-paid leaves of more than 12 months will not be included as credited service for HRA eligibility.
- Clergy receiving a disability benefit from the Clergy Protection Plan (CPP) will be subject to the same eligibility rules for the grandfathered or HRA plan upon retirement. Service credits will be awarded to clergy while receiving CPP disability benefits.
- HRA Plan Benefit Provisions. Effective July 1, 2014 those eligible clergy who complete a minimum of 10 years of service and are at least age 60 will receive an annual HRA contribution upon retirement.
- The amount of the annual HRA contribution will vary with the retiree's age and service at retirement. The schedule below illustrates the annual contributions based on age and service at retirement.
- Clergy couples will be provided individual HRA account contributions based on their own individual age and service at retirement.
- A retiree's spouse at time of retirement (who is not receiving an individual HRA contribution under this plan and is at least age 60) will receive an annual HRA contribution equal to 75% of the retiree's amount rounded to the nearest $100 upon the death of the retiree. The surviving spouse will continue receiving the annual HRA contribution until their death or re-marriage.

Surviving spouses of actively working clergy:

Eligible for HRA: Surviving spouses of clergy who pass away while actively working and are eligible for retirement are extended Continuation coverage through the group health plan for 60 days. The Conference will pay the employer's premium and the individual is responsible for the employee's premium. The surviving spouse is eligible for the retiree health insurance HRA when she/he reaches age 60.

Not eligible for HRA: Surviving spouses of clergy who pass away while actively working and are not eligible for retirement are extended Continuation coverage through the group health plan for 60 days. The Conference will pay the employer's premium and the individual is responsible for the employee's premium. No further health insurance benefits are provided.

- The CBOPHB will review the annual HRA contribution schedule at least every four years to determine future increases. Years of Service Schedule Effective July 1, 2014

| Annual HRA Contribution* For Early Retirement | | | | | | Traditional Retirement (eligible for Medicare) |
|--|---------|---------|---------|---------|---------|---|
| Years of Service Schedule | Age 60 | Age 61 | Age 62 | Age 63 | Age 64 | Medicare Retiree Age 65+ |
| 10-14 | $1,000 | $1,100 | $1,200 | $1,300 | $1,400 | $1,500 |
| 15-19 | $1,600 | $1,700 | $1,800 | $1,900 | $2,000 | $2,100 |
| 20-24 | $2,000 | $2,200 | $2,300 | $2,400 | $2,600 | $2,700 |
| 25-29 | $2,500 | $2,700 | $2,800 | $3,000 | $3,100 | $3,300 |
| 30-34 | $2,900 | $3,100 | $3,300 | $3,500 | $3,700 | $3,900 |
| 35-39 | $3,400 | $3,600 | $3,800 | $4,100 | $4,300 | $4,500 |
| 40+ | $3,600 | $3,800 | $4,100 | $4,300 | $4,600 | $4,800 |

*Annual HRA contribution is reduced by 5% each year prior to age 65 for early retirement. Married retirees (that are not part of a clergy couple) share HRA contribution with spouse. Surviving spouse's benefit at retiree's death is equal to 75% of the retiree's amount while living - rounded to the nearest $100. The clergyperson's age on the date of retirement determines the amount of the HRA contribution. Years of service is determined by the General Board of Pension & Health Benefits official Service Record.

The specifics of the funding policies for retiree health insurance shall be prepared and recommended by the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and adopted by the Annual Conference. Such funding policies shall be available through the office of the health insurance officer of the Annual Conference.

Par. 424. The Elections Procedures Committee and Elections Procedures for Delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences

The following provision shall be added to the requirements of par. 637 of the Discipline:

The committee shall have 12 members comprised of three laywomen, three laymen, and six clergy, insuring diversity and knowledge of the mission of the annual conference. Three persons shall be nominated by the Bishop. Two of these members are ex-officio members from the SEJ Committee on Episcopacy and shall be co-chairs of this committee.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part IV

1. The Elections Procedures Committee.
 - a. Establishment. The Florida Annual Conference is given the responsibility to help shape the future of The United Methodist Church when it selects and prepares its delegation for General and Jurisdictional Conferences. The Elections Procedures Committee is established to guide the orderly process of electing delegates including recommending changes in these Standing Rules, to set the method of voting for delegates (in consultation with Annual Conference Event Committee), to monitor delegate elections, and to be the final arbiter of any and all election disputes. The committee's hope is to call the Annual Conference to a prayer-centered process of spiritual discernment in preparation for the delegate elections. The hope is that this process will create opportunities for the Spirit of God to call forth from among us faithful witnesses who will become the agents of God's purpose for the future of the church.
 - b. Membership. The committee shall consist of six members and serve a term of one quadrennium. Committee members may succeed themselves. The Conference Secretary will serve as an ex-officio member of the committee unless elected as a member of the committee. The Conference Committee on Leadership shall determine the Chair of the committee. The Chair shall hold office for the entire quadrennium for which he or she serves on the committee.
2. Election Parameters.
 - a. That the Annual Conference approach the election process with a clear center in prayer.
 - b. That the Annual Conference encourage opportunities for groups of clergy and laity to listen to Scripture, share their sense of God's vision for the church, and enter into disciplined prayer for the election process.
 - c. That the Annual Conference commit ourselves to being open to the call of God upon the lives of people who represent the diversity and strength of the local congregations of the Florida Annual Conference in terms of age, sex, race, ethnic background, language, orders of clergy, geography, theological perspective and experience.
 - d. That the Elections Procedures Committee create clear guidelines by which the Annual Conference can gather and share pertinent information about nominees which will assist the voting members of the Annual Conference in their selection of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences.
3. District Responsibilities. The Cabinet and the Board of Lay Ministry are charged to discover the most appropriate way for each District to participate in the Spiritual Journey to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. It is hoped that each District will create and implement an educational strategy which will include at least the following items: The process for nomination; Spiritual discernment and how to recognize the call to serve; Lifting up the issues and concerns likely to be addressed during General and Jurisdictional Conferences; The financial and time requirements expected of those elected to serve; Reflection upon the unique needs and demographics of the Florida Annual Conference; and Praying for the Spirit to provide the names of those who can best represent our Annual Conference. Each District will intentionally encourage clergy serving in an appointment beyond the bounds of the District or Annual Conference to consider serving as a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conferences. Each District will provide a way for nominees from that District to share their vision for the Church. Each District is encouraged to pray regularly for all of the nominees.
4. Nominations Process for Lay Persons. Lay persons desiring nomination and election as a delegate to General and Jurisdictional Conferences will follow the process outlined below.
 - a. Any person who has been a member of The United Methodist Church for at least two years preceding their election, has been an active participant in The United Methodist Church for at least four years preceding their election and is a member within the Florida Annual Conference at the time of the General and Jurisdictional Conferences is eligible for nomination.

Persons adding their names in this manner will not be introduced at the Lay Orientation Session, will not have their biographical information printed or posted on the Conference web site, and will not be permitted to introduce themselves to the Annual Conference during a regular business session. Copies of the completed forms will be posted on a bulletin board in a strategic location determined by the Elections Procedures Committee for voting members of the Annual Conference to review prior to the first ballot. Persons adding their names in this manner may provide, at their own expense, copies of their completed form to be placed on the Ushers' Table for members to pick up and review prior to the first ballot. No further names may be nominated or considered for election after the 11:00 a.m. closing of the on-site registration station.
5. Nomination Process for Clergy. 2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part IV

- d. Upon verification, the person will be assigned a ballot number and will be eligible for consideration. A handout with the additional names and ballot numbers will be provided to voting members prior to the first ballot. Persons adding their names in this manner will not have their biographical information printed or posted on the Conference web site and will not be permitted to introduce themselves to the Annual Conference during a regular business session. Copies of the completed forms will be posted on a bulletin board in a strategic location determined by the Elections Procedures Committee for voting members of the Annual Conference to review prior to the first ballot. Persons adding their names in this manner may provide, at their own expense, copies of their completed form to be placed on the Ushers' Table for members to pick up and review prior to the first ballot. No further names may be nominated or considered for election after the 11:00 a.m. closing of the on-site registration station.
6. Election Process.
 - a. Prior to the opening of each ballot, the Bishop, or person designated by the Bishop, will lead the Conference in a time of silent meditation and prayer.
 - b. Members of the Conference will vote on computer-sensitive cards, electronic device, or other method determined by the Elections Procedures Committee (in consultation with the Annual Conference Event Committee or other agency charged with planning the Annual Conference sessions) with laity voting for lay delegates and eligible clergy voting for clergy delegates.
 - c. When the Bishop, or person designated by the Bishop, announces the results of election ballots, the names and ballot numbers of persons receiving votes will be projected on the screens in preparation for the next ballot.
 - d. To expedite the election process, ballot results will be reported as follows:
 - 1) 1st ballot - All names receiving votes will be read.
 - 2) 2nd – 4th ballot - First 25 names will be read.
 - 3) Remaining ballots - First 10 names will be read.
 - e. At specific points in the election process, the Elections Procedures Committee will report to the Conference on the inclusiveness and diversity of the elected delegation.
7. Policy for Tie Breaks. In the event of a tie between two or more nominees for the last available position on the General and/or Jurisdictional delegations, a run-off election will be ordered by the Bishop to select the person to fill that position. Only the names of those in the run-off are open for votes. The names, with their corresponding number of votes, will be read in the order of their election. The person with the highest number of votes cast will be seated with the appropriate delegation.
8. Invalid votes. An invalid vote is a vote that does not conform to the election procedures set forth in the Standing Rules or any other procedures adopted by the Annual Conference prior to the first ballot. An invalid vote only invalidates the specific vote that was cast incorrectly. The Elections Procedures Committee shall be the final arbiter of all decisions concerning invalid votes or ballot challenges.
9. Reserve Delegates. Reserve delegates to General Conference will be those elected to Jurisdictional Conference in the order of their election. Reserve delegates to Jurisdictional Conference will be elected on a single ballot with the seven persons receiving the greatest number of votes in each category being elected in order of the votes received. The first two (2) elected Lay and Clergy delegates to Jurisdictional Conference will serve as alternates to the General Conference delegation.
10. Information Distribution. In keeping with the historic principles of The United Methodist Church that each delegate votes their individual beliefs and convictions and with the traditions of the Florida Annual Conference for inclusiveness and diversity in thought and practice, all nominees are requested to refrain from distributing printed material about themselves or their positions on issues before, or during, the election process. Only those nominees noted in paragraphs 4.f and 5.d above are permitted to place copies of their completed nomination form at the Ushers' Table for distribution.

Section VI. Episcopal Committees

Par. 425. Committee on Episcopacy. The committee shall have 12 members comprised of three laywomen, three laymen, and six clergy, insuring diversity and knowledge of the mission of the annual conference. Three persons shall be nominated by the Bishop. Two of these members are ex-officio members from the SEJ Committee on Episcopacy and shall be co-chairs of this committee.

Section VII. Annual Conference Staff

Par. 426. Director of Connectional Ministries. The Director of Connectional Ministries (DCM) shall be the Executive Officer of the Conference. The DCM shall articulate the vision of the Conference, seek alignment and implementation of the ministry system that gives life to the vision, and participate in and supervise the core processes of the boards, agencies, task teams, ministry groups and offices of the Conference. The DCM shall function in a consultative relationship to the Cabinet on matters relating to coordination, implementation, and administration of the Conference ministries. The DCM leads the Conference Staff in implementing the shared vision and ministries of the Conference. Following consultation with the Personnel Committee and the Strategic Leadership Team, the Bishop shall nominate the DCM whose election shall be determined by the Executive Committee of the Personnel Committee solely upon the nomination of the Bishop. The salary shall be the same as that of a District Superintendent.

Par. 427. Conference Staff. The Conference shall employ other staff on the recommendation of the DCM, the Conference Treasurer, and the Personnel Committee. The Personnel Committee shall seek nominations following the procedures set forth in the Conference Employee Handbook. Staff assignments to areas of work and conference agencies shall be reviewed annually by the DCM, in consultation with the Extended Cabinet and confirmed by the Personnel Committee.

Par. 428. Personnel Committee of the Annual Conference. The Executive Committee of the Council on Finance and Administration, including the Bishop or the Bishop's designee, the Conference Treasurer, the DCM, and the Human Resources Director shall serve as the Personnel Committee for Conference employees and shall be responsible for all personnel matters including setting policy, benefits, and compensation, and handling grievances. This rule does not limit the role of the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry or the Conference Board of Pension and Health Benefits in relation to clergy matters.

CHAPTER FIVE, RULES GOVERNING CONFERENCE AGENCIES

Par. 501. Notice of Meetings; Meetings Open to All. Each Conference agency shall give reasonable advance notice of the place and time of each regular meeting and each special meeting it calls. Notice shall be given through the Conference publications and/or the Conference website and written e-mail notice (or written notice through the United States Postal Service if e-mail is unavailable). It shall be the responsibility of each agency member to assure that the Chair has an accurate e-mail or postal address of record. All agencies shall welcome any person(s) who may desire to visit meetings to discuss and/or offer suggestions related to the work of the agency.

Par. 502. Statement of Employee Salaries and Expenses. Each Conference agency shall make available to the members of the Annual Conference, upon written request, an exact statement of the salaries and expenses paid on account of any person employed by the agency.

Par. 503. No Conflicts of Interest or Remuneration.

1. No person whose private business conflicts with the purposes or business of a Conference agency, or that does or proposes to do business with that agency, shall be a member of that Conference agency.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part IV

2. No person may receive an honorarium, or be paid a fee, for services rendered, if that person is a member of the sponsoring or planning agency or organization.
3. No officers or members of any Conference agency shall receive remuneration for their service.

Par. 504. Terms and Term Limits. The term of service of all agency members elected shall begin as of the end of the Annual Conference session at which they were elected, and those ending in that year shall end at the close of that Annual Conference session. Membership on Conference agencies shall be limited to eight consecutive years for both clergy and lay members unless the Discipline or the Standing Rules provide otherwise. Members rotating off any organization under these provisions shall become eligible for re-election to such organizations after a period of two years. No person shall serve longer than four years as Chair of the same Conference agency.

Par. 505. Agency Membership shall be in Classes. The membership of all Conference agencies except for the Standing Rules Committee shall be elected in classes with a definite number of members in each class. The Standing Rules Committee shall include eight members to be elected as a single class each quadrennium, as described in Par. 108.

Par. 506. Membership Limited to One Conference Agency. Membership shall not be held in more than one Conference agency, provided, however, that this rule does not apply to members of the Conference Committee on Investigation, Committee on Episcopacy, Conference Committee on Leadership, The Board of Ordained Ministry, Annual Conference Program Committee, ex-officio members of agencies, or to anyone exempted by the Discipline or the Standing Rules.

Par. 507. Conference Secretary to Review Agency Membership. The Conference Secretary, with the assistance of the Administrative Assistant to the Conference Committee on Leadership, immediately shall review the Annual Conference elections, and any agency vacancies filled by the CCL, to determine if one person has been elected to two Conference agencies. The Conference Secretary shall notify the person and groups involved and, in turn, shall be notified as to which responsibility shall be accepted.

Par. 508. General Board Members May Serve in Comparable Conference or District Agencies. Persons serving on General Boards or agencies of The United Methodist Church who are members of the Florida Conference or are members of any church in the Florida Conference may be full members of the comparable Conference agency and of any comparable District Work Area. The rotation rule shall not apply for such term of service, but the rule regarding service on two boards shall apply.

Par. 509. Charter and By-laws of Incorporated Agencies must be Filed with Conference Secretary. The Charter and by-laws of each incorporated legal and financial organization of the Conference shall be filed with the Conference Secretary. The Conference Secretary shall be notified immediately of any proposed change in these Charters or by-laws. The Conference Secretary shall also list the legal and financial organizations in this standing rule each year. These organizations are as follows:

1. The Trustees of the Florida Annual Conference
2. The Florida United Methodist Foundation
3. The Florida United Methodist Committee for New Church Development, Inc.

Par. 510. Prohibition on Loaning Conference-Owned Equipment, Software, and Information. Conference-owned equipment shall not be loaned or rented to profit-making organizations because such action might endanger the tax-exempt status of the Annual Conference. Conference-owned computer software and information (such as mailing lists and e-mail address lists) shall not be shared or loaned without the permission of the Annual Conference.

CHAPTER SIX, RULES GOVERNING DISTRICTS AND DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

Section I. Rules Governing Districts

Par. 601. Districts of the Annual Conference. The Conference shall be divided into the following nine districts: Atlantic Central; East Central; Gulf Central; North Central; North East; North West; South Central; South East; and South West.

Par. 602. District Structure. The Annual Conference, pursuant to ¶ 610 and ¶ 661 of the Discipline and those paragraphs of the Discipline that allow it some discretion in structuring agencies required by the Discipline, gives authority to the District Superintendent, as the chief missional strategist, and District Lay Leader, in consultation with the Annual Conference, to organize its ministries, work areas, task forces, and committees, as it shall deem advisable to carry out its purpose. They must also ensure all Disciplinary requirements are met. Any changes to the structure of a District shall either be approved by the Annual Conference or, if needed, an appropriately called District Conference (see ¶ 658 and 659 of the Discipline)

1. A leadership group consisting of lay and clergy leadership who shall assist the District Superintendent in major strategic decisions. This leadership group shall ensure there is a strategy for starting and growing vital chartered congregations as well as engaging in mission to the world. The District Superintendent shall be an ex-officio member. The District may choose to have one or more committees to fulfill these functions, and may name the groups as each District determines.
2. There shall be a group (or groups as determined by the District or included in the work of the leadership group or another group) who will ensure intentional work on congregational vitality, including the development of new churches and ministries. This group (or another as determined by the District) shall be responsible for all district funding decisions related to mission and church extension.
3. In addition to its basic responsibility, this leadership group (or another group as determined by the District) must function, as needed, as the District's Board of Trustees. The District Board of Location and Building may be included as a function of one of these groups or be separate. The group meeting as the Board of Trustees shall meet the requirements of ¶ 2518.
4. This leadership group (or another group as determined by the District) must fulfill the functions of the District Committee on Superintendency and ensure that all the guidelines on membership, selection, meeting and purpose of the District Committee on Superintendency as stated in ¶ 669 of the Discipline are accomplished. They shall submit an annual written report of their work to the Bishop as it applies to the role of the Committee on Superintendency.
5. One committee of the District (as determined by the District) shall have the responsibility to elect the lay delegates at large to Annual Conference. The District Committee on Lay Leadership shall provide nominees for the delegate positions.
6. Assignments. The leadership group (or other similar structure) will assign members and groups to serve and accomplish these special roles at its first meeting in the year.
7. District Advance Specials. The leadership group (or other structure) will approve all district advance specials. This same group will determine the District's method for receiving, evaluating, and approving existing and new district advance specials, in consultation with and after approval by the Conference Committee on Finance and Administration.

Par. 603. District Committee on Leadership (Nominations).

1. Establishment. Each district shall have a District Committee on Leadership (Nominations).
2. Membership. The District Superintendent shall chair this committee. It shall be comprised of nine persons divided into three classes serving for three years each. At least five members shall be laypersons.
3. Responsibilities. This committee shall perform the duties outlined in Standing Rules Par. 607 and nominate district at-large delegates to Annual Conference.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part IV

Par. 604. District Housing Committee.

1. Establishment. Each district shall have a District Housing Committee that will report to the group appropriately acting as the District Board of Trustees.
2. Membership. The District Housing Committee shall be composed of six to nine members elected annually at the same time and in the same manner as other leadership of the District is elected. All members shall be professing members in local United Methodist Churches of that District. Membership of the committee should reflect the churches of that District with regard to size, race, and ethnic makeup. Recommended membership of the committee should be one-third clergy, one-third laywomen, and one-third laymen.
3. Responsibilities. The responsibilities of the Committee are as follows:
 - a. Work in cooperation with the District Board of Location and Building to ensure that all proposed parsonages fulfill the requirements for parsonages as stated in the Standing Rules and the Discipline;
 - b. Be available, at the invitation of the District Superintendent, to mediate conflicts between churches and pastors regarding parsonages or housing allowances.
 - 1) Local churches (via trustees, parsonage committees, or staff-parish committees) or the clergy family may request mediation.
 - 2) Although it has no binding authority, the Committee would work with the local church, District, and Conference leadership to resolve the issues.
 - c. Approve the housing allowance offered by any church in lieu of a parsonage. In reviewing and approving all housing allowances for clergy in the District, the committee shall insure the allowance complies with the Standing Rules and the Discipline. The Committee must review these allowances at least once every four years to insure they represent the housing market of the time.
 - d. Ensure all clergy housing complies with the Standing Rules. In order to ensure compliance, the Committee shall:
 - 1) assist local churches in developing plans to bring parsonages up to the required standards; and
 - 2) extend deadlines for up to three years if churches are working in good faith to fulfill the standards.
 - e. Inspect each parsonage in the District at least once every four years or more frequently when:
 - 1) requested by the pastor;
 - 2) requested by local church Trustees, Parsonage Committees or Staff-Parish Committees;
 - 3) needed to insure agreements through mediation are being fulfilled in a timely manner;
 - 4) needed to insure upgrades are being done as agreed upon;
 - 5) there is a change of pastors.
 - f. In consultation with the District Superintendent, make exceptions to the Conference Parsonage Standards and Recommendations and housing allowances when special needs exist.

Par. 605. District Committee on Ordained Ministry. Each district shall have a District Committee on Ordained Ministry. This committee shall include at least seven clergy, one of whom shall be the representative to the Conference Board of Ordained Ministry, and at least three laypersons. The clergy shall include elders and deacons, and where possible, women and ethnic clergy, a deacon or elder who is age 35 or younger, an associate member, and may include one local pastor who has completed Course of Study. Nominations are made by the District Superintendent in consultation with the Chairpersons of both the Conference Board and District Committees on Ordained Ministry. The work of this Committee is described in Standing Rules par. 414.

Par. 606. District Board of Location and Building. Each district may continue to have a District Board of Location and Building, or it may choose to assign those responsibilities to another group as determined by the District. In either case, the Board shall consist of the District Superintendent and six to nine persons. It is recommended that its membership be one-third laywomen, one-third laymen, and one-third clergy.

Par. 607. Nomination and Election of Committees.

1. Guidelines. The District Committee on Leadership (Nominations) shall prepare a slate of officers and members for the District Leadership Council and the other District Committees and Boards in accordance with the current Standing Rules and the Discipline. As noted in Par. 605, the committee does not nominate members of the District Committee on Ordained Ministry.

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part IV

2. Deadlines. The Committee shall present its nominations to the Conference Committee on Nominations in time to be included in its report to Annual Conference. The Conference Committee shall communicate this deadline in a timely fashion.
3. Election. All officers and members of the District Committees identified in the Standing Rules shall be elected at the Annual Conference session prior to their taking office. Other groups recognized or established by the District may be nominated by the Committee or by other processes, but shall be submitted to the Annual Conference for election in all cases.
4. Terms of Office and Classes.
 - a. District Lay Leader and Associate District Lay Leader. The District Lay Leader and Associate District Lay Leader will serve a term of office of four years with no one person serving longer than eight consecutive years in any one office. No years of service prior to July 1, 2008 will count for purposes of calculating the terms of service for District Lay Leaders and Associate District Lay Leaders towards the maximum number of years in office.
 - b. Classes and Term Limits. Beginning July 1, 2012 and thereafter, all officers and members of District Committees and Boards will serve in four equal classes, with each class elected to serve a term of four years. No person will serve more than eight consecutive years in any one office or on any one Board/Committee, unless otherwise provided in the Standing Rules or Discipline. Prior to July 1, 2012, Districts, at their discretion, may place Committee and Board members into four equal classes.
 - c. Terms. All officers and members elected by the Annual Conference shall begin their terms on the first day of July following their election. They shall continue in office until the last day of June in the year their terms expire.
5. Vacancies. The District Committee on Nominations shall recommend and the appropriate District group shall elect persons to fill vacancies that occur between sessions of the Annual Conference.

Par. 608 Budgets and Financial Reports.

1. District Budgets. A portion of the appropriate District group shall prepare its proposed budget and receive proposed budgets from other District Committees and Boards.
2. Approval. The entire appropriate District group will approve the total District budget and forward it to the District Superintendent. The District Superintendent shall, at the earliest possible date, and before the deadline as named by the Conference Treasurer, send the District Budget and any request for apportionments specific to the District to the Conference Committee on Finance and Administration for review and approval. The District Budget and any request for District Apportionments shall be included in the appropriate report to Annual Conference and listed in the Conference Journal.
3. Reporting. Regular reports on the District's year-to-date spending and other matters relating to the District's finances will be reported to the appropriate District group in the manner it shall determine.
4. District Audits and Financial Controls. The financial control and financial management of each district, along with the audit, will be the authority and responsibility of the Conference Committee on Finance and Administration and the Conference Treasurer's office. The Conference Committee on Finance and Administration will submit a copy of the audit to the appropriate District group and the District Superintendent.

Section II. Rules Governing District Superintendents

Par. 609. Prohibitions on Membership. No District Superintendent shall be a member of any Conference agency except for the Conference Board of Trustees or as otherwise provided by these Standing Rules or the Discipline.

CHAPTER SEVEN, RULES GOVERNING CLERGY HOUSING

Par. 701. Parsonage Requirements. Set forth below are required and recommended parsonage standards. The required standards are the minimum requirements that all existing parsonages must have by June 1, 2007, and that any parsonages purchased after May 30, 2003 must have. The suggested standards give the Bishop and the Cabinet more flexibility when assigning a pastor; parsonages not meeting the suggested standards may limit who can be sent to serve that particular church or circuit.

1. Required Standards. In addition to the requirements set forth in the Discipline for parsonages, the following items are required for all parsonages in the Conference. Parsonages must comply with them unless exempted by Standing Rule Par. 606.
 - a. Electrical wiring that meets code and is sufficient to meet today's needs for electricity.
 - b. Climate control both heating and air conditioning
 - c. Rooms: Living Room or Great Room; Dining Room or eating area large enough for at least eight people; Kitchen; Three bedrooms; Two baths; Indoor laundry area; Shelter for two vehicles; Secure storage area
 - d. Equipment: Good quality dependable appliances; Stove; Microwave; Dishwasher; Refrigerator with freezer compartment; Washer and dryer; Hot water heater of at least forty gallons; Wired for basic cable or satellite dish service; Maintained smoke alarms; Current fire extinguishers for kitchen and other required areas; Vacuum cleaner if there are carpets.
 - e. Lawn Maintenance: If no lawn service is provided and the pastor is expected to maintain the lawn, the following are minimum requirements: Gas mower; Trimmer; Weed eater; Rake; Shovel; Electrical or gas hedge trimmer if needed
 - f. Security System: Monitored security system that insures the security of the entire house.
 - g. Furnishings: Quality window coverings in neutral colors that insure privacy; Quality floor coverings in neutral colors that are durable and easy to maintain.
 - h. Maintenance: Regular pest control inspection and treatment; Annual termite inspection and treatment; Annual inspection and cleaning of ductwork as needed; Landscaping and maintenance thereof should be representative of the neighborhood; Regular schedule for painting both on the outside and inside of the house as needed; any needed repairs should be done in a timely manner; Annual carpet cleaning; Regular maintenance and cleaning of chimneys.
 - i. Location of all new or replacement parsonages: Should not be on the main church property but at a distance that insures privacy for the pastor and family; Needs to be located in a good school system; Should be located in what is perceived as a safe community; Location that permits children.
2. Recommended Standards. The following standards are not mandated, but each church is encouraged to meet these standards as fully as possible:
 - a. Rooms: Four bedrooms; family room; Study; Two-car enclosed garage.
 - b. Equipment: Garbage disposal; Freezer.
 - c. Handicapped Accessibility: At least one walk in shower and one tub; Physically disabled accessibility throughout the house.
 - d. Safety: Permanent equipped hurricane shutter for all exposed exterior glass areas within ten miles of the coastal shoreline; Safe storage area for paints, gasoline, or other flammables.
 - e. Lawn: Irrigation system for the yard.

Par. 702. Housing Allowances.

1. Determining the Amount of the Housing Allowance. The District Trustees or the District Housing Committee (DHC, see Standing Rule Par. 606) shall determine, no less than every four years, the minimum housing allowance for the District, or portions of a District. The minimum housing allowance shall be the amount necessary to rent or own one of a number of single-family residences or condominiums within reasonable commuting distance of the churches within the District, not to exceed twenty miles. The residences used as models for the calculation shall be in compliance with the Conference standards for parsonages. It is recognized that there may be wide differences in costs within a District. The DHC or the District group with the responsibility may, for that reason, determine several costs, depending on the location of the churches in the District. The District Superintendent must approve variances with the approved minimum housing allowance. The District

2015 Journal of the Florida Annual Conference – Part IV

Trustees or DHC shall provide listings of potential residences to churches within the District that offer housing allowances and to pastors new to the District. In addition to the amount of the housing allowance, an equitable utility allowance, set by the church leadership in consultation with the pastor, shall be paid to the pastor by the church. The church may assist the pastor (if renting is desired) in paying a security deposit. If the church makes such a payment and the rental unit is not left in clean condition and a portion of the security deposit is not returned to the church, the pastor will be responsible for reimbursing the church. It is understood that if the pastor selects a rental unit it shall have an annual lease that will commence at the beginning of the appointment year and end at the conclusion of that year.

2. Procedures for Congregations Considering Housing Allowances.
 - a. Any congregation considering a housing allowance shall consult with the District Superintendent to understand all the positive and negative aspects of housing allowances.
 - b. Before implementing a housing allowance, a congregation must obtain the District Superintendent's permission and have the amount of the proposed allowance approved by the DHC or the party fulfilling that role. As a part of the request for permission, the congregation must present a tentative draft budget for the first two years and demonstrate the impact of the change on the overall fiscal health of the congregation.
 - c. If the congregation decides to sell an existing parsonage, the church leadership shall follow the Discipline guidelines for selling the parsonage and using the proceeds of the sale.
3. Allowances below the District Minimum Rate. Churches currently paying housing allowances below the District minimum rate must, in consultation with the District Superintendent, develop a plan that is approved by the DHC or the party fulfilling its duties which would bring the allowance up to District minimum in a reasonable amount of time.

Par. 703. Parsonage Furniture. Each clergyperson shall be responsible for providing the furniture in the parsonage, except for the appliances, window and floor coverings, and other items set forth in Standing Rule Par. 701.

He married Sarah Elizabeth Chupp, known as Jane, on April 23, 1950, in Miami, Florida. They had a daughter, Cathy Jean, born on August 22, 1955, and a son, Wesley Howard, born on December 5, 1961.

He served in the army during the Korean War as a mine detection engineer. It was during the war that God called Dad into the ministry. Before that, he had wanted to work at the United Nations, as he had a real affinity for languages, speaking ten different ones.

He graduated from Florida Southern College with honors and a double bachelor's degree. While a student he served at Seffner, 1951-54. He graduated from Union Theological Seminary with a Master of Divinity degree.

Dad served churches in Long Island and Oyster Bay, New York. My mom could not handle the cold so we relocated to Florida in 1956. He was admitted to the Florida Conference on trial and ordained a deacon that year. He was ordained an elder and received into full connection in 1958. He served the following appointments: Redland, Homestead, 1958-60; Kendrick, Ocala, 1960-61; Dunnellon, 1961-64; Port St. Lucie, 1964-68; Mims, 1968-69; Miami Beach, 1969-71; Woodstock Park, Jacksonville, 1971-72; Riverview, Jacksonville, 1972-75; associate, Community, Holiday, 1975-76; Calvary, Sarasota, 1976-81; Specialized Urban Ministries, Ft. Lauderdale, 1981-84; Killian Pines, Miami, 1984-86; Wagg Memorial, West Palm Beach, 1986-89; and Trinity, Winter Haven, 1989-93. He retired in Winter Haven in 1993.

At Riverview he was the only minister on the north side of Jacksonville who opened his church doors to African-Americans.

In retirement he served many churches. In 1994 he served a church in New Zealand for eleven months, and both he and Mom loved it. Dad was on many boards over his faithful years of ministry. He was involved in Habitat for Humanity, intercultural meetings, DeColores, Kairos, and Haitian and Spanish ministries.

Dad died from Parkinson's disease on July 18, 2014. He is survived by his daughter, Cathy Stephens; his grandchildren, Andre, Shawn, and Shannon; and his great grandson, Shawn, Jr.

My dad was the perfect example of a minister, following Jesus' example of loving and showing others that Agape love. He lived it every day of his life. If someone was hungry, he'd feed them; if they needed clothes or a place to live or were sick, he would help them. He never judged anyone, treating all with dignity and respect. He continued his ministry until he died.

My parents were blessed with sixty-three years of marriage. They met at a USO dance and danced their whole marriage. They loved to travel, and he especially loved spending time with his grandchildren and Shawn, Jr. My dad was the best husband, father, and grandfather, and he was my hero. I'm proud to be his daughter. I will never forget his sense of humor, which he kept to the end. He loved playing basketball, handball, and Scrabble. He enjoyed eating ethnic food, Thai being his favorite. Lindt dark chocolate, jazz music, the mountains, poetry, jamocha almond fudge, unicorns, children, and reading were some of his favorite things.

I thank God for sharing my dad with me. I know he is still there for me as he always was; he never let me down. He is loved and missed more than I can express.

WALLACE BRODE DRAPER

Wallace Brode Draper was born in Cleveland, Ohio, on January 11, 1925, the only child of Lewis Brooker Draper and Florence Brode Draper.

When he was thirteen, the family moved to Tampa and joined Hyde Park Methodist Church, where Wally enjoyed his youth class and M.Y.F. He left school at the end of tenth grade to care for his parents and to maintain his father's business in downtown Tampa. As their health improved, he was able to return to Plant High School, graduating in 1945 at the age of twenty. In addition to his education, Wally had learned responsibility, patience, perseverance, and compassion.

As president of the Tampa District M.Y.F., Wally helped plan the annual fall meeting at Hyde Park in 1945. It was there that he met the love of his life, Betty Olivia Brown. A year and a half later, on Valentine's Day 1947, they were married. They had two children: Douglas Alan, born on May 30, 1954, and Kathryn Lynn, born on September 16, 1958.

Wally worked as cashier, office manager, and teller, both at First National Bank of Tampa and later at Marine Bank of Tampa. He moved forward into being manager of three drive-through units. As he was preparing a devotional for prayer meeting, Wally felt God's call to be a minister. When he notified the bank that he would be leaving in June 1964, he learned that the bank had been training him to become an officer. He felt, however, that his call came first.

At the age of thirty-eight he enrolled in Central Florida Junior College in Ocala while serving three rural churches: First, Citra; Sparr; and Providence, Windsor. After graduating with an A.A. degree, he enrolled at Florida Southern College and served at Orange Heights in Lakeland, which he relocated to a new property to become Good Shepherd. He graduated with a B.A. degree in 1970.

He graduated from Candler School of Theology in 1974 with a Master of Divinity degree. While in school he served in the North Georgia Conference at Cove-Tilton in Dalton, St. Phillips in Gainesville, and Lula and Hickory Flat in Lula.

He was admitted to the Florida Conference on trial and ordained a deacon in 1971 and was ordained an elder and received into full connection in 1976. He served the following appointments: Dundee, 1974-75; Forest Hills, Quincy, 1975-78; Canal Point, 1978-80; St. John, Sebring, 1980-81; associate, First, Lakeland, 1981-82; St. Andrews, Daytona Beach, 1982-84; Florida City, 1984-86; and First, Citra/Lochloosa, 1986-91. He retired in 1991.

While serving Forest Hills he was director of the Gadsden and Liberty Larger Parish and president of the Ministerial Association. He was also president of the Exchange Club of Quincy. In Canal Point he served as president of the Pahokee Area Ministers Association.

In retirement Wally served as chaplain of Wells Memorial Funeral Home in Plant City and their affiliates. He also served Trinity in Lakeland as pastor of visitation until 2004.

Wally had a charming smile and enjoyed his ministry work and helping people. He was diagnosed with multiple myeloma, a bone cancer, in 2009. He quietly suffered for five years before God called him home on October 11, 2014. A memorial service was held on October 24, 2014, at Trinity United Methodist Church in Lakeland, with the Reverend C.J. Hill and Dr. J.C. Powell officiating.

He was preceded in death by his parents and his son Alan. He is survived by his wife Betty, daughter Kathy, and sister-in-law Evelyn Korff.

After Pearl Harbor he, along with thousands, showed up at a recruiting center, where he was one of only two volunteers turned away. He had developed symptoms of heart failure as a result of rheumatic fever at age eight and had a loud murmur. He worked in the war effort making plexiglass and nose cones for fighters and bombers. He then experienced a vision of Jesus taking him on a journey through his body, and afterwards his heart was healed, with no further problems until he was eighty-seven. He felt God's calling to the ministry during this miracle.

While at Emory he pastored a circuit of churches: Inman, Brooks, New Hope, Union Chapel, and County Line.

Roy and Marjorie had three sons: Barry Moore Fiske, born on January 6, 1954; Darrell Neil Fiske, born on March 7, 1955; and Gregory Lee Fiske, born on August 22, 1958.

Roy was admitted to the Florida Conference on trial in 1953, was ordained a deacon in 1954, and was ordained an elder and received into full connection in 1956. He served the following appointments: Normandy Road, Jacksonville, 1956-58; Trinity, Plant City, 1958-59; Interbay, Tampa, 1959-60; Sarah Spencer, Tampa, 1960-68; Pahokee, 1968-70; First, Zephyrhills, 1970-75; First, Seminole, 1975-78; and Community, Holiday, 1978. He took disability leave in 1978 and retired in 1988. He built a new sanctuary in Pahokee and a new fellowship hall in Zephyrhills.

RANDALL LORENTZ PARSONS

Randall Lorentz Parsons was born on March 3, 1917, in Saxon Ohio, to Donald S. Parsons and Orva Norman Parsons. He worked on the family farm and later with his dad in the well-drilling business. During high school, and beyond, he played with his first music group, The Melodiers, with Agnes Durst as vocalist. Randall displayed his versatility by playing the bass fiddle, mandolin, harmonica, guitar, slide whistle, and hand saw, also sharing the stage with his ventriloquist dummy and trained German shepherd. He graduated from Racine, Ohio, High School in 1934 and attended trade school for machinists.

Randall married Agnes Durst on August 31, 1940. They moved to Vienna, West Virginia, where they began their family and attended Wesley Methodist Church. They had five children: Joan Ruth, born on August 13, 1941; Patty, born on December 29, 1943; Darrell, born on December 11, 1945; Eloise, born on May 10, 1948; and Carolyn, born on December 10, 1952.

In 1951, upon receiving a call to the ministry, Randall attended Marietta College, where he received his bachelor's degree. Immediately thereafter he entered Wesley Theological Seminary in Westminster, Maryland, where he sang with the Seminary Singers and graduated with a Master of Divinity degree in 1956.

He was admitted to the West Virginia Conference on trial in 1955, ordained a deacon in 1958, and ordained an elder and received into full connection in 1958. Throughout those years of school, he and Agnes raised four children and served a five-church charge based in Cairo, West Virginia. They subsequently served churches in Mt. Savage, Maryland, and Shepherdstown, West Virginia, before transferring from the Baltimore Conference to the Florida Conference in 1962.

Over the next thirty-five years the family served churches in Sebastian, 1962-67; Tavares, 1967-72; Belle Glade, 1972-75; Apopka, 1975-79; and Williston, 1979-83. After Randall retired in 1983, he continued to minister as a chaplain at Hospice of Lake and Sumter Counties and as visitation pastor at First United Methodist Church, Tavares. He also served as interim pastor of churches in Sun Valley, Idaho, and Rexburg, Idaho.

His down-to-earth approachability, coupled with his desire to serve and his strong intellect, led many to follow his example into the ministry and into other avenues of Christian service.

Randall continued his service to others throughout the time he lived at Lakeview Terrace Retirement Community in Altoona, Florida, leading Bible studies, preaching from time to time, singing in the Troubadours men's group, and playing guitar and singing in countless public events for his community. In his final months and weeks, he continued to entertain the nurses, doctors, staff, friends, and family with his harmonica. He passed away in his sleep on September 20, 2014, at ninety-seven years of age.

A memorial service for Randall was held on October 10, 2014, at First United Methodist Church of Tavares with the Reverend John Barham and the Reverend Gregory F. Duncan officiating. Burial was on April 13, 2015, in Letart Falls, Ohio.

ELDON SIMMONS

Eldon Simmons was born into a Christian home on February 13, 1915, in Wausau, Florida, the son of Robert Eldon and Fannie Leah Simmons. He always said that he grew up dirt poor on the farm in Washington County—no shoes, very little clothing, walking many miles to school. In later years he would say how rich his family had been, having much more than many of their neighbors, including cash money his father made from selling tobacco and syrup.

Eldon graduated from Vernon, Florida, High School in 1935, from Florida Southern College in 1944, and from Candler School of Theology at Emory University in 1946. He received an honorary degree from Florida Southern College in 1977.

He married Mary Elizabeth Rodgers on April 14, 1940. They had five children: Rodger Eldon, Catherine Elizabeth, Jean Ann, Robert Eugene, and Mary Diane.

Eldon once wrote, “I can’t remember when I didn’t want to be a Methodist preacher. One day in 1931 I was plowing the fields with one of my brothers. We were working the ‘big piece,’ the field with the longest rows on our old farm. I was plowing a little mustang mule called Jenny. I knew that I had been called of God to be a preacher. The struggle within my heart and life were overwhelming because I was unable to tell anyone what was happening. It was there in the field that day that I committed myself to becoming a Methodist preacher.”

Admitted to the Florida Conference on trial in 1946, he was ordained a deacon in 1947, and was ordained an elder and received into full connection in 1948. He served the following appointments: Greensboro/Sycamore/Glen Julia, 1937-38; Hinson Circuit, 1938-39; Trenton/Chiefland, 1939-40; Cornelia Avenue, Lakeland, 1940-41; Edgewood and Belmont Heights, Tampa, 1941-44; Ousley Chapel, North Georgia Conference, 1944-46; Dunnellon, 1948-50; Ley Memorial, Key West, 1950-55; Tarboux Memorial, Miami, 1955-56; Trinity, Tampa, 1956-60; First, Homestead, 1960-64; Broadway, Orlando, 1964-68; College Heights, Lakeland, 1968-72; Superintendent, Orlando District, 1972-78; and First, Seminole, 1978-81. After retirement in 1981 he served Dunnellon, 1981-85, Asbury, Bartow, 1988-89; Lena Vista, Auburndale, 1989-90; and Kathleen, Lakeland, 1990-91.

Eldon served on the Credit Union Board from 1970 until 2002.

He was an avid fisherman on the Rainbow River (The Run) in Dunnellon. He was an honorary conch.

Eldon died on December 4, 2014, at the age of ninety-nine. Funeral services were held at College Heights United Methodist Church in Lakeland, with his pastor, the Reverend Daphne Johnson, officiating. The Reverend David Adams officiated at the burial in Chiefland Cemetery in Chiefland, Florida.

He was preceded in death by his wife of sixty-five years, Elizabeth Simmons. He is survived by his children: Rodger Eldon Simmons, Catherine Elizabeth Watson, Jean Ann Garrod and husband Ted, Robert Eugene Simmons and wife Cindy, and Mary Diane Proulx and husband Richard; his grandchildren: Michelle Elizabeth Meadows, Lori Catherine Fox, Kyle Scott Fuller, Matthew Blake Simmons, Heather Carole Proulx; and his great grandchildren: Madeleine Elizabeth Meadows and Zoey Elsie Magloire.

FRANKLIN PIERCE SMITH

Franklin Pierce Smith was born in Largo, Florida, on September 4, 1927, the son of Ola Allen and Cleve Floyd Smith. He was raised in Largo.

For more than sixty years he was a Methodist minister whose work took him far and wide, and his commitment to social justice was deep. He was aptly described as minister to the world.

He graduated from Emory University in 1950 and from Boston School of Theology in 1953. He was admitted to the Florida Conference on trial in 1951, was ordained a deacon in 1952, and was ordained an elder and received into full connection in 1955. He served as associate at First, Clearwater, 1953-55, and at Anona, Largo, 1955-57.

For five years, 1958-63, Frank was a chaplain at Soochow University, a Methodist university in Taipei, Taiwan. When he returned to this country, he organized a new church in Satellite Beach, where he served 1964-68 and became involved in civil rights work. In Miami he was a vocal opponent of the Vietnam War and also helped organize a Spanish-speaking congregation at Coral Way, serving there 1968-71. He took a year's sabbatical, 1971-72.

Frank then served the Florida Christian Migrant Ministry, 1972-75, becoming involved in the plight of migrant farm workers and in obtaining church support of efforts to help farm workers organize for better working conditions. Next he spent ten years traveling on behalf of the United Methodist Committee on Relief, addressing world hunger by helping communities in Africa, Asia, and Central America increase agricultural productivity, establish clean water supplies, and open health clinics.

After returning to Florida in 1985, Frank served Grace Church in Miami, where he helped organize a Haitian congregation. He also was involved in many issues about which he felt passionately and in which he felt the church needed to have an important voice. These included immigration reform, with particular concern for Haitians (Haitian Refugee Center) and Latin Americans (Americans for Immigrant Justice); AIDS, including hospice work; gay rights (YES Institute); workers' rights in this country (Interfaith Committee on Worker Justice); and concern for peace with justice in the Middle East (Tikkun).

Despite the many troubling situations in our country and world, he had deep faith in the goodness of people and in the need to be persistent in doing what we can to make the world a better place for all. He concluded his ministry at Community, Oldsmar, 1991-93. He retired in 1993. He married Isabelle Hill on November 6, 1999.

Frank loved reading and was reading Tolstoy when he died. He also loved classical music and had season tickets to New World Symphony on Miami Beach.

Frank died of multiple myeloma at home on January 24, 2015. Memorial services were held on January 31, 2015, at Riviera Presbyterian Church in Miami, Florida, with the Reverend Monica Styron officiating, and on February 1, 2014, at the John S. Taylor Park in Largo, Florida, with the Reverend Sally Clarke Evans officiating.

Frank will be lovingly remembered for his compassion, his nonjudgmental nature, and his sense of humor by many friends and family: wife, Isabelle Hill; children, Elizabeth Smith (Elisabeth Jacobsen) and Jeannine Smith (Erick Zeidenberg) of New York City, and Cleve Smith of Hallandale, Florida; stepchildren, Matthew Hill (Melanie) of Guelph, Ontario, and Allyson Jayaweera (Hiroshi) of Barrie, Ontario; and five grandchildren, Carson and Tanner Hill and Kirin, Mika, and Nara Jayaweera.

MARGEURITE J. BARTLETT

Marguerite Johnson Bartlett was born on August 7, 1921, to Ernest and Mabel Webb Johnson in Osprey, Florida, on a piece of the original homestead property of her grandparents, John and Eliza Webb. Much of this homestead has been restored and operates as a museum and historical center, Historic Spanish Point, which is open to the public. Marguerite spent many hours here as a docent in her retirement years. Because of this service and because she was a direct descendent, Marguerite's ashes were permitted to be buried beside her mother's grave in the Pioneer Cemetery on the premises. A service was held on the grounds at Mary's Chapel with the Reverend Dawn Anderson officiating.

Marguerite's early life included growing up in Osprey with her brothers Clifford and Alva Johnson, attending Sarasota High School, and marrying Allen E. Bartlett.

Allen Bartlett became a Methodist minister in Michigan in 1941, and together they served pastorates there until 1947, when they moved back to Florida and Allen became associate pastor at First Methodist Church in Tampa. Thus began a ministry that included Manatee, Miami Springs, Northside in St. Petersburg, Nebraska Avenue in Tampa, Belmont Park in Clearwater, Lena Vista in Auburndale, and Hudson. Allen retired in 1969 but served Curlew in Palm Harbor until 1970, when they moved to Tampa and joined Forest Hills United Methodist Church.

During these years Marguerite raised three children: Beth, born in 1941; James E., born in 1942; and Nancy, born in 1945. She also obtained an education by attending college with her children, becoming an L.P.N and an R.N. and earning a B.A. and an M.A. in education and finally a B.S. in nursing, magna cum laude, at age sixty.

Her career included nursing jobs as director of education at W.T. Edwards Hospital in Tampa and coordinator of nursing at the Florida Mental Health Institute, also in Tampa. She retired in 1988 after twenty-eight years of service.

Marguerite's role as wife of a United Methodist minister was one she cherished, and she met the challenges it brought with dignity and grace. She always looked forward to the time of year when she could once again visit and reminisce with fellow clergy and old friends. She often returned from her time spent at annual conference sharing stories and laughs and feeling a sense of renewal with her colleagues.

Widowed in 1989, Marguerite remained in Tampa until her death on August 21, 2014, at age ninety-three. She is survived by her brother Alva; her three children: Beth Bartlett Ingalls of Ocala, Florida; James E. Bartlett of Vienna, Virginia, and Nancy Bartlett Bustelo of Melbourne Village, Florida; eleven grandchildren; and ten great grandchildren—and most importantly, the influence and Godly love and concern she bestowed on all whose lives she touched.

BARBARA MARIE WHITEHEAD STEWART BRISBIN

Barbara Marie Whitehead was born on June 12, 1928, in Plainfield, New Jersey, the second child of William F. Whitehead and Margaret M. Sparklin Whitehead. Her father and her brother were both musically inclined, and they schooled Bobbie from an early age. Her brother, her senior by ten years, had her performing at the Farmers Grange Hall as a young child. The Whitehead family moved to Central Florida in 1939 for health reasons and in 1940 settled in Orlando, where Bobbie met Bill Brisbin's sister, Jo Ann. Their friendship lasted for seventy years, until Jo Ann's passing in 2010.

Bobbie graduated from Orlando Senior High School in 1947, having actively participated in glee club and chorus. She studied vocal performance at local studios in preparation for a lifetime of service as church soloist.

Bobbie married Arthur Stewart in 1951, and as a couple they shared their vocal talents as church soloists and choir members. In the 1950s she completed secretarial school in Indianapolis, Indiana, and served as secretary for the construction company that built the Orlando International Airport. Bobbie and Art had no children, but they became aunt and uncle to Bill's three children and his sister's three children. Through the years the family friendships continued with regular gatherings at Christmas, Easter, Thanksgiving, birthdays, and anniversaries. In 1988, Aunt Bobbie and Uncle Art were chosen to be the godparents to Bill's granddaughter, Melissa.

Bobbie was widowed in 1993. She served as secretary at College Park United Methodist Church in Orlando, where she was also a liturgist and part of the prayer ministry team.

When Bill was widowed in 2009, he started taking his three Orlando family widows—sister Jo Ann, sister-in-law Vera, and Bobbie—to lunch once a month. Then in 2010 only two remained, and in 2011 only Bobbie was left for the monthly lunch gathering. After having been friends for more than seventy years, Bobbie and Bill were married in August 2012. Bobbie looked forward to being active in her new church. Unfortunately, having suffered with pulmonary fibrosis for many years, she was unable to be as active as she had hoped to be.

Bobbie went home to be with her Lord on August 23, 2014. Her memorial service was held at First United Methodist Church in Lakeland, Florida, with the Reverend Ed New officiating. The Reverend David McEntire officiated as her remains were placed in the church columbarium.

She is survived by her husband, the Reverend William Brisbin; three step-children and their spouses: Jo Alice and Don Luther, Beth and Bruce Strayer, and Mark and Donna Brisbin; godchild/granddaughter, Melissa Dougherty; adopted nieces and nephews: Joy Cox, Elaine and Jerry Norton, Emily and Wayne Strauss; and grand nieces and nephews: John Norton, Joseph Norton, Kaitlyn Strauss, and Aviella Strauss.

Bobbie will long be remembered for her deep faith and her lifetime commitment to her church. She is greatly missed.

Dorothy Jean Plant Cofield was born in Shawmut, Alabama, on November 14, 1923, to Hugh Jackson and Janie Brooks Plant. Census records do not indicate that she had siblings, but for several years her mother's sister, Bennie Davis, and her children, Ben and Marjorie, lived with Dorothy's family. These relatives all pre-deceased her.

I knew Dorothy in the late 1970s and early 1980s when her husband, Bill, was associate minister with my husband, David Hortin, at First United Methodist Church in Lakeland. Dorothy was a pretty woman with a lovely spirit, looking not much different from her 1945 photograph in the senior class at Auburn University/Alabama Polytechnic Institute, where she was in the School of Education. Although there are no records of her having taught in educational institutions in Florida, I can certainly imagine her teaching children in the Sunday schools of the churches she and Bill served throughout the state.

Dorothy married William Gordon Cofield on December 19, 1944, in Chambers County, Alabama. After Bill graduated from Asbury Theological Seminary in Wilmore, Kentucky, he was admitted to the Florida Conference in 1951, and his first appointment was to Lake Butler. It was during their time there that they took Edwin Lee Dekle into their home as their foster son after his mother, a member of their church, died.

During the years that followed, they faithfully served in various churches. While they were at Trinity in Plant City, Dorothy's mother moved there from Alabama and was a member of the church when she died in 1970. In the years we knew Bill and Dorothy they were often traveling somewhere to see to the care of elderly aunts. In the Lakeland years, prior to moving to the Estates at Carpenters, they grew exotic fruits and shared their bounty with us and others, including sending us gifts of citrus every Christmas after we moved.

This is one of our memories of Dorothy, who was friendly and outgoing in the manner befitting her demure, kind personality: they were riding with David and me to a church-related occasion when Dorothy told us in her soft voice about her experience taking their new dog to obedience school. She finished her account by saying that they didn't attend any more because she had failed obedience school--the part about speaking to the dog in a forceful, firm manner.

Dorothy and Bill were the sweetest people one could hope to meet. Bill had a wonderful shepherd's heart and cared about and for the souls of the congregation with great love. After he retired because of poor health, he continued to call the people whose needs he knew, extending the compassion and comfort of the church. Bill died on October 18, 2003, and Dorothy on December 29, 2014. According to her thoughtful request, her body was donated to science.

My husband, David, describes Dorothy and Bill as good people—genteel and devout. They were a blessing to our lives and those of many others.

Helen was married for fifty-nine years to her high school sweetheart, the late Reverend Francis L. Luce. They lived in Lakeland, Florida, where he served for thirty-three years at Florida Southern College, first as chaplain and then in the Office of Academic Affairs. They raised three children: Nancy Elizabeth, born on August 8, 1948; John Leland, born on July 22, 1951; and Martha Jeanne, born on February 13, 1954.

Helen enjoyed her years of involvement with Florida Southern faculty activities and with college students, hosting hundreds over the years in their home for a family meal. During this time she was also employed by a medical publication.

As a member of College Heights United Methodist Church for more than fifty-eight years, she sang in the choir, taught school classes, belonged to the Susanna Circle, and was especially interested in foreign missions.

For years she was a Camp Fire Girls leader for her daughters and their friends. She and Francis also served as volunteers for Habitat for Humanity, literacy programs, a free medical clinic, and the annual Crop Walk for Hunger.

Upon retirement in 1985 the couple began spending half of each year in their family home in the North Carolina mountains, where they were associate members of the Crossnore Presbyterian Church and choir, delivered Meals on Wheels, and helped create a county museum. All the while, she shared her gift of hospitality by welcoming a steady stream of visitors—family and friends from near and far.

Always inquisitive and never idle, Helen was an avid reader and an excellent seamstress, artist, and crafter. She loved weaving, hand carving, and woodworking, skills she learned while a Berea student. DORATHY CHARLENE WHITEMAN McPEAK

Dorathy Charlene Whiteman McPeak was born in Haworth, Oklahoma, on September 22, 1918, the eighth of ten children of Sam Bell Whiteman and Mary Etta Brimer Whiteman. She had two sisters and seven brothers.

When Dorathy was five, her mother and nine-year-old brother died of typhoid fever. Her fifteen-year-old sister Eula, who had typhoid but recovered, took over the duties of mother, cook, and housekeeper, as well as doing some field work. She also cared for their aging paternal grandmother who lived with them. When Dorathy started third grade, her dad decided she was needed at home to help her sister, so she was given the job of taking care of her two younger brothers.

Dorathy left home at sixteen, working at odd jobs until she answered an ad for a nanny for a three-month-old boy whose mother had died in a fire. The job was in Hot Springs, Arkansas, at a bed and breakfast owned by the paternal grandmother of the child, Allan Lawrence McPeak. In addition to caring for him around the clock for $3.00 a week, Dorathy soon was helping with the care of the bed and breakfast.

In the summer of 1941 the boy's father, Kenneth McPeak, went to Jacksonville, Florida, for a job in the shipyards. That September he wrote his mother that he wanted to ask Dorathy to marry him and bring Alan to Florida. His mother wrote back, "Go for it, she's a good cook!" They were married on October 9, 1941, in Jacksonville.

Dorathy and Allan went to church every week, but Kenneth refused to go. Finally she convinced him to go, and he was saved and became interested in becoming a preacher. He was licensed to preach in 1956 and later became a local preacher. At his first church, Marietta in Jacksonville, he needed a pianist so Dorathy took piano lessons for three months, then taught herself whatever else she needed to learn.

She worked as a telephone operator during World War II and received certification in Life Saving and CPR from the Red Cross. For many years she was a foster care sponsor for the Department of Children and Families. She was a former employee of Winn-Dixie grocery store.

A life member of Eastern Star, she belonged to the Keystone Heights Chapter at the time of her death. She was a past worthy matron of the Hilliard Chapter. She was also a member of the Amaranth Acacia Court #10 in Jacksonville. She was a member of Hawthorne United Methodist Church, the church from which her husband had retired.

Dorathy developed Alzheimer's disease and went to live with her niece, Mary Wilson. After about a year she was placed in a nursing facility in Williston, Florida. She died at Haven Hospice Roberts Care Center in Palatka, Florida, on March 4, 2015, at the age of ninety-six.

Funeral services were held on March 10, 2015, at the Milan Funeral Home Chapel in Gainesville, Florida. Interment was beside her husband at Riverside Memorial Park in Jacksonville, Florida.

She was preceded in death by her husband and is survived by her son, Dr. Allan McPeak, two granddaughters, three great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

MARILYN GEIGER WHITE

Marilyn Geiger White was born on September 19, 1929, in Jackson, Mississippi, to Talmadge and Gertie Geiger. She married her childhood sweetheart, the Reverend Phillip White in 1949. Together they raised three children, Connie, Phillip, Jr. (Sonny), and Doug.

Marilyn worked the majority of her life as a secretary, but her greatest success was found in being a wife, mother, grandmother, and great grandmother to her family. Her husband, an associate member of the Florida Conference, served at Cross City, 1998-99.

Marilyn died on February 12, 2015. Funeral services were held on March 7, 2015, at First United Methodist Church in Ft. Myers, Florida.

She is survived by Phil, her beloved husband of sixty-five years; her daughter Connie and son Doug; six grandchildren; ten great grandchildren; her brother Jerry Geiger; and several nieces and nephews.

Marilyn loved her family and devoted her life to them. To them she was a gentle hand, a guiding voice, and a loving heart.

EARSELENE NELSON ZIMMERMAN

Earselene Nelson Zimmerman was born in Daytona Beach, Florida, on January 14, 1930, to Marie Walker and Clyde Nelson. She graduated from Shell High School in Hawthorne, Florida, in 1949 and from Bethune-Cookman College in 1963. She received a master's degree from Florida A & M University in 1968. Earselene was married to the Reverend Lonnie Zimmerman for eight years prior to his death in 1969.

She was an educator in the Bradford County public school system for thirty-five years. As a member of Bartley Temple United Methodist Church in Gainesville, she served as chairperson of the Staff-Parish Relations Committee and member of the gospel choir. She still held positions in the United Methodist Women and was in the chancel choir up until the time of her death. She was a member of the Florida Conference Ministers Mates, Sister Helping Sisters, University City Floral Club, and Delta Psi Kappa sorority. She was a proud member of the Bethune-Cookman University Alumni Chapter.

Earselene met the face of God on March 13, 2015, as the result of a massive heart attack. Her homegoing celebration was held on March 21, 2015, at Mt. Carmel Baptist Church in Gainesville, Florida, with the Reverend Mary L. Mitchell officiating and the Reverend Moses Johnson offering words of comfort. She was laid to rest in Hawthorne Cemetery, Hawthorne, Florida.

She is survived by her daughter, Audrey N. Lamar, affectionately known as Pinkey; two daughters of a special friend, Deborah Jones of Gainesville, Florida, and Jennifer Jones-Barrera of Los Angeles, California; one granddaughter; four great grandchildren; and one great great-granddaughter.

Affectionately known as Mama Earse, she left a legacy of teaching and giving. She gave from her heart. No one she ever knew went lacking for anything if she could help. Her service to God was making sure His people had food and shelter. Her service, beautiful smile, and encouraging words will forever live on in our hearts.

Part VIII: STATISTICS
REPORT FROM THE CONFERENCE STATISTICIAN

This report is the consolidation of the year-end statistical reports provided to the Annual Conference by each of the Florida churches. The importance of each church providing accurate data cannot be over emphasized.

It is important to recognize the difficulty and amount of work necessary for each local church to obtain accurate data. The task of obtaining the requested information is complicated by changes in church staff. Thanks to each church for their hard work in gathering and submitting the requested information.

While providing accurate data is first the responsibility of the local church, the District AAs carefully review each year-end statistical report for accuracy and reasonableness before releasing them to the conference for further review. I especially want to thank each member of the district staff who worked so hard to provide accurate information and the skilled conference staff as well.

While this report cannot fully reflect the effectiveness of the mission and ministry of the church, it is utilized by many and is the basis for decisions made at every level in the connection.

I would be remiss if I didn't raise up Steve Loher, Kitt Elliott and Michael Penuliar. Without their attention to detail and tireless commitment none of this could be possible.

Anthony Prestipino, Year Ending December 31, 2014

NOTE: Every quadrennium the Committee on Official Forms and Records meets and re-evaluates the statistical forms and makes changes as needed. Two-thousand thirteen (2013) was the beginning of a new quadrennium that will be in effect from 2013-2016. Changes were made to the 2013 year-end statistical report which included the removing of questions, adding new questions and changing the wording of questions. Because of this, line numbers and questions for 2014 data will not necessarily line up with previous years.

For a more detailed comparison of the changes, as well as answers to questions about how the data is used and who uses it, please visit the statistics section of the General Council on Finance and Administration website (www.gcfa.org/forms) and click on "New Statistics Forms to the Previous Version (XLS)" or "A Guide to the Users of Local Church Statistics" under the heading Statistical Forms Comparisons.

STATISTICAL TABLES! All local church statistical information collected for the year 2014 is now available to all local churches in an Excel spreadsheet. Local churches can access the Excel spreadsheet through their local church log-in via the Conference Website (www.flumc.org). The Excel spreadsheet is laid out by district, with a recap of district and conference totals. Having it in an Excel spreadsheet will enable users to search and sort the data as needed. All local church statistical information collected for the year 2014 is also available in PDF format on the Conference website (www.flumc.org) and the 2015 CD Rom Journal for easy printing.

In an effort to reduce printing and mailing costs, and to provide the data in a more useable format, you will not find the traditional pages of statistical tables printed here in the Journal. An electronic copy of all local church statistics has been provided to the General Council on Finance and Administration, the General Commission on Archives and History, and electronic copies are kept by the Conference Center.
